JOINT EXECUTIVE OF THE STUDENTS'
ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

FOREWORD

As the nation treasures
the Events of its Youth,
so we treasure these Events of our Youth
that the Memories of the Future may be made more vivid by this Record of the Past.

To the Members of the Graduating Classes

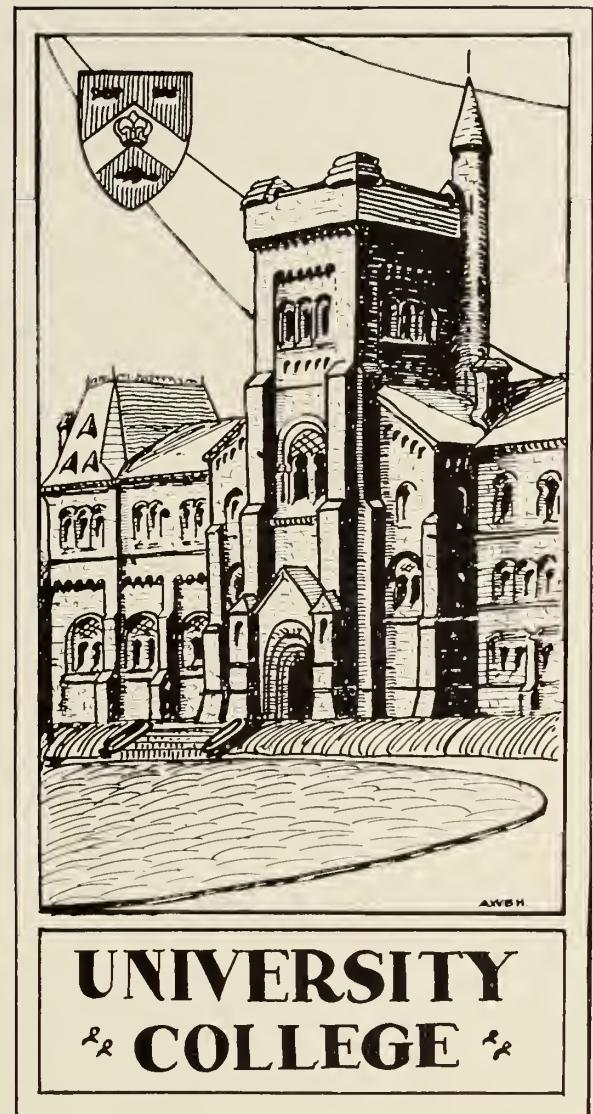

SEND my greeting, as now I have done for twenty-one years. May you have as abundant success as your predecessors, and fulfil your part in your own day as they did or are doing in theirs. You will have happy memories and be proud of your membership in a great university, which is growing in power and excellence with its advancing years, and by the time that the longest lived of those who are now graduating close their span of life, this institution will have become one of the universities of the world to which men from everywhere will turn as a leading centre of intellectual and spiritual activity. What is to us the great throbbing present, may in the future seem to have been a day of merely youthful maturing powers.

A part of happiness consists in the richness of one's memories. You go forth, therefore, endowed for happiness because of what you have seen, done and acquired during your undergraduate career in faculty or college. You began to test yourselves alongside of picked young men and women from all over this Dominion, and you have had new friends who have come to you by the selective process of a more mature period of your life than that of your school days. What you have won in the way of education and character should equip you so that in the following years also you will be able to choose friends who will bring you satisfying pleasures. May the joys and sorrows of your life be heightened or softened by the wisdom and sympathy of the friends whom you have begun to appreciate and understand during the time you spent at "Old Varsity".

R. A. Falcone

President.

G. A. Gale (Secretary), Miss E. A. Barton (Vice-President), E. M. Henry (President), Miss E. M. McCollum (Treasurer).

Class of 2T9 University College

THE spring of 1929 marks the departure of the survivors of the entering class of 1925 from the time-honoured and sun-glorified halls of University College. They go out to battle in the great turmoil of life the better equipped for their struggle by the learning and experience which the pleasant, though often irksome, undergraduate toil has brought to them.

They form a worthy class of their noble college and the years will prove their merit. The stainless name of University College will be lauded again and again as time evinces their ability to put into practical use the products of their years of study. Success will be theirs if past achievements are indicative of the future, for the class of 2T9 has already proved its worth in both athletic and academic fields.

Their contributions to the athletic hall of fame have been many and mighty. Men and women alike have achieved well-earned honours. Praises for the women's teams have been ringing throughout their entire four years at the University; the coveted laurels have been won time after time in track meets and in assaults-at-arms, in rugby, in hockey, water polo, swimming and basketball.

Likewise, organizations such as the Players' Guild have been given excellent support by members of the class. Debating, too, has been shown by many to be a major interest, and the college boasts several men and women who are especially fine in this particular field.

Lastly, but by no means least of the acknowledged accomplishments are the class academic attainments. Records in Simcoe Hall show that a goodly number of scholarships have been awarded to members of 2T9 of University College.

Above all else is its love and loyal devotion to its Alma Mater. That feeling will never depart although the class be divided and its members scattered. Memories gained from happy association with the college will form a lasting bond between each and every member of the class, and the true spirit of good fellowship will always remain in the hearts of 2T9.

Victoria 2T9 Class History

2T9 Victoria College is, we claim, fortune's latest favourite, but, like every child of fortune, it has had its ups and downs. Our arrival on the scene provoked a torrent of mingled praise and blame (mainly blame), and few seemed to recognise our virtues save ourselves. But now at length we are emerging into our fitting state of dignity and grace. 2T9 was welcomed in the prescribed manner of the ancien régime—departed now for ever. We were thoroughly initiated, and given the privilege of proposing (at an early age) to all the young ladies of Annesley Hall.

Class parties loom large in the history of any class, and 2T9 parties have always ranked distinctly above par. Our Leap Year Party, in particular, was the crowning glory of our career, and pitched our record at an enviable height. In our final year we have gone from glory to glory. Our Japanese party was a distinct success; the brilliance of our Hard Times Party exceeded all expectation, and we ended our social career in a blaze of glory with a dinner in Burwash and a dance in Wymilwood. We have also made valiant efforts to enliven (so far as possible) the Receptions—those formidable bequests of tradition. Hazy memories lurk in odd corners of our minds and remind us of expeditions to Elderado Park and the Apollo Club, but a host of functions in the College have intervened since then. As a final climax came the Senior Dinner. Professor Edgar assured us a career was just a chance affair, and the Faculty dismissed us with their blessing.

Meds 2T9 Class History

LURID red ties, scraps with howling Sophs, running the gauntlet after physics and biology lectures, initiation à la fly paper, obsolete eggs, embryo beef, and what have you—that was Varsity as the men of 2T9 found it back in the fall of '23. In the memory of that same fall is the story of how we, innocents abroad, not only organized but also led an uproarious parade downtown on the occasion of Lloyd George's visit, thereby running foul of the S.A.C. and the police of the city.

Under the leadership of Willson McTavish, president, we took an active part in the last and greatest storming of U.C. by the stalwarts of Medicine and Poor School. And then in May, as luck would have it, most of us passed our examinations.

Lou Eckert, who later left the course, was our second year president. Under his guidance 2T9 administered an initiation which thoroughly impressed the youth of 3T0. It was one of the last try-outs in the old Gym. Someone has said that they had to tear the building down, but Sir Robert in the mean time had cancelled initiations from the freshman's curriculum. At any rate, the old buildings were torn down, and we were all sorry to see another landmark fall.

In our third year Duff Wilson headed the executive, and all went fine. However, if it were not for the Physiology Quizz, our first entrance to the T.G.H. through the X-ray department, Dr. Hunter's 9 o'clocks and the drawn-out and terrifying lab. talks by "we don't know" (Dr. Holman), many of us would forget about the year. In fact, from the number of casualties our small year suffered we feel sure that several members would much rather forget all about the year.

The following year, with Ollie Stanton as our leader, we met many famous characters between the walls of the T.G.H. The theatre party which we had that year was one of the high lights of the course.

H. R. Ziegler guided our voyage through fifth year, when once again we just failed to win the coveted Daffydil Cup. Although unsuccessful in winning the Daffydil Cup Tutti nine were always up with the winners and could be depended upon for a good skit. Art Overholt, one of the leaders of Daffydil throughout his six years, could always get a laugh. Perhaps, shall we say the other members of the skits were overtrained. The final take-off of the professors was certainly enjoyed by the skit members if not by the audience. Fletcher McPhedran's humorous addresses interspersed with a few remarks on typhoid and pneumonia, will be remembered long after graduation.

Through illness Jack Hawkins was forced to resign the presidency of the graduating year and Vic Railton was elected. Never has there been a gayer graduation banquet than that of 2T9. Drs. Ryerson, Gallie, Hendry, Hunter, Brown and Shenstone added to the enjoyment of the evening by witty remarks and stories. Dr. Andrew Hunter, our class advisor, replied to the toast to the faculty. In so doing he made his farewell speech to our year before leaving for Scotland, where he is to take up new duties. Mo Mitchell was presented with the athletic stick. He had carried the honour of tutti nine in the intercollegiate track, harrier and basketball fields, placing him as one of the outstanding athletes developed at Varsity. Other members of our year who have gained their first T's are: Ross Lymburner, R. Nicholson, G. Lewis, H. R. Ziegler, J. E. Gundy, G. L. Duff, Al. Young and H. Hills.

Great honour came to our year when one of our members, H. R. Ziegler, was awarded the Rhodes Scholarship. H. Rolfe has been very active in sports and in medical activities. As president of the Medical Society, he performed his duties in admirable and efficient manner. The Scholarship Committee made no mistake in giving him this high honour.

The permanent executive of tutti nine, W. A. McTavish, President; O. L. Stanton, Vice-President; Miss K. W. Baldwin, Secretary; will do well to keep in touch with the class members. Let us hope that they will soon arrange a reunion when the spirit of this year can once more meet in friendly conversation. May the future be as successful and happy as our short six years at Varsity have been.

A. Young, H. R. Ziegler, R. M. Mitchell, H. Hills, R. E. Nicholson, G. L. Duff, R. Lynburner

Meds 2T9 "T" Holders

NINE members of the graduating year in Medicine have won their first "T", most of them more than once and several of them in more than one sport. Eight different branches of athletics are represented by these colour winners and quite a few have won Ontario or Dominion championships in their events. Three members of the year are members of the Athletic Directorate.

G. L. Duff was a member of the tack-weight crew in '25. The next year he moved up to stroke the junior crew which was beaten out only by a narrow margin at the Canadian Henley.

W. H. Hills won the light heavyweight title in the intercollegiate assault in his fifth year. This year he won the heavy weight class in the Intercollegiate after previously annexing the Canadian amateur crown in the same weight.

R. M. Lynburner—"The strongest little man in the world." Ross has been a member of the Gym team for three years. He was also a member of the Varsity team which took the Ontario championship in gymnastics.

R. M. Mitchell was four years a member of the Senior Track Team, winning eight intercollegiate, two Ontario and one Canadian championships. Had four years also on the Harrier Team, winning the championship once, and played one year with the Lacrosse team. He played one year each with the Junior and Intermediate Basketball Teams and two years with the Seniors, which he captained in his final year. Was presented with the athletic stick for winning his first "T" thirteen times and in three different sports. Is a member of Athletic Directorate.

R. E. Nicholson, another of these oarsmen. He has been rowing for four years in three of which he dragged a senior oar, and last year was ballast on the championship intercollegiate crew.

A. R. Tilley won his "T" for Intercollegiate Water Polo. He also competed for Meds three years in the Interfaculty Swimming Meet.

G. A. Lewis won his colour for basketball after two years with the Intermediates and one with the Senior Team.

A. E. Young won his colour for rugby, playing one year with the Intermediate and three with the Intercollegiate Teams.

H. R. Ziegler played Junior Basketball in his first year. Later spent two seasons with the Intermediate and one with the Senior Basketball Teams. He has been active also in Interfaculty basketball and rugby.

Applied Science 2T9 Class History

*"When the waters receded and earth did appear,
The good Lord created the engineer."*

FOR the last half century the School of Practical Science has been assisting in the creation of members of this, one of the oldest and most honourable professions, Engineering.

Thus in October, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, the class of 2T9 began to partake of that indefinable thing known as "School Spirit". Through the bewilderment of registration and the "friendly" help of the upper years, we struggled to the Dean's address to the freshman year, in which he impressed upon us the privilege and honour which was to be ours, in carrying on the traditions of the Little Red Schoolhouse and laying the milestone of 1929.

Although we were a little doubtful about the true meaning of "School Spirit", the obliging Sophs quickly began to instruct us. Green ties, with yellow painted emblems thereon, were soon an essential part of the adornment of every man. It was not very long before we found out that the "Second Year men had learned about the tap".

We cast about for a leader and by a very lucky choice Jack Davenport became the first president of 2T9. Very soon the question of initiations became a topic of interest. Other faculties were having gruesome ceremonies. What would ours be like? We were assured by those who knew that when School put on an initiation it was real. On the fateful night, with nothing but a potato sack and silent prayers, we were made brethren of School in an unexpected manner.

The year soon got together at a dinner and smoker in Hart House in order to become better acquainted. After the novelty of initiations and getting used to the new surroundings had worn off, each man began to turn to the diversions and activities which were to be his interests, other than academic, throughout the four years. Some of us turned to swimming, track or rugby; others to whatever interested us most at the moment.

Perhaps the most "touching" event of our first year was the Soph-Frosh banquet at the Carls-Rite Hotel. So "touching" was this event, in fact, that some of us did not recover financially for many a day. In the final entertainment of the year, that provided by our professors, many of us were stricken. Then one and all went out for the summer months to recuperate, and incidentally acquire some practical experience.

With Jack Deacon as president we marched into the fight once again, doing all in our power to give the freshmen a proper respect for things traditional, without arousing the ire of a now watchful caput. The skilful manner in which a delicate situation was handled is a matter of pride. The freshmen entertained us with the traditional Soph-Frosh banquet at the Prince George Hotel. The banquet was carried off in a manner to suit even the most fastidious. At the Junior School Dance held at the King Edward Hotel a large number of the year gathered to enjoy an evening with their lady friends, dancing to the strains of Romanelli's Orchestra. The year's activities in things social were brought to a close with a theatre party and a dance at U.T.S. The theatre party especially was a success in some respects—making it even harder for any year, as a body, to attend the downtown theatres. Again the examinations were upon us and in the skirmish a few more were put out of action.

With Gerry Gray in command we entered into the hardest action of our college careers. Upon coming back at the opening of the term we encountered the Centennial Celebrations of the University. In the Centenary Parade, Centenary Ball and other University functions the members of the year played an important part. Many of us will especially remember the Centenary Ball, with the quadrangle of Hart House flooded by the glow of myriad coloured lights. We were also fortunate in being able to take part in the Semi-Centenary Celebrations of Old School which were being held in conjunction with the University celebrations. But our third year was not to be all enjoyment, as we soon learned. In this, our hardest year, many a doughty warrior had visions of a few gray hairs appearing as he met and overcame obstacle after obstacle. Although the call to duty was insistent, and lectures and labs. were many, we found time for quite a little diversion and relaxation, including two very fine class parties. The success with which the battle was waged was well shown by the remarkably small number who fell at the end of the year. As we went out for the summer we felt sure that industry noticed the impetus of our aid, because to many of us this last summer meant the final chance to make up the necessary "sixteen hundred hours".

One hundred strong we marched on to the fourth year under the capable leadership of Art Davison. The men of 2T9 assumed command of the Engineering Society Executive, the various clubs, the Athletic Association, and the many committees which are essential to the success of School events. The majority of us, perhaps, do not know of or appreciate the capable and faithful manner in which these men carried out their many duties, but the success of all events during the year was ample proof of their ability and effort. Space only prevents us from mentioning them each by name.

The social activities of our fourth year proved a fitting climax to the three other glorious years. We think with pleasure of the Masquerade (at which ninety per cent. of the year were present), of School Nite and the School At-Home. By far the most outstanding social event of the year, with its special significance for 2T9, was our Graduation Dance at which we met for the last time as a class of undergraduates. It will always be remembered by us as, perchance, we scan these few words in years to come.

"Engineering is the science of controlling the forces and utilizing the materials of nature for the benefit of man, and the art of organizing and directing human activities in connection therewith."

SOCIAL SERVICE

Kathleen Munday (Sec'y-Treasurer), Marguerite Ross (Social Convener), Amy Leigh (President), Y. Kokita (Vice-President)

Social Service

THE Department of Social Service is one of the newer departments of the University dating from 1914. The form it took on starting was looked on as temporary, but for various reasons a more permanent one—one which more nearly corresponds to that of other University departments—is only now beginning to take shape.

In spite of this, social workers have gone from it to all parts of Canada, and requests for workers since 1925 have exceeded the number available, and this, one feels, indicates a confidence on the part of the community in the work the Department is trying to do. Its students have come from all over the Dominion, from England and the United States, as well as from Europe, Asia and Africa. They have been of the Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish religious persuasions, as well as none. These facts themselves have been invaluable in that they have been the means of broadening the outlook and understanding of each, because, while these people were inevitably thrown together in class room they chose to be together at other times.

Now that a larger permanent staff is being secured within the Department it looks forward to being used not only by its own students and occasional people, but also by students in other Departments and Faculties, through its courses in Social and Industrial History, Principles of Human and Social Relationships, and several other subjects which will be taught from our point of view, i.e., with emphasis on their bearing on the social life of the people.

For those who may not be familiar either with the work done in the Department or with that of its graduates it will not be enough to say that the aim is one of prevention and of eradication. The students are taught that people must be considered in relation to the economic and social life around them, and of which they are a part; that work must be undertaken on the principle that people constitute the riches of a country. In other words, an attempt is made to convince students of the importance of working to the end that increasing thought and care will be given to securing for normal functions of society the means of healthy functioning even while they may be forced for the moment to deal with the results of some deficiency.

TEACHERS' ↵

Department of University Extension

The Teachers' Course

N the next page will be found reproductions of photographs of some of those who graduate this year in the Teachers' Course. If the fates are kind, thirty-two teachers will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree in June; but not all of them are supplying their photographs to TORONTONENSIS.

Previous to June, 1929, one hundred and fifty-three men and women completed the Teachers' Course and graduated. During the session 1928-29 four hundred and sixty-four teachers have been taking work in the Second, Third and Fourth Years of the Teachers' Course. There is no First Year in this Course because all who enter it have already taken Honour Matriculation instead of a First Year.

The Teachers' Course was arranged by the University of Toronto some years ago so that those who are employed during the day may secure a university education by means of Teachers' Classes which are held in the evenings, on Saturdays, and late in the afternoons, at the University, in Hamilton, in Fort William, and in Windsor or by means of the Summer Session. The term "extra-mural" should not be used in describing these students. They attend lectures, just as do students in residence, but they attend them at different times. Naturally, these students cannot take a full year's work in a session. As a rule, a student in the Teachers' Course does the work of three university years in five years.

The Teachers' Course is an adaptation of the Pass Course and has fewer options. The standard is just as high. The only difference is that, by means of the Teachers' Course, the work is made accessible to those who cannot attend the University in the regular way.

These students miss, of course, something of university life but not all of it, for they are here a great part of the time and they have their class reunions as other students have. They even have class parties, though these are not very frequent. Students in the Teachers' Course are more mature than the average undergraduate; they work hard, and they usually secure an excellent standing at the examinations. Few of them are satisfied with anything else than B standing, and a great many of them strive for and secure A standing.

The Department of University Extension has other work besides the Teachers' Course. It carries on a two-year Course in Occupational Therapy and a one-year Course in Teaching and Administration for Graduate Nurses. It conducts a great many evening classes, short courses, and Extension Lectures. All students in the Department of University Extension are adults. Last year there were 3,161 adults taking definite, continuous work. When the figures for this year are compiled at the end of June, the total will be considerably larger than this. Besides, more than 20,000 people attend Extension Lectures each year. The function of the Department of University Extension is to serve the citizens of the Province of Ontario.

VETERINARY -

To the Graduating Class of the Veterinary College

By Dr. D. C. McGilvray

THE choice of a career based on a professional education is generally a perplexing problem for the average young man. Those with fixed tendencies, or who are brought up under influences that simplify their choice, are indeed fortunate. In this regard it should always be kept in mind that simply to make a good easy living is not sufficient reason for the pursuit of a learned profession. There are many definitions of the purpose of a professional education and the one most generally accepted is, that by obtaining a liberal education and a sound academic training one acquires more ability to properly evaluate the problems of life and to assist in their solution. Such being the case the true incentive of professional worth and usefulness should be to keep abreast of the times and to forge ahead in the advancement of science and research. It is always well for those entering a profession to carry modestly the ideals of university training. It should be their aim to become self-reliant, contented men, deserving respect and ever ready to cultivate the best channels of education for the advancement of scientific truths and better methods. In the future, as in the past, the undergraduate must be the fore-runner of the additional recruits required to fill the ranks of those necessary for the good of the State and its people. In this respect the veterinary profession has every reason to be proud of the splendid type of undergraduate preparing for its ranks. Heretofore the history and progress of the veterinary profession has been very largely influenced by agricultural development and prosperity. Unfortunately, agriculture is characterized by a high degree of economic uncertainty and during the last decade this has been particularly marked in some branches. As a result the relative opportunities in business and professional life dependent on agricultural prosperity have been greatly modified. To some extent we have been passing through a period of agricultural depression and general unrest from the effects of which our profession has suffered to a considerable degree. Fortunately, conditions are now becoming more favourable and probably some day we shall look back on the present time as the beginning of a new epoch. May success and happiness be with you in the years to come.

ATHLETICS

Intercollegiate Athletics

HIS section of Torontonensis is dedicated to the Varsity O.R.F.U. team. They are typical of that high ideal of sportsmanship upon which Canadian Intercollegiate athletics are based. This season, 1928-'29, has been singularly successful and the collection of cups in Hart House is increased by a goodly number; but, long after these championship teams have been forgotten, the meteoric career of the 'Orphans' will still remain as the ideal which future teams must strive to equal.

Four players stand out—Captain 'Chuck' Baillie, who, faced with a three point deficit in the crucial game with Sarnia, kicked a drop from the 35 yard line with ten seconds to go, tieing the score; Jack Sinclair, the greatest half in Canadian rugby today; 'Doug' McFadyen, a worthy running mate for Sinclair; and A. Snider whose tackling in the Hamilton Tiger game was one of the gamest exhibitions ever seen on a rugby field. No small share of the credit must go to 'Jimmie' Douglas the coach. His appointment as Honorary Coach in rugby for next fall is a popular choice.

The Intercollegiate Rugby team with a powerful line, but handicapped by an unsteady backfield and a surprising habit of 'spotting' their opponents a touch in the first minutes of the game, were not successful in bringing the championship to Varsity. However, they did defeat Queen's in Kingston for the first time since 1922, a worthy feat which brought great joy to the few Varsity rooters present. McGill won the title but did not go on in the Dominion play-downs. The inclusion of Western into the Intercollegiate Union will be watched with interest next fall. They should prove worthy opponents.

The O.R.F.U. team supplied all the thrills for the season. The crucial game with Sarnia was tied up by 'Chuck' Baillie's drop with ten seconds to go and the Orphans went on to win in the overtime making a three-cornered group tie. In the playoffs on Thanksgiving Day they defeated Balmy Beach, Dominion Champions in 1927, 1 to 0. The following Saturday they again defeated Sarnia, who had won from Kitchener, to bring Varsity its first title since 1896. They went down to defeat before Hamilton Tigers in the Dominion playoffs—but it was a glorious victory in defeat. Outweighed, outlucked, outplayed by their more experienced opponents they did not quit.

The Intermediates plodded through another season winning only one of their group games. The Juniors won their group but lost to Queens in the play-offs.

Senior S.P.S. won the Mulock Cup emblematic of the Interfaculty Championship defeating St. Michael's in the playoffs.

In Track and Field sports Varsity's new and inexperienced team lost to McGill. The Intermediate team, however, returned from O.A.C. with the Intermediate Intercollegiate title.

The Harrier Team were also defeated, placing third to R.M.C. and McGill. The second team was entered in the Thirty Mile International Relay Race and made a very creditable showing.

Varsity's Senior Hockey Team started the season by winning the S.P.A. trophy. They led their O.H.A. group throughout the season and in the playoffs defeated Queens to win the Senior O.H.A. title. In the Allan Cup series they defeated Iroquois Falls and Ottawa Shamrocks, overcoming a two-goal lead right in Ottawa, but lost to St. Francois Xavier. They annexed the Intercollegiate title and in between they found time to defeat several American teams on their annual tour.

The Intermediate Hockey team lost out in their O.H.A. group to Willowdale but went on to win the Intermediate Intercollegiate title from Queens. The Juniors after a worthy struggle were defeated in their group.

The Boxers, Wrestlers and Fencers again vanquished their opponents from McGill and Queens and brought another Intercollegiate title to Varsity.

Both the Senior and Intermediate Basketball teams returned with Intercollegiate laurels. Their American tour was once more a success.

Rowing, as usual, under Prof. 'Tommy' Loudon was a flourishing sport, although the crews were not as successful as in '26 in annexing titles. The Senior crew won their annual race with McGill for the first time.

Swimming, diving and water polo are progressing rapidly. The Swimming team annexed another Intercollegiate title and the Water Polo team not to be outdone followed suit, besides winning the city championship.

The Tennis team won their Intercollegiate title—a success in no small measure due to Walter Martin, one of Canada's ranking players.

The Rugger Team again lost to McGill but only after a hard struggle.

The Golf team won in Montreal and returned with another championship.

The Soccer team playing in hard luck lost out in their games, McGill winning the title.

The Lacrosse team again made a successful invasion of the United States.

MURRAY SNYDER

Captain Intercollegiate Rugby Team

Senior Intercollegiate Rugby Team

AT the beginning of the rugby season even the most enthusiastic of supporters were dubious concerning the possibilities of the Senior Intercollegiate team. Graduation and examinations had left Varsity with nine of last year's squad. Under the coaching of 'Les' Blackwell a wing line and a backfield were built up. The line was one of the best Varsity has had in recent years but the backfield was inexperienced and, although brilliant at times, their mistakes were costly.

The team opened the season in Kingston and opened it auspiciously, defeating Queens 10-7. It was the first victory in Kingston since 1922 when Warren Snyder led his team to a 24-1 victory. The game was only under way a minute when Queens scored a touch and converted it but the Blue team came through and at half time the score was tied 6-6. Midway through the third quarter Varsity secured a drop. In the last quarter Queens forced the play and the Varsity halves began to fumble with the result that the final five minutes was one of the most exciting ever seen. However, the line held, and with the exception of a rouge, held Queens at bay.

The following Saturday Varsity entertained McGill at the stadium and suffered a 16-7 defeat; three of McGill's major scores resulting from Varsity blunders. The game opened as at Kingston with Varsity facing a five point deficit in the first minute. The first quarter ended 5-2 in McGill's favour. Early in the second quarter Darling plunged for a touch and Varsity was leading 7-5. The McGill line tightened and smothered Varsity plunges. A fumble resulted and Hallam dropped behind his line to kick but elected to run it out and failed to make yards. On the second down McGill plunged for a touch. At half-time the score was 11-7. In the third quarter a bad pass resulted in another touch for McGill. The last quarter developed into a kicking duel with Hallam showing to advantage but no score resulted.

The home game jinx seemed rampant as Queens defeated Varsity at the stadium 16-4. The first half was Varsity's and the score at half-time was 4-1. In the third quarter the Varsity line failed to hold and Darling's kick was blocked. On a quick formation Carter rounded the right end for a touch which he converted. Later Durham rounded the lame end for another touch for Queens. In the last quarter Varsity opened up an aerial attack but were outkicked.

In the final game with McGill in Montreal another defeat was suffered 13-7. Once more Varsity faced a five point deficit through a fumble early in the game. In the second quarter Doherty and Munroe made a sixty yard end run to give McGill another touch. Varsity fought hard but good tackling and the steadiness of Tremaine and Doherty in the McGill backfield held them down.

The Senior O.R.F.U. Team--Champions

Semi-Finalists Canadian Rugby Union Title

ISSING the championship by close margins for several years the University O.R.F.U. team surprised their supporters by defeating Balmy Beach, the Dominion Title Holders for 1927-1928 and winning their first senior title since coming back to the O.R.F.U.

The Orphans were an untried quantity at the start of the season consisting of players from the Junior and Intermediate teams, five freshmen and a few old colours from last year. Their first two games were away from home at Kitchener and Sarnia respectively, both being lost after hard fights. The third game of the season was in Toronto against Sarnia and was considered the most exciting of the season. Varsity scored first, Sarnia tied it up and went into the lead in the third quarter and which they held till the last half minute of play when Captain Charlie Baillie kicked a goal from the field. In the overtime Varsity scored decisively to win their first game.

The Western group ended in a three cornered tie, Varsity and Sarnia defeating

'JIMMIE' DOUGLAS
COACH

Kitchener. In the play-off Varsity drew Balmy Beach and the game was played on Thanksgiving Day. The stubborn fight in the rain and the mud put up by the Orphans resulted in the biggest upset of the season when they outlasted Balmy Beach to win by 1-0. The following week the Orphans won the O.R.F.U. Title by defeating Sarnia. With the Intercollegiate Union unrepresented Varsity played Hamilton Tigers in the Eastern Canada finals in Hamilton. The largest crowd to leave Toronto to attend a sporting event journeyed to Hamilton that day and witnessed what will go down in sport history as one of the gamest fights ever put up by a team.

Outweighed 20 pounds per man and pitted against one of the greatest teams ever assembled in Canada, Varsity, although first to score, went down to defeat.

The team was coached by Jimmie Douglas and much of the credit must go to him for the success of the team and also to Jack Sinclair whose field generalship and all-round play were invaluable.

With players like Doug McFadyen, Charlie Baillie, Snider, Ruddel and the rest available for next year, the Intercollegiate should have marked success under Jimmie Douglas.

The Intermediate Intercollegiate Rugby Team

UNDER the guiding hand of Fred Bartlett the Intermediates plodded through another season. This team should be called the "Orphans". It is heartbreaking for a team to lose game after game, season after season, but the Intermediates have still plodded on. With the advent of Western to Intercollegiate senior ranks, the Intermediates next year should have better success, although St. Michael's led the group.

On the 13th of October in their first game they were defeated 25-1 by Western. On the 17th they achieved their only win of the season, defeating Osgoode Hall 23-0. The next Saturday they suffered a 28-10 loss at the hands of St. Michael's and in their last game were defeated once more, this time by O.A.C.

It seems possible that, with more support from the various Faculty teams, this Intermediate team could make a better showing. Their cause is worthy of better support.

The team consisted of: G. Arnold, F. Brooks-Hill, C. Banwell, J. Bailles, A. Beckett, W. Campbell, F. Dickson, L. Emerson, F. Grosvenor, R. Honey, J. Jackson, D. Johnston, F. Kergin, W. Kergin, T. Kirk, G. Knowles, B. Layton, S. Legate, R. McDougall, C. H. Searle, P. Sullivan, and A. Wilson.

The Junior Rugby Team

THE Juniors this year received little publicity but under the capable hands of 'Red' Chaffe they had a most successful season, winning their group but losing to Queens in the playoff. Richardson and Glen Smith, the captain, proved a good steady backfield. The line was well-balanced with Heintzman, the quarter, and Farwell standing out.

The innovation of the Athletic Directorate, in making the Juniors a Freshman team has proved a decided success. The Juniors of the past two seasons have uncovered some material which has materially strengthened the Intercollegiate and O.R.F.U. teams. The benefit derived from good coaching in their freshman year is being shown and will continue to be shown in senior ranks.

In their first game the Juniors defeated O.A.C. on the back campus, 18-5. Then to the consternation of their supporters they upset the dope and lost to McMaster the following Saturday, 4-11. On the 31st of October the Juniors met O.A.C., fighting with their backs to the wall as a loss meant elimination. They came through with a 38-0 win, right in Guelph. This left McMaster and Varsity tied for group honours.

On the 3rd of November the playoff took place on a field covered with mud. Varsity kicked for 3 singles and held McMaster to one point. The field was so terrible that brilliant rugby was out of the question, but the Varsity backs were superior.

In the Junior Intercollegiate finals Varsity lost the first game to Queens in Kingston, 15-3. Varsity's line failed to hold and the Tricolour walked through for big gains, making yards ten times to Varsity's twice. Perkins and Robinson and Britnell turned in brilliant games.

In the return game Queen's highly-rated aggregation failed to show their wares. The final score was 10-7 for Varsity but that 12 point lead was too large to overcome, at that Queens scored six of their seven points as the result of a fumble behind the Blue line.

Senior Intercollegiate Track Team

EVEN the most optimistic track enthusiasts around Varsity were skeptical regarding our Track Team this year. The list of men who were not performing for the Blue and White read like a Canadian Olympic representation. But its an ill wind that . . . , etc., and the lesser lights, more confident of themselves, together with a few old standbys, turned out in full force to what proved to be an excellent Interfaculty meet. "School" came out on top with "Meds" and "U.C." right on their heels. Good scores were also chalked up for "Vic" and "St. Mike's". The competition was keen and each event was well filled for this year two teams had to be chosen,— and it was no easy job.

At any rate, the Senior team journeyed off to Montreal to try conclusions with Queen's and old McGill. The story is an old one, a comparatively inexperienced team against a crew of tried, old speedsters. McGill's team was practically intact from the previous two or three years and so they piled up a total of some eighty odd points to Varsity's forty or so. But the defeat had some consolations. The old timers on the team came through well. "Bill" Finlayson had a "hey-day" for after winning the hundred, he won the discus and came second in the two-twenty. "Mo" Mitchell ran the prettiest race of his long career to beat Hands of McGill in the four forty. "Jack" Davenport can have the satisfaction of graduating as Intercollegiate Pole Vaulting Champion—the captain came through with his five points in the usual style. Among the newcomers to the team "Jack" Vila and "Hal" Williams ran a nice second and third in the mile and "Carm" King ran a nice half. And then "Hap" Gilbert ran his three mile. We all had him fainting half way 'round, or at least unconscious at the finish,— he was covering ground like any given wild animal. But no, there was no collapsing, he breezed in easily half a length ahead of the next man. We haven't mentioned the other men, who, though they didn't gather firsts, made it hot for the other fellows, and can be counted on to reverse the proceeding next year.

This year, Varsity, for the first time, entered a team in the Intermediate Intercollegiate Track meet at O.A.C. As far as championships are concerned, the Intermediates outdid the Seniors, for by the small margin of five points, Varsity emerged from the fracas, the victors. Duff Thompson was chosen as captain on the way up to Guelph, and a worthy captain he proved to be. He collected the four forty, the javelin and others too numerous to mention. O'Leary won the hundred and Ryan the two twenty. Don Smith came through with a beautiful half and Howe and Olanow ran second and third to O.A.C. in the mile. George Laughlin will testify that high-hurdling on a muddy field is not conducive to good technique, yet he broke the tape nicely in front. Ellis, who is a likely-looking man for Senior company broad-jumped for another big win. The rest of the team worked hard and collected enough seconds and thirds to make it interesting for the ambitious O.A.C. lads. All eyes were on the score sheet where first Varsity was on top and then O.A.C. The last event, the relay race, found Varsity only one point up. But we had a good team of four forty men and our anchor man was not extended to win. At the Interfaculty meet next fall, there will be fur flying between the two teams and some of the men on the Senior team are going to fight to keep their places from the up-and-coming Intermediates. Track and Field Athletics are booming at Varsity and it bodes well for the future ownership of the "Iron-man" trophy.

Intercollegiate Harrier Club

THE Interfaculty Harrier Meet was held under ideal weather conditions on October twenty-seventh. Over ninety men faced the starter at the main gates of Upper Canada College. After the start the field strung out, but before the two mile mark the O.A.C. men had found their stride and taken the lead. Their supremacy was never challenged, and Banks, winning in the good time of 30' 41", led his team in to first place with the low score of twelve points. Trinity placed second, and Meds. followed a very close third. The first twelve men to finish were: Banks, Malkin, Griffiths, O.A.C.; Lee, S.P.S.; Smith, U.C.; Dempsey, Garnett, O.A.C.; McLennan, Meds.; Ross, O.A.C.; Walters, Trinity; Stacey, O.A.C.; Seaborne, Trinity.

Since O.A.C. are ineligible for the Intercollegiate Meet the Varsity team was composed of Lee, Smith, Walters and Seaborne. Gilbert of U.C. was included on his heat record though unable to run in the interfaculty. It was unfortunate that McLennan injured his foot and could not go to Kingston. "Wally" Graham, last year's Intercollegiate champion, accompanied the team as manager, being unable to run at all this season. So did R. M. Mitchell as Vice-President of the Intercollegiate Union.

None of the members of the team, of whom three were freshmen, had ever run in an intercollegiate meet before. Inexperienced as they were, they met defeat at the hands of the strong R.M.C. team who easily won the championship, while Varsity placed third to McGill. Of the Varsity team Lee finished seventh, Gilbert tenth, Seaborne twelfth, and Walters fifteenth.

While it was unfortunate that the winning streak which had lasted for three years was broken, much promising material was unearthed and there is good promise for future success.

As an encouragement to those men who had just failed to make the Intercollegiate Team and to bring on fresh material, a second team of 10 men was formed this year to enter the Thirty Mile International Silver Trophy Relay Race. Their showing against the best teams of the city and district was highly creditable, and it is hoped that this innovation will be continued. The following men composed the team: MacDonald, Trinity; D. Wilson, Meds.; McPherson, Trinity; Young, Meds.; Baldwin, Trinity; T. Wilson, Meds.; Woodcock, Trinity; Davies, U.C.; L. Wilson, Trinity; Vila, U.C.

University of Toronto Lacrosse Team

THIS year the opening game was played on the back campus against the Camp Borden airmen. The University team won by a considerable margin after a strenuous game. A practice with the St. Simon's Club of Toronto during the following week proved a valuable experience to the team. On May 26th the first game on American territory was played in Buffalo against the Curtiss Airplane aggregation. Buffalo were winners by a score of 5-1. On May 30th and June 2nd the yearly feud with the Crescent Athletic Club of New York was renewed on their Brooklyn field. Two victories by scores of 5-4 and 4-1 respectively indicate the strength of the well-coached Toronto team.

"Don" Graham, who has acted as playing manager for the past few years, was unable to make the trip. He was keenly missed. Dr. W. Dafoe and Prof. "Mike" Pearson, who have coached the team very efficiently, were largely responsible for the success of the tour. Next year practically all of the team is again eligible, and Dr. Dafoe can be relied on to round it into a winning aggregation. Prof. Pearson's appointment at Ottawa has deprived the Lacrosse Club of an energetic coach and an enthusiastic supporter.

University of Toronto Water Polo

THE water polo team has had a remarkable string of victories this year. With the inauguration of the City Water Polo League, playing under International Rules, the University entered two teams "A" and "B" with the expectation of one of these teams capturing the City Championship. Nor were we disappointed. Both teams worked through to the finals in their respective groups, and in the play-offs Varsity "B" eliminated Varsity "A" to take the City Title and the Star trophy.

This success encouraged further efforts, so we challenged the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association, alleged Canadian water polo champions, to two home-and-home games. Although the International game is an innovation here this year the University team held Montreal to a four all score in the M.A.A.A. tank, but lost at Hart House after a very close game. The showing against this team of veterans speaks well for our chances next year.

After trying out the International game we fell back on the slower and less spectacular Intercollegiate water rules and prepared for the last Intercollegiate Series under the old regime. Our previous successes and experience helped us out immensely here and the team ploughed through McGill in the home game in Hart House tank on Feb. 16th, 1929, setting up a 5-0 score. At Montreal the McGill team gave a little stiffer opposition, but after a bad start the U. of T. squad picked up and won the round 8-5 and with it the Intercollegiate Championship.

The showing this year is due in the greatest part to the well-known swimmers, J. M. "Johnny" Goss, L. G. "Leo" Latchford and E. G. "Eddie" Sinclair. Unfortunately after helping us along so well in aquatic sports for the last four years the former two are dropping from our midst with their graduation this year. Their absence will certainly be noticed during the 1929-30 session.

The remaining players of the Intercollegiate Water Polo Team are: H. C. (Harvey) Graham, Art Middlebro, G. H. (Sliver) Spence, Ross Poyntz, R. A. (Bob) Armstrong, R. L. (Laurie) Bullen. These nine players formed a combination which defeated McGill for the second time in the last nineteen years. Besides Goss and Latchford, however, Graham, Poyntz and Bullen are also graduating this year. The team owes the high peak of efficiency reached this year to the able coaching of "Fran" Lorenzen, a recent Varsity polo star.

University of Toronto Swimming Team

CONTINUING its line of successes the University of Toronto Swimming Team captured the fourth consecutive Intercollegiate Swimming Championship this year. Every event in the last meet at Hart House, on February 15th, was of high calibre. The ultimate outcome of the meet was in doubt all the way and the final decision rested on the relay. This also was a close race, and the judges decided on a tie. This was to our advantage as with a lead of three points piled up earlier Varsity took the championship 37-34.

Johnny Goss, Leo Latchford, and Eddie Sinclair were the outstanding performers in this year's meet with McGill. Johnny Goss captured first place in the 50 and 100 yd. Free Style and second place in the 200 yd. Free Style besides swimming in the relay. Leo Latchford came in second in the 100 yd. Back Stroke and swam a wonderful race in the relay, cutting down McGill's lead so that the eventual outcome was a tie. Both these men, who have been members of the Intercollegiate Swimming and Water Polo Teams every year while at Varsity, will be leaving this year, and for our next Intercollegiate Swimming Team we will be depending mostly on new material.

Eddie Sinclair was never in trouble in the 100 yd. Breast Stroke, and finished far ahead of the other competitors. We hope he repeats this performance next year.

Other point winners in the annual McGill-Varsity aquatic meet were R. Irvine, J. E. Gundy, R. Poyntz, St. C. Balfour, T. N. Marsh, J. Pierdon and B. Nevitt. The first three of these men are graduating this year, so the swimming team will be sadly depleted with the loss of five swimmers. A great deal of credit must be given to Mr. A. S. Goss, the swimming coach, for the time he expended in training the swimmers for their fourth Intercollegiate victory.

Senior Hockey Team

Intercollegiate, Senior O.H.A., Sr. S.P.A. Champions

HIS year's team, although they did not win the highest honours in the realm of hockey, have 3 championship cups resting in Hart House as a result of their prowess. Two of these, the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association (S.P.A.) Cup and the O.H.A., have never before been won by the same team in the same year. The other, the Intercollegiate Championship, is by way of revenge on behalf of the Rugby Team.

Queen's, with a few "outsiders" entered the O.H.A. instead of the Intercollegiate, and by finishing in second place, qualified to meet Varsity in the "play-offs". The latter had little trouble in winning the round by a comfortable margin.

Iroquois Falls, the Northern Champions, were defeated in the next round, and Varsity thus qualified to meet Ottawa in the Semi-finals for the Eastern Canadian Championship. The first game was played in Toronto, and lost by a 3-1 score. However, in the return game at Ottawa they showed the Varsity spirit of "never-say-die" and 1 min. and 30 sec. after the beginning of the second period they were leading on the round by 4-3. This was the final score.

The Eastern finals were played with St. François Xavier of Montreal. The first game was played on their ice, with 10 minutes of the final period remaining and the score 1-1. Varsity "went to pieces" for a minute, after a very doubtful goal, and St. François soon scored 3 goals to make the final score 5-1. The strain of too many games was beginning to show itself in that last period. The return game in Toronto—Varsity's eighth in 16 days (Mar. 6-22)—saw them die fighting hard, scoring 2 goals in the last few minutes of play only to loose by a 3-2 score. St. François continued on to Winnipeg to play in the finals of the Allan Cup.

Next fall will see the same men at practice with the exception of Murray Snyder who graduates and leaves behind such an enviable record. Most of the men have 2 years, and some 3, so Varsity's chances on winning the Allan Cup in the near future are exceedingly bright.

Congratulations to them on their year's splendid effort, and the best of luck and success for next year.

Intermediate Hockey Team Intercollegiate Champions

WHEN Varsity Intermediates won the Intercollegiate Championship it proved another addition to Jimmy Douglas' long series of successes in the athletic world. He was called upon to develop a new team this year because practically all of the 1928 squad were lost through graduation. From the outset, the O.H.A. series was considered a hopeless fight because Varsity was grouped with the all-star aggregation from Willowdale. Nevertheless the Blue team were just nosed out of the play-offs and in the final scheduled game forced Willowdale, the Ontario finalists, into ten minutes overtime before they succumbed 3-2. Concentrating their efforts on retaining the Intercollegiate trophy, the Intermediates settled down to strenuous practice in preparation for their series with Osgoode, McMaster, O.A.C. and Western. They were further strengthened by the addition of Bell and Hetherington from the Junior team—the former player developing into the team's scoring ace. Varsity had little difficulty in disposing of their opposition until they lost a hard-luck game in Guelph. This left them tie for the leadership with Western and the last league game was scheduled for London. With every man playing his best hockey of the season, Varsity secured a 2-1 victory. "Billy" Bell proved to be the hero when he scored the winning goal with only a few minutes to play. Thus the Douglas clan qualified to meet Queens, who had conquered Loyola in the East. The game was played in Livingston and the Tri-color was decisively defeated by the score of 8-1. Bell was again the outstanding player when he figured in six of the scores. In the closing games of the campaign the Intermediates displayed a brand of hockey worthy of the Seniors and their victory is more remarkable when it is considered that they played their last two games minus the services of Carrick and MacMillan. These two regulars were absent due to injuries. "Joe" Evans, playing his last game in a U. of T. sweater, was moved back to the defence to fill MacMillan's position and turned in one of the most brilliant games of his University career. Statham, a newcomer from London, Twelfth Battery, and Leak from last year's Juniors, showed promise, while Capt. "Bob" Graham was just as effective as in former seasons.

Varsity Juniors 1928-1929

LTHOUGH they did not get into the group play-offs, the Juniors performed very creditably. At the beginning of the season Coach Frank Sullivan was faced with the task of moulding an almost entirely new team. Hunnisett, the goalie, was the only member of last year's team available when the call was sent out for candidates for the Junior team.

From some fifty odd candidates a team was finally selected so represent the University of Toronto in the Big Four Group of the Junior O.H.A. This group is considered to be one of the strongest in the Junior series of the O.H.A. Marlboros, Toronto Canoe Club, and Parkdale Canoe Club rounded out the group.

Varsity upset the dope at the start by defeating Toronto Canoe Club, the S.P.A. finalists, 2-1. Of the nine-game schedule, two were played at the Varsity Arena; the remaining seven at the Mutual Street ice palace.

The final standing of the group showed Varsity with 5 wins and 4 losses. They defeated Toronto Canoe Club and Parkdale Canoe Club each twice and Marlboros once. Two games were dropped to Marlboros and one each to Toronto Canoe Club, and Parkdale Canoe Club.

The Junior hockey season this year unearthed some fine talent. To single out two or three would be inaccurate as each one did his bit towards making a team which proved a contender until the final gong sounded. Hunnisett played his usual fine game in goal, Smith and Williams in front of him formed a defence which gave the opposing teams plenty to worry about. Brant, Laing, and Hetherington played well on the forward line and their places were capably filled when necessary by Bell, Bennet, Crerar, and Lash.

Marlboros won the Junior finals for the championship of the Dominion of Canada. Thus we see the calibre of hockey that our boys were capable of.

Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Team

Intercollegiate Champions 1927-28-29

THE Toronto Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing team won their fifth consecutive Intercollegiate Title at Hart House in February 1928. The boxers made the sensational record of winning every class from the flyweight to the middleweight and everyone of these men won one of their bouts by the K. O. route. The fencers as usual won the Individual and Team championships, while the wrestlers were unfortunate in their competition and secured only one title.

The O.A.C. trip was the first on the line of assaults for the year and was very successful. The Aggies were strong as usual in the wrestling and won easily. The boxing team from Varsity though mostly giving away weight, won their bouts.

West Point is the place of interest for the touring squad. The opposition here is of a superior class and the bouts were all hard fought. The boxers came through with a four to three win. Jackie Beer, and Rustie Magee the new sensation, both secured knockouts while Loscombe and Joe Mahon the veteran, both got well earned decisions. Sprott had a bit of hard luck in losing his decision, as did

Harry Hills. Galsky of the wrestlers won the only decision for Varsity in a hard bout and the fact that only two other falls were secured shows that the wrestling was very close. The Fencing team did not accompany the squad to West Point.

O.A.C. again won the Davidson Cup which signifies the Interfaculty Championship. Their strength was in their wrestlers who are coached by Rumple, the Olympic man. D'Arc Hilliard earned a close decision and Jenner won a very good bout. Shute lost in the '74 division giving away considerable weight and to a very good man. In the boxing all the bouts were knockouts and no decisions were required by Lou Scholes, the referee. MacDonald of Trinity put up a game fight against the more experienced Beer. Teddy Fell the wonder man started his sensational work in the ring and of course secured a knockout. Sprott in the lightweight is a new comer and the force of his clean blows was shown in an early F.O. Jackson knocked Rusty Morin out in 53 seconds, after a very game battle by Morin. Jerry Woods won a technical knockout over Smily in a hectic battle. Jack Dyment won the Individual Fencing Championship over Kesser in a somewhat careless exhibition. They both made up for this in the Intercollegiate.

The Invasion of the McGill and Queens men proved to be really serious this year. The big gain of the opposing universities seems to have been in the wrestling and Varsity will have to do something about this if they are to continue winning their laurels. Calnan the light-heavyweight was the only wrestler to win a title. He won both of his bouts with ease, securing two falls from Nagel of McGill in 3 minutes 43 seconds. Marshall, the flyweight, lost a close decision to Silver of McGill. D'Arc Hilliard, too, was defeated by a doubtful decision and he put up a very good exhibition of wrestling. Bert Diprose lost to Queens in the welter weight and seemed to lack the experience. The feature of the wrestling was the Furber-Honsberger bout. This was at 158 lbs. and Honsberger is one of the best in Ontario. This bout was spectacular and fast, with Furber putting up a wonderful attempt to come back after Honsberger had got one fall. Jim Fickham had a hard task in meeting a man 40 lbs. heavier and more experienced, he made a very good showing. Jackie Beer, in the boxing, won both of his bouts by knockouts and demonstrated some very clever boxing. Teddy Fell left-handed his way through two good bouts and deserves his title. Rusty Magee, after having spent considerable time showing Chris. Newton how to fight, won a decision from the McGill veteran, Musselman. Rusty got a knockout the first night. Vic Loscombe defeated the rugged Trudel in the finals and his victory was particularly remarkable because he did it with a broken hand. Jackson in the middle weight class, after winning a decision the first night, scored a knockout against Doran of McGill. In the heavier weights Varsity suffered, Wood was forced to a technical knockout by Nicol of Queens, a very good man. Joe Mahon lost to Taylor of McGill in the semi-finals. The hardest bout of the evening was fought by Les Black against all comers.

The fencers came through with the Individual and Team championships.

A. Balfour, W. M. Martin, D. D. Gunn, Noyes.

Intercollegiate Tennis

THE year of 1928 will go down as a very successful one as far as tennis in the University of Toronto is concerned. Both from the standpoint of interest and victory this year was outstanding.

Although the annual Varsity tournament held in the fall did not attract as large an entry as usual, still the calibre of the play was considerably increased and many fine matches resulted. In the finals of this tournament Walter Martin defeated Donald Gunn in a very closely contested four set match. These two players teamed together to capture the doubles quite handily.

Varsity had great success in the Intercollegiate tournament, which was held in Kingston. Led by Walter Martin, who won the singles, and with Donald Gunn the doubles, the Varsity team piled up 18 points to capture the team title, as many as all the other teams put together.

Walter Martin defeated Charles Leslie of McGill in the singles final after a four set struggle. This is the first time a Varsity man has won the singles since 1919. Martin and Gunn won the doubles, defeating Valois and Lalonde in the final.

The other two members of the Varsity team, Arthur Balfour and W. S. Noyes, making their first appearance in Intercollegiate competition, made an excellent showing, and but for being tired out they would have reached the finals of the doubles.

Donald Gunn and Walter Martin are two of Canada's leading exponents of tennis. Gunn had some excellent victories to his credit this summer in the tournaments, the outstanding of which was over Willard Crocker of Montreal. Martin was ranked No. 10 in Canada last year and this year he has been placed No. 5 in a tentative ranking of Canadian players.

Thus it appears that Varsity's tennis players did quite well this year. Although the team loses Donald Gunn through graduation still the other three members will be back as a strong nucleus for next year's team.

Golf Team, Intercollegiate Champions

OLF history was made this year when the Toronto team was successful in defeating McGill on their own grounds at the Beaconsfield Golf and Country Club. Perhaps one reason for this notable success lies in the decision of the Athletic Directorate to defray the travelling expenses of the team. Due to this, the strongest possible team was sent to Montreal, and although the expectation of victory was not very great as McGill had several players of international calibre and reputation the U. of T. team demonstrated their ability by capturing the Ruttan Trophy by six matches to three.

Ever since the series has been inaugurated there has been a great deal of controversy with regard to finances and colours. The action of the Athletic Directorate in voting a sum to be used in defraying the travelling expenses is to be highly commended. The question of colours will be coming up in the next few weeks, and it is to be hoped that they will see their way clear to give the ones whose talents lie along this line a chance to win one of the coveted "T's".

The U. of T. tournament, which was held at the Rosedale Golf and Country Club, attracted the largest entry in the history of golf at the University. J. R. Mooney, IV Arts, was the winner of this competition with a gross score for the 36 holes of 74-76-150. J. G. Boeckh 79-79 was the second prize winner, with George Edwards winning the low net.

The team chosen this year was composed of four members of last year's Intercollegiate Champions:

R. B. Wilkinson (Capt.), Meds. IV, Sarnia; J. R. Mooney, Arts IV, Toronto, Thistledown (Manager-Vice-Capt.); J. Sihler, Meds. IV, Simcoe; G. Edwards, Arts II, Galt; with the addition of two freshmen, D. Anderson, St. Thomas, and G. Boeckh, Toronto (York Downs).

The future of golf at this and other Canadian universities has a bright outlook. Already Queen's have made application to be allowed to enter the competition in the forthcoming year. As for the prospects of the Toronto team, J. R. Mooney will be the only man lost through graduation, the rest of the team having from two to three years each to play.

J. E. McCutcheon (Coach), E. R. Davies, W. C. Newman, J. C. Murray, R. M. Mitchell (Capt.), G. L. Johnston
R. L. Currie, S. Hurwitz, V. L. Thomas (Manager).

University of Toronto Senior Basketball Club

THE University of Toronto Senior Basketball team repeated their success of last season when they retained the Wilson Cup, emblematic of the Canadian Intercollegiate Basketball Championship. They suffered only one defeat at the hands of an Intercollegiate rival, and that to McGill by a four point margin, 27-31. One victory was registered over the Red and White, 38-26; two over Queens, 25-22 and 35-32; and two from Western, 36-26 and 33-26.

In outside competition the team fared well, taking long road trips, etc., into consideration. Hamilton College and Assumption College were defeated by decisive scores. University of Buffalo, St. Bonaventure College and the Detroit Y.M.C.A. nosed out the Varsity representatives by a narrow margin. In the games with Colgate and Rochester Universities, although defeated by larger scores, the Blue and White were not disgraced as they were meeting two of the fastest teams in the east.

The Blue and White squad of this season was one of the most colourful seen in years. Nine of the ten men were members of Canadian Championship teams. Six of the squad, R. M. Mitchell, the captain, R. L. Currie, W. C. Newman, B. R. Sakler, G. L. Johnston, and S. Hurwitz were members of last year's Canadian Intercollegiate Champions. J. C. Murray and Geo. D. O'Leary came to us as members of the Windsor Alumni, Canadian Senior Champions. Ray Beaton, registered in his freshman year, was a member of Walkerville Collegiate team, the Canadian Interscholastic Champions. Earl Davey was the one man without this background, but by his work during the season showed that he was deserving of a place on this squad.

In the final game of our American invasion Geo. O'Leary unfortunately broke both arms and was out for all the intercollegiate games except the final one. This left the brunt of the offensive work to Capt. "Mo" Mitchell, Ray Beaton and Earl Davey. Wilf Newman was a tower of strength in the pivot position, and due to Gord Johnston's injuries, played the majority of the time. The heavy portion of the defensive work fell on the shoulders of Roy Currie and Johnny Murray, with Ben Sakler and S. Hurwitz as capable substitutes. A great share of the credit for the majority of our victories goes to these men.

Of these ten men we lose four by graduation, three of them regulars. Capt. "Mo" Mitchell ends an illustrious university career as captain of the champions.

Roy Currie graduates with the satisfaction of playing on five intercollegiate teams, three of them champions, and of captaining last season's undefeated entry. Johnny Murray, registered in O.C.E., just stayed the year but in that time demonstrated that his leaving will indeed be a loss. Gord Johnston ends a five year term on Varsity Basketball teams. The popular and efficient manager, V. L. Thomas, also graduates.

These men have served well and their places will be hard to fill. The University of Toronto Basketball Club wish them continued success in the greater game which commences on their graduation.

University of Toronto Intermediate Basketball Team Intercollegiate Champions

THE Intermediate Basketball team brought the championship back to Varsity after a year's absence. The series this year was one of the hardest fought in years and the issue was in doubt until the final game, with O.A.C., Osgoode, Western and Varsity all in the running. Varsity landed on top to wrest the championship from O.A.C., despite two losses to that team.

It was the good work of the Blue Team against the strong Osgoode and Western quintets which resulted in the championship. Both games in these two series were won by the Varsity representatives. The series with McMaster was split, Varsity losing the first one by a one point margin and winning the second decisively.

The team this year was handicapped by lack of size but more than made this up by skill and fighting spirit. Riggs, Brady, Foex and Stevenson composed the forward line, while Pasternak looked after the pivot position with Grainger as substitute. Captain Devitt and Gord Cock bore the brunt of the defensive work with Jack White and Geo. Laughlin assisting. Capt. Devitt is the only one of this squad to graduate. The team was capably managed by W. Mayor.

British Rugby

THIS fall English Rugby made even greater strides in Ontario than ever anticipated. In Quebec the sport has always shown the influence of the Maritime Provinces, until now it occupies an important position in intercity athletics. The trend was certainly apparent in Toronto, for no less than five clubs were sporting teams this season. These city games were followed with considerable enthusiasm, and large crowds were on hand to witness the weekly competition.

Unfortunately McGill again won the Intercollegiate Championship. However, that is not to say that the Varsity team was a weak one. Quite the contrary, for although the prospects were poor at the beginning of the year, due to so many departures, a brighter outlook was assumed when the new and good material was realized. Practices commenced before the first day of October, and soon large numbers turned out for conditioning and coaching. We were indeed grateful for the help accorded by Mr. Seccombe, who was a factor in the ability of the team this fall. On the first Saturday a game was played, and many graduate enthusiasts will be pleased to learn that the two teams consisted entirely of University men—a strange sight!

Great progress has been achieved at McGill, and they now boast of a second team which was entered in the City League. The Blue and White squad were beaten in Toronto 14 to 5, which was, despite the damaging score, a close game. In Montreal the game was played in very heavy weather, and was also exceedingly even. McGill finally emerged winners by a 3 to 0 score, and thus became champions for the second time.

In the Toronto games the Varsity team proved its real strength, for it vanquished each one of the city clubs. This in itself was a notable feat. We are looking to a winning team next year, for with the nucleus of this year's squad, plus some newcomers, we should be unbeatable.

Senior Varsity Crew

THE Olympic games added much to the already keen rivalry amongst Canadian rowing clubs. Every club strove to produce a heavyweight eight which, by winning the Olympic trials, would earn the right to represent Canada in Holland.

At Varsity, the middle of January (1928) found old colours and new aspirants flocking to the rowing room in Hart House. Daily from five to six the machines clanked in unison—almost. On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays the heavy weights were at it; on Tuesdays and Thursdays the lightweights (150 lbs.) had their turn. Towards the end of April the scene shifted to the waterfront. Here for several cold weeks three crews were licked into shape in heavy work-boats before being entrusted with the delicate task of “sitting up” a shell. Varsity usually sends a Senior Heavy, Junior Heavy, and Junior 150 lbs. Crew to the Royal Canadian Henley at St. Catharines. A senior crew is a crew, one or more members of which have rowed in a boat which has won the junior division of its class at an open regatta. Last summer the Junior Heavies were disbanded and only the Seniors and Tackweights (as the 150 lb. crew is improperly called) were sent to the Henley.

Morning rowing, the bête noire of oarsmen, began about the middle of June. Under the grind of two workouts a day the men soon began to get condition. This was the signal for Coach Professor to take the crews to the start of the mile and 550 yards course, and lifting a huge megaphone, boom out in a deep voice the stirring words which no oarsmen can ever forget: “Row the course, everybody! Row the course! . . . Half forward. . . . Are you ready? . . . Row!!”

Professor Loudon—to the tribute of whose personality Varsity oarsman for nearly a decade now, have “rowed their guts out”—was ably assisted in his strenuous duties by Carl Weber and Gordon Pearson. The former, who has rowed for both Varsity and the Detroit Boat Club, had special charge of coaching the Tackweights. “Sharp” Pearson, the popular manager of the Club, chauffeured the coach-boat, and produced a never-ending supply of wit.

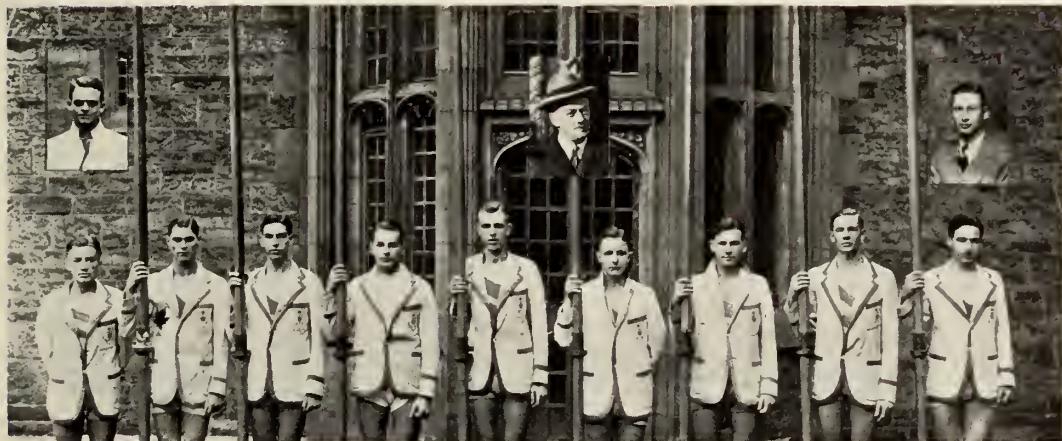

The “Tacks” rowed the first race of the season in the Dominion Day Regatta on the three-quarter mile Hanlan memorial course at Toronto. The race was won by the Argonaut eight, Varsity being six inches behind, and Malvern third.

Two important events of the summer were held in the second week in July as preliminaries to the Henley: the Olympic trials and the third annual Intercollegiate Boat Race between Varsity and McGill. The latter was won by Varsity this year for the first time, when the Senior Crew led McGill to the Grandstand. Much interest now attaches to this event, and there is talk of making it a two mile race to be held on the proposed Humber River course at Toronto. It was unfortunate that Argos and not Varsity beat Winnipeg to become the Olympic crew, particularly as Professor Loudon was in charge of the trip to Europe.

In the Fenley proper Varsity Seniors were drawn in the first heat against the Wyandotte Rowing Club of Michigan, which entered two crews, that finished first and second. However the senior trophy did not cross the border, for Winnipeg came through in the finals.

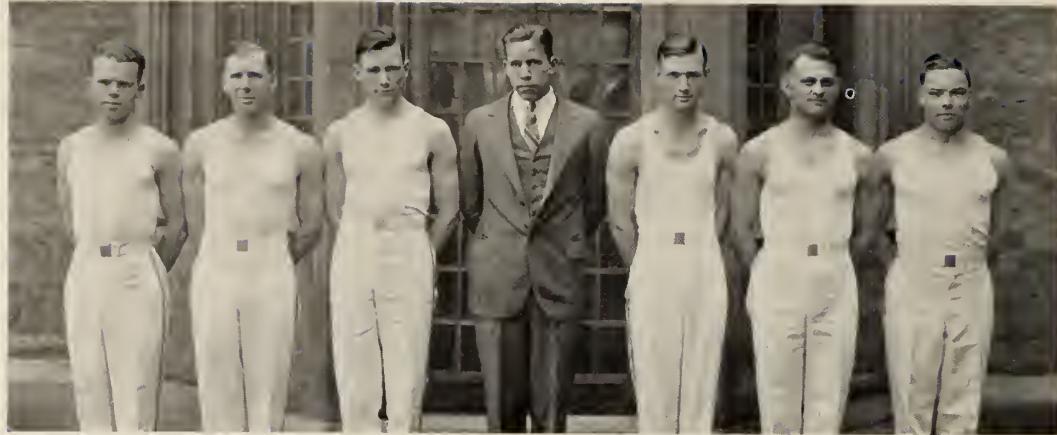

As there were only four entries in the Junior 150 lb. class no heats were necessary. The event was won by Lachine; but Varsity "Tacks" delighted Carl Weber by beating Detroit for second place, and they had their revenge on Argos, who were many boat lengths of open water behind.

The prospects for 1929 are bright. A newly-formed Graduate Club has organized a board of coaches to assist Head Coach Professor Loudon. O. G. Halldorson, President of the Club, has just taken over the reins of office from John Keith. And always the vision of the Humber scheme of Joe Wright, Sr., and Home Smith provides hope for a great future for rowing in Toronto.

Intercollegiate Gymnasium Team

LAST year the Intercollegiate Gymnasium Team was not as successful as in the previous two years, losing the championship and the Caron Cup to McGill. In the meet, which was held at Montreal, the McGill Gymnasts showed superiority on all apparatus except the mats, which, as usual, was Varsity's strongest piece. McGill also won the Werry Cup, which is presented to the highest individual point scorer on either team. Williamson, who placed third in the meet, was the highest man on the Toronto team.

Varsity lost two men from the previous year's team. I. R. Mix, who won the individual championship the year before graduated, and R. Lymburner was unable to perform owing to an injury sustained in practice. Of the four remaining members of the team, Jack Williamson was by far the outstanding performer. He was elected captain, and in placing third in the intercollegiate competition, made a very creditable showing. Don Gunn won the Interfaculty meet, with Williamson a very close second. Both these men have been on the team for three years, having made it in their first year. Darrell Campbell stepped up from spare in 1927 to a regular member of the team and gave a very satisfactory exhibition. Elliot Heslop was on the team for the first time, displacing his brother Wilfred as spare. Douglas Adams, an O.A.C. grad, was also on the team for the first time and showed the benefits of his previous training.

The Interfaculty Competition, which was held about a month prior to the Intercollegiate Meet, was very keenly contested and was won by S.P.S., with Trinity College second. The gymnastic Club was very active throughout the year and the season closed with promise of a good team for 1928-1929.

Intercollegiate Soccer Team

PRACTICE was called during the first week of school, and judging from the number of men turning out, and the eagerness with which they went through their paces, everything pointed to a very successful season.

Art. Halliwell, who is very well known as a goalie with Toronto Scottish, was obtained as coach, and under his guidance a well-balanced team, composed of six regulars from last year and five new men, was chosen.

The first game of the season was played in Toronto on Oct. 27, R.M.C. being the visiting team. The game was very fast and Varsity showed marked superiority in every department except shooting, and as a result lost many chances to increase the score which ended at 3 to 2.

The following week the team went to Penn State to play an exhibition game with the same team that visited Toronto last year, and which they defeated 3 to 1. However, in this game which was played on a very wet, muddy field the Varsity men could not get their combination working and were defeated 5 to 3.

The final game of the season was played on Nov. 10 at Montreal under much the same conditions as existed at Penn State, and Varsity, after holding the strong McGill team to a 1 all score to within two minutes of the end of the game, lost by 2 to 1.

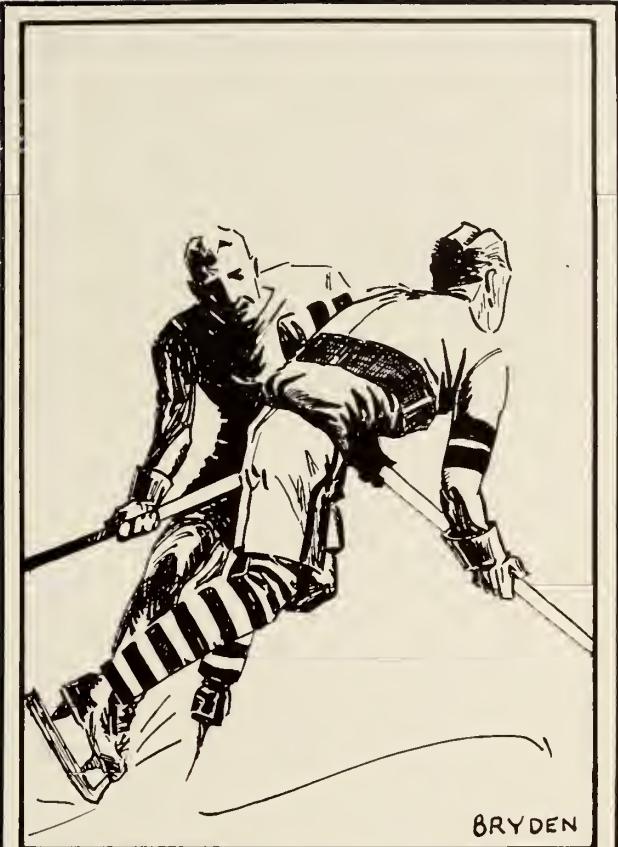

McGill won the championship, having tied with R.M.C. on Oct. 20.

University College "T" Holders

W. F. S. ADAMS—"Bill" is one of the second year men who has made a name for himself as a rugby player. He was a member of this year's O.R.F.U. team, and much can be expected of him in his remaining two years.

W. A. BEAN—"Wally" has been a consistently good performer with the senior rugby teams ever since he came here as a freshman three years ago. He is a member of the Athletic Directorate of the University.

J. A. C. CARRICK—"Alex." has been a prominent member of "Orphans" for the past two years, and, as well, is playing hockey for the Intermediates. He has two more years in which to help carry the Blue to the fore.

L. H. CARROLL—Now in his third year, "Lou" has been a member of the first rugby team since he was a freshman; except this year when academic difficulties made him a non-participant, so he was content to be manager. He is also an outstanding lacrosse player.

W. D. A. DOUGLAS—"Don" played on the Intercollegiate Lacrosse Team in 1927, 1928-29 and won his T this year. He learned his lacrosse at Shelburne, Ont., and played with Weston Seniors 1928.

R. W. FINLAYSON—"Bill" has been a valuable member of the Track Team for the last two years, and should continue to win points next year, which will be his last.

G. A. GALE—Has been actively connected with the English Rugger Team during his whole college career, and this year "Bill" was their manager. His executive ability found expression in his election to Athletic Director of the College.

W. A. GILBERT—"Hap's" name is well known in both indoor and outdoor track and fencing circles.

E. M. HENDERSON—"Mel" is one of the two freshmen "T" holders in the college. He was given the award for his good playing on the latest edition of the "Orphan" Rugby team.

J. D. HARRISON—"John" was a rugby "find" in his first year, and lived up to expectations this year. He should be a valuable member of the team for two more years.

T. J. JACKSON—"Jimmie" is one of the mainstays of the Varsity Boxing Team. His showing in the Olympic contests are all to his credit. We are fortunately going to have him with us for another year.

W. H. JACKSON—"Pete" is one good reason for strong soccer teams at Varsity. This year he managed the Intercollegiate Team. Pete is also very active in all interfaculty sports.

L. G. LATCHFORD—For the past three years there have been very few swimming or water polo teams which have not been helped toward success by the versatile ability of Leo, who has held several intercollegiate swimming records.

J. R. McMULLEN—"Jimmy" has been starring with the hockey teams for the past three years, and has been a member of the first team for two years. His speed and clever playing is a treat to watch.

F. G. McTAGGART—"Freddy" has been a member of the Intercollegiate Track Team for the last two years, winning points in the javelin throwing. He played rugby in his freshman year.

W. M. MARTIN—"Wally" is one of the very best tennis players in the University and is this year's champion. He also plays basketball.

A. L. SMITH—"Tony" was one of the outside wings on the 1928 "Blue Team." He has two more years in which he should get into the spotlight.

J. E. SMART—"Al" made the Lacrosse Team in his freshman year, and was awarded his "T" in 1927. In 1926 he was a member of the Brampton Seniors, Dominion Champions.

A. SNIDER—"Art" was a tower of strength to the O.R.F.U. Rugby Team last fall; his award was certainly well earned. He is still a freshman, and great things can be expected of him in future years.

M. H. SNYDER—"Murray" played as outside wing on the Intercollegiate Rugby Team in his first two years; the last two years he has played quarterback, and was this year's popular captain. He has also found time to play goal for the hockey team and to hold down a position on the Athletic Directorate of the University.

T. J. WRIGHT—"Tony" was one of the famous tackling brigade of the Championship O.R.F.U. Team, and will be a valuable outside for another two years at Varsity.

U.C. Junior Water Polo Team Eckhardt Cup Champions

UC. again turned the trick in Water Polo by the Juniors' coming through and winning the final game from Senior S.P.S., 5-3. It was rather a surprise for all as the Senior School team was composed of outstanding players. Junior U.C. comprised of younger players, worked hard and by the final games were playing in nice form. After winning the group, U.C. Juniors came against Senior U.C. and the odds were rather astonishing. After the first game which ended in a tie, 2-2 the school men talked a lot but the odds had sunk to even. The final game was witnessed by a good crowd and displayed some good prospects for future intercollegiate teams. The game was long in doubt as U.C. put in 2 goals in a row. Another followed and S.P.S. then scored their only goal of the game. Great credit is due to Leo Latchford, U.C. Senior player who coached the team to victory. Spence, as captain, was a mainstay on defense and Ayres in goal proved his worth. Combination among the forwards proved too strong for the opposing teams. The best game in the group was the last one with Junior S.P.S., who led us at half time 3-1, and we surely would like to have another crack at them. Next year the team will be split but we hope that they both, Senior and Junior U.C., will win the right to play off in the finals.

Victoria College Athletic Union

ALL activities of Victoria in interfaculty athletics are directed by the Athletic Union of which all male undergraduates in Victoria College are members. The executive is composed of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and a representative from all sports in which Victoria College enters individuals or teams for competition.

A unique feature of the Victoria Athletic Union is the possession and operation of an athletic building and an adjoining campus. This institution during the winter is known as "Little Vic. Rink." From this source is derived the finances that enable the Union to equip, coach and manage ten interfaculty teams, to present an engraved silver disc to each athlete and to provide V's for every member of a championship team as well as to those athletes who, in the opinion of the Executive, have qualified for this award.

The Executive this year sponsored and efficiently promoted the First Victoria College Athletic At-Home. This event is designed exclusively for the athletes of this institution, taking the form of a dinner and dance in Burwash Hall and Wymilwood respectively. The Executive feels that the inauguration of such an event is another forward step in the promotion of interest in Victoria College athletics.

The Union will conclude the year's activities with a significant surplus on hand.

Trinity College Amateur Athletic Association

THE Trinity College Amateur Athletic Association includes all students in the college, and, acting through its executive which is elected annually, controls all athletics at Trinity. The executive, consisting of ten undergraduate students and one member of the staff of the college, administers the affairs of the association, controls its finances, appoints managers for the interfaculty teams, arranges exhibition rugby and hockey games and has exclusive control of the annual Athletic Dinner and Dance.

The Association may congratulate itself on the fact that the new athletic field is no longer a dream of the future. The field was used this fall for rugby practices and we hope it will be in first class condition for the rugby season of 1929. The Association desires to thank those whose untiring efforts made the field a reality.

The Trinity Rugby Team is to be congratulated on its excellent showing in the Mulock Cup Series during the past autumn. The success of the team is to a great extent due to the excellent coaching of George Awry. The Harrier Team, under the coaching of the Rev. P. J. Dykes, made a great bid for the Brotherton Cup.

The Association was represented in the Senior Intercollegiate Football and Soccer Teams, the "Orphans", the Intermediate and Junior Intercollegiate Teams. It also had members on the Intercollegiate Tennis and Harrier Teams.

Speaking of Interfaculty sports, the Association has conducted another experiment this year by entering Water Polo and Swimming Teams in the interfaculty series. Although new to the sport these teams showed enough ability to warrant the retention of their entry next year.

Realizing the value of inter-year competition in encouraging athletics in the college, the Association has always made these games a feature of its athletic policy. The Steeplechase is another feature, and provides keen rivalry over a hard but interesting course. Handsome cups are awarded to the winning years and individuals at the annual Athletic Dinner held on the evening of the steeple-chase. It is then that we take great pleasure in renewing our acquaintance and friendship with alumni whom we welcome back to the college.

St. Michael's College Athletic Directorate

NOTHER successful year in athletics has been added to the history of the Double Blue. To the Athletic Directorate is entrusted the administration of the athletic affairs of the college. One of the Directorate's most important functions is that of encouraging every student to take part in at least one of the many branches of sports which are fostered at St. Michael's, for it is realized that without a healthy and vigorous body the mind is incapable of reaching its maximum development.

Besides the appointment of the managers of the various teams which are to represent St. Michael's on the gridiron, on the ice, on the floors of Hart House, and on the diamond another and perhaps the most difficult task is that of awarding the "M" to the most outstanding athletes of the various teams. To win this coveted award it is required that a student excel in one or more of the major sports which include all intercollegiate sports. The members of the different interfaculty teams are awarded the second "M" on fulfilling the directorate's requirements. The keenest zeal is displayed by the players that they may some day be numbered among the holders of the highest athletic honour which the College is capable of bestowing upon them—the "M".

Father Storey is the representative of the faculty and the chairman of the Board, while the genial prexy is Rocco Fortura. The offices of Vice-President and Secretary are held by Ross Hilborn and Ed. Sammons respectively; and the other positions glory in the possession of Ed. Culligan and John Oakley. The members of the Directorate have had experience in nearly all the sports themselves and their aim has been to help the other students; and their hope as they pass on the reins of office is that they have helped at least a little bit.

Medical Athletic Association

THE executive of the Medical Athletic Association is comprised of the president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer from sixth, fifth and fourth years respectively and year representatives from each of the junior years. In addition the office of quartermaster is filled by appointment of the executive. The administration of all inter-year and interfaculty athletics is in charge of the executive, as also is the granting of the Medical Athletic letter. It is the aim of the Medical Athletic Association to foster the participation of as many students as possible in athletics. The object, first and foremost, is to develop the individual physically and to give him helpful recreation. To this purpose the executive has attempted to revive the inter-year competitions which have played so great a part formerly in introducing new men to sports. In addition this brings to light new stars and helps to improve the old ones so that the position of the Medical teams in the Interfaculty series is maintained. This year, as of old, Medicine has contributed her full share of men to the intercollegiate teams, and it is the object of the executive to encourage men as much as possible to give their best efforts first and foremost to the University teams.

The Inter-year Track Meet this year was not the success that former ones have been. The graduation or retirement of many of the track stars undoubtedly had its influence, but there are men in Medicine with promising ability to whom we look in the future. The second place earned by the Med. Track Team in the closely contested Interfaculty meet was a particularly good showing in view of the number of losses of stars during the last year.

After a very close fight for group honours the Senior Rugby Team was nosed out of the Mulock Cup series. The Juniors fared better and reached the semi-finals before being eliminated.

The Medical crew reached the semi-finals in the Interfaculty regatta.

The inter-year basketball was won by second year, when they defeated the strong fourth year team by a close margin in the finals. Inter-year hockey has been delayed by the absence of ice.

In both basketball and hockey Meds have two of the strongest teams that have ever represented the faculty, and it is hoped that at least one of them will bring a championship to Medicine. In both these sports the personnel of the intercollegiate teams is more than well represented by undergraduates of the Medical Faculty.

First "T" Holders in Medicine

FOR the past few years the "T" holders in Medicine have comprised over one-third of the total number of undergraduate first colour winners. This year again Meds have a total of over thirty holders of the Senior Athletic award. Some of these have earned their colour several times over, a few in more than one sport and at least one is a triple "T" holder. Although the number have been won in the major sports nearly every field of athletic endeavour is represented by these men. Every year in Medicine is represented and the large number of "T" holders in some of the junior years augurs well for the prominence of Meds in athletics in the future. Second year, with already five first colour holders, have a fine start towards surpassing the record of the famous class of 2T6, who graduated with nineteen "T" holders and two men who were members of the 1924 Olympic team. The present sixth year is well represented with nine holders of first colours. Three of these are members of the Athletic Directorate.

With the junior years so well represented among the major colour holders, and with the many more who have won second and third "T's," we look to even greater things from Medicine in the future.

“M” Holders

THE “M” is awarded to undergraduates in Medicine in recognition of athletic ability of the highest order. It is granted to outstanding members of interfaculty teams and men who have been consistent performers on the same team for several years and to men who have shown ability in several sports.

In order to encourage men to turn out for intercollegiate teams the “M” is also granted to holders of the first “T”. Others who have not been so fortunate as to gain the major athletic award, but who have nevertheless upheld the honour of Medicine in intercollegiate sports, are granted the privilege of wearing the Medical Letter.

Junior Meds Basketball (Interfaculty Champions)

JUNIOR MEDS showed their prestige on the basketball floor once again. This year nineteen teams were competing for the Sifton Cup, emblematic of the interfaculty championship.

The team won their first group easily. They were then grouped with Pharmacy and O.A.C. Junior Meds defeated Pharmacy in both games of a closely-fought series. By the elimination of O.A.C. the path was cleared to the finals. The only game Junior Meds lost was the first of the final games with St. Michael's. Junior Meds came back the next day with a seven point barrier against them, and defeated St. Michael's by eight points, winning the round by a single point. The last games were very good basketball, and it is apparent that interfaculty basketball is rapidly improving.

S.P.S. Athletic Activity

It is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that we review the Athletic Activity of the Engineering Faculty which, at the time of writing, has tallied no less than five championships to its credit, besides being finalists in two.

Early in the academic year, while the Senior Rugby squad were setting out on the long grind which ultimately led them to a decisive victory over St. Mike's—and the Mulock Cup, the Rowing and Outdoor Track teams registered in the Journal of Victories.

Our next endeavour was the Fitzgerald Cup, and the School fish swam well away from U.C., the next in line.

The Junior Assault-at-Arms resulted in a win for the gladiators from School.

S.P.S. will continue the winter schedule with a representation which, it is hoped, will uphold the standard set by their patronage to the Fall sports.

School "T" Holders

SHORT resumé of School's contribution to the body of colour holders is surely indicative of the Engineers' loyal support to the Athletic Activity of our Alma Mater, for of the fourteen "T" holders there are no less than four intercollegiate captains—(strangely enough they all rejoice in the name of John).

To begin with, the Senior Rugby Team is well supported by Earl Davey, Lloyd Hallam, Don Traynor and Jack White, all of whom deserve a great deal of credit for their showing in the rugby series last Fall. Nor are these all the rugby enthusiasts from S.P.S. for the ultimate success of the "Orfuns" renders a vote of congratulation to Mike Furber and Jerry Wood as members of the team.

In the matter of rowing, Jack Keith and "Gummy" Rochester are old timers at the game, the former having been elected president of the Rowing Club of the University for this year.

Jack Dyment has proven his ability as a fencer a score of times since coming to the University. Jack annexed the Dominion Duelling Sword title in his second year.

John Davenport has made a hobby of pole vaulting to such an extent that this event has favoured Varsity in the past four years and earned for him the title of Captain of Track.

Jack Williamson not only leads the Varsity Gymnasts this year, but he has earned considerable attention outside the Scholastic Circles.

It is hoped that at the next special meeting of the Directorate more men from this Faculty will have won the right to wear the coveted Crest.

S.P.S. Track Team

(Interfaculty Track Champions)

TILL another year and "School" reigns supreme in the Interfaculty Track World. One year ago, with two "mainstays," D. J. McKenzie and Harley Russell graduating, the team had a gloomy outlook. However, the freshmen year supplied the needed material, and all went merrily to the Stadium to see the boys perform.

A slow start in the point column kept us in doubt, but the total kept mounting. Jack Davenport won the pole vault for the fourth year in succession, and Ernie Barrett won the high jump—then Ed. Peaker won a few more points in the discus and javelin. So that with two events, the shot put and the relay, to be run off, Meds., U.C. and School were practically deadlocked. Barber of Meds. and Ed. Peaker of School had a real tussle with the shot put, putting it farther on each attempt, the latter winning on his last try. The relay proved the most exciting event of the day, Howe of School running a great race to give Thompson, the anchor man, a slight lead which he lengthened to a substantial one. The team was composed of Hewitt, Nimmo, Howe and Thompson.

Sr. School Water Polo

CHOOL were runners-up in the Interfaculty this year, losing the Eckhardt Trophy in the second game of the finals against U.C. by about two goals, the first game having resulted in a tie.

Although the School team did not lose a game in their group, lack of practice wrought their downfall against the superior team play of the Arts Crew.

It is very likely that proper coaching and organized practicing will tell a different story for there is plenty of splendid material from which to select a crack machine for next year.

J. Haggart, G. Gregg, N. Helper, M. Ward, Prof. Allcut, J. A. Downing, A. R. Wallberg.

S.P.S. Soccer Team

COMPARED to last year, we had few games to play this season. Two teams in the group defaulted all games and thus left two group games to be played instead of ten. After defeating Pharmacy in these group games, the team played Meds. in the semi-final. The field was partly mud under two inches of water, and the rest just mud—a snowstorm was thrown in for good luck.

The first game of the finals was played on a fast field and resulted in a one goal victory for Knox. In the second game there was no doubt about the winning team—the Presbyterians won by three goals, leaving them four goals up on the round.

Helper in goal and Downing at centre with Ward on his right, three inter-collegiate players, were the best on the School team.

School line-up:

Goal—Helper.

Backs—Edmunds, McCracken.

Half Backs—Haggart, MacKay, Franklin.

Forwards—Ward, McDonald, Downing, Gregg, Riddell.

Sub—Wallberg.

School Rowing

THIS fall the rowing enthusiasts in the University again ventured out on the water to decide the interfaculty honours.

School, as usual, started early and were on the machines a week after the University opened. A large number of men turned out, some with little experience, some with none, but all were enthusiastic.

After one week on the machines the crew went on the water from the Club House at the foot of John Street. The rest of the time until the regatta, which was held on October 20, was taken up in long rows and threes and tens, winding up in a course two days before the event.

On the day of the regatta, School was not conceded a very great chance of winning. The Dents appeared to be the favourites with Meds next in line and School trailing. In the first race Meds were the victims, and after a very hard tussle School entered the finals. Meanwhile Dents had eliminated U.C., thereby qualifying to meet School. The next race was full of unfortunate mishaps, but finally School pulled in ahead of Dents.

Thus the "Old School Spirit" came to the fore and the title, which has resided in the Little Red Schoolhouse ever since its introduction, was again annexed.

S.P.S. Track Team (Interfaculty Indoor Champions)

FTER a great battle with University College, "School" won the trophy emblematic of the Interfaculty Indoor Championship.

Up to the final events U.C. had held a narrow margin. However, the "School-men" arose to the occasion and turned what seemed a well-fought defeat into a glorious victory.

Too much cannot be said for Ralph Adams, our freshman and member of the 1928 Canadian Olympic Team. In winning the three sprints and placing second in the broad jump, he amassed eighteen points and the individual championship, as well as being a member of the half and one mile relay teams. Great credit must be given to C. W. Woodside and H. W. Nimmo, the lone two graduating members of the team. These two men nobly gained points where our team appeared weakest. "Woody," a high jumper, having failed in his specialty, came racing home in front, in the one mile walk and Nimmo a close second; the latter also placed in the half, mile and two mile events. In the half mile relay the team composed of Howe, Thompson, Smith, Hewett, Hymmen and Adams made a new track record; while the one-mile relay team composed of Howe, Nimmo, Adams and Thompson, and the Freshman team of Smith, Black, Hymmen and Donaldson placed first and third respectively in their events.

The Track Club feels extremely proud of the freshman year and anticipates even greater achievements during their three remaining years at the "Greatest Faculty on the Campus."

School Swimming

THE School won the Fitzgerald Cup, emblematic of the Interfaculty Swimming Championship, when they outpointed U.C., their age-old Aquatic rivals, at the Annual Meet.

TS.P.S. early assumed the lead which she maintained throughout the evening, tallying four separate wins.

A close Relay race between S.P.S. 1st and U.C. 2nd brought the meet to a smashing climax and gave the Engineers a well-earned decision which amply rewards their natatorial efforts during the last few years.

Senior S.P.S. Rugby

THE 1928 Senior S.P.S. Rugby Team won the Mulock Cup Championship for the first time in several years. The season started rather inauspiciously, with only a few at the practices, but as the season progressed more men turned out, and the team which entered the finals was a real credit to the Faculty. It would be unfair to pick out individual stars. The whole team worked hard, and was particularly effective in tackling and plunging. Special mention is deserved by those of the faithful who turned out for the first game or so when the team was badly in need of material.

Dental Athletic Association

HIS organization is composed of a representative from each sport elected by the student body of the Faculty, and these members in turn elect one of their number as President of Athletics.

It is the duty of the members to encourage their particular branch of sport, to see that their particular team is well managed and to be responsible for equipment. The President of Athletics is responsible to the Cabinet of the Students' Parliament for all equipment and expenditures.

"Bob" Langstroth is President of Athletics and has been given great support by his representatives.

"Hally" Halldorson, on the Varsity Senior Crew, ably looks after rowing. His coharts gave the Schoolmen a hard race in the Interfaculty finals.

"Bill" Dewar, who managed Varsity Intermediate Hockey Team last year, has charge of the puck-chasers who have been in the play offs for four years and look better than ever this year.

"Al" Quick, a veteran on Dents' Spalding Cup teams, has his team going strong and is in no small part responsible for their success.

"Harry" Galsky, a regular on Varsity B.W. and F. teams, staged one of the best assaults in years and ably upholds the Varsity laurels himself in the 118 lb. class.

"Eddie" Sinclair looks after both rugby and swimming. Dents' showing in Mulock Cup series and in Interfaculty swimming and water polo is a great credit to "Eddie", who already has his "T" for his tank work.

"Roy" Currie, basketball veteran, who last year was captain of Varsity's championship basketball team, has charge of the Sifton Cup teams, and they are well up at the top.

"Jack" Marshall, of track fame, brought forth some dandy material in the faculty track meet he staged so successfully, and by his own individual work has been a great credit to Dents.

Somerville, Johnston, Bramah, Whitaker, Currie.

First "T" Holders in Dentistry

"SANDY" SOMERVILLE

This lanky middle-distance runner has been in the lime-light during his entire college course. He won his letter from S.P.S. before entering Dentistry and obtained his "T" in his fourth Year by his speedy showing on the track. "Sandy" also helped Varsity win the International Relay at the C.N.E. in '25. He has played Intercollegiate Rugger, shot on the Intercollegiate Rifle Team, and his trusty wing hurled Dentistry to victory in the Spalding Cup Series.

"GORD" JOHNSTON

Another lengthy lad who has made a name for himself in Basketball. He was one of the reasons why Dentistry won the Lipton Cup in '26. He played also with Varsity Juniors and on the Intermediates when they won the Intercollegiate Championship. "Gord" has been playing with the Seniors for two years. He was awarded his letter in his fourth year.

"ROY" CURRIE

"Roy" won his "T" in his first year and has been playing basketball with the Seniors for five years. Currie has been the mainstay on the defence for his entire course and a tower of strength to the team on their annual trips across the lines. Captain of this team in his fourth year, he led them to victory in the Intercollegiate series and left an individual record that will be difficult to equal.

"TED" BRAMAH

Born and brought up in St. Catharines, "Ted" had the environment and inspiration of the Henley to urge him on, and in his fourth year won his letter on Varsity's senior crew when they missed the Olympic trip by only a few feet. "Ted" also played Interfaculty rugby for three years and has made a good contribution to sport.

"JERRY" WHITAKER

"Jerry" has been used to sculling for over ten years. Hailing from Kenora, a sporty centre, he won the Junior race at the International regatta at Duluth in 1923 and has been rowing in Senior company ever since. He obtained the coveted award in his fourth year. Holding down the key position of stroke on the Varsity Senior eight, he made a wonderful showing at Canadian Henley of '28.

Back Row: Chalmers, Johnston, Langstroth, Bramah, Whitaker, Brown, Hayhurst.

Second Row: Honey, Masiello, O'Brien, Currie.

Senior "D" Holders

O a small and carefully selected number the much-coveted "D" is awarded for marked distinction in athletics. Members of winning teams or those who have played continuously for several years on a senior team are the only ones to achieve this honour.

Dr. Willmott of the Faculty, who has always taken a keen interest in sport, presents the highest distinction in Dentistry known as the "Willmott Crown." It is given only to those members of the senior year who have been outstanding in athletics.

The graduating year has made a fine showing in athletics as evidenced by the number to gain the prized award, and they have won their "D's" in every kind of sport from rugby to water polo.

C. J. Draper (Secretary); W. H. Langhorn (Curator), F. J. Coleman (Treasurer), E. W. G. Worrall (President)
R. O. Wilkes (Vice-President).

Wycliffe Athletic Association

THE Wycliffe College Athletic Association has been very active this past year, one of the reasons being the incentive created by the beautiful new trophy presented to the Association by Professor Issherwood for inter-divisional competition.

We have been represented by teams in the various branches of sport. Although we have not won any trophies, yet we have had a most enjoyable and successful year. A sportsmanlike spirit has prevailed at all times.

The Soccer Team, although weakened by the loss of some of its star players who graduated last year, did very well; a fact mainly due to the infectious enthusiasm and ability of our manager, "Cec" Watkins. It gives promise of doing even better work next year.

Our Baseball Team is again entered in the League, and looks forward to a successful season under "Ron" Morrissey's management.

"Rusty" Wilkes is rounding the Basketball Team into shape. It should do well.

The Hockey Team is strengthened by players of ability. "Perk" is already taking off weight, and so ensuring the fitness both of himself and of the team. The field day and the cross country run proved successful and enjoyable events. "Rusty" Wilkes took honours on field day, with Morrissey and Jones running close seconds. "Hap" Gilbert, as expected, won the cross country, Crawshaw and Geary came second and third respectively.

Our freshman year is a good one; no less than six of its members were amongst the first twelve to finish in the cross country.

Senior Women "T" Holders

NORMA BATEMAN, Vic. '30—Won her "T" for both tennis and hockey in her first year. Played centre for intercollegiate hockey champions two years and guard for Vic. Basketball Seniors. A hard worker and good play-maker.

EDITH BLACKWELL, U.C. '31—Forward Intercollegiate and U.C. Junior Basketball two years, and pitcher U.C. Baseball. Out of most competition this year through ill-health, but managed the U.C. Junior Basketball champions and coached the forwards on that and the Intercollegiate team, as well as acting as coach to the Parkdale Collegiate team for three years.

MARGARET GROUT, Trin. '29—Individual tennis champion 1927-28 and 1928-29. A very steady player.

HELEN HILLIARD, Vic. '30—Right wing, Intercollegiate Hockey champions 1927-28 and 1928-29, and starred for Vic. in her first year. A persistent back-checker and possesses the "scoring punch."

DOROTHY KER, Vic. '29—Jumping centre Intercollegiate Basketball 1927-28 and guard for the 1928-29 champions. Has played four years for Vic. teams. Also a member of the Vic. swimming team. Very fast and a hard checker.

DOROTHY Langley, Trin. '30—Left wing Senior Intercollegiate Hockey champions for three years. A speedy skater and tricky stick-handler.

BETTY MACDONALD, U.C. '30—Side-centre sub. on Senior Intercollegiate Basketball team 1927-28. Has starred for U.C. teams for three years. Very fast and good play-maker.

PAT TILSTON, Trin. '30—The brilliant goalie of the Intercollegiate Hockey champions 1927-28 and 1928-29, being captain this year. Has pulled many a game out of the fire.

Women's Athletics

HE women athletes of the University have completed another most successful year under the guidance of the Women's Athletic Directorate and the Club Executives. Directorate members for 1928-29 are: Dr. C. C. Benson, President; Mrs. E. A. Linell, Vice-President; Miss A. E. M. Parkes, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Kirkwood, Dr. Edith Gordon, Miss I. G. Coventry, and Mrs. J. D. Williamson as faculty and graduate representatives; and Misses Helen Dore, Phyllis Howard, Dorothy Ker, Mary Jackson and Dorothy Langley as undergraduates. The Club Presidents are: Basketball, Miss Phyllis Howard; Hockey, Miss Gladys Martin; Baseball, Miss Frances Dale; Tennis, Miss Norma Bateman; Swimming, Miss Mary Grant.

No intercollegiate tennis was played this year, but excellent faculty and interfaculty tournaments were run off. St. Hilda's pretty nearly swept the board, having all four semi-finalists and producing some excellent material. Bea Symons, a freshie, and Margaret Grout, last year's champion, played a most interesting match for the final, with the superior experience of the champion carrying her through to a win.

The basketball this year throughout the University was of an exceptionally high order. There were nine teams in the interfaculty, Occupational Therapy entering for the first time and making a particularly good showing. The three group winners were Junior U.C., Senior Vic. and St. Hilda's. The first named, composed almost entirely of first year girls, defeated both the other teams in quite convincing fashion and are certainly worthy champions. The coach was Miss Phyllis Griffiths; the manager and assistant coach, Edith Blackwell; and the captain, Wilma Hazlitt.

The Senior Intercollegiate Basketball team had one of the most successful years on record. Miss Phyllis Griffiths, the 1928 coach, was reappointed, but due to an illness at Christmas she was forced to resign and Miss Marion Forward, of the 1926 and 1927 teams, took over on short notice. The calibre of basketball played in the interfaculty promised well for the intercollegiate, but only one 1928 regular was left and the task of picking a team and working up combination in so short a time was a great one. The results speak for themselves—in the first game of the annual tournament, held this year at Montreal, Varsity defeated Queen's 58-25 while Western defeated McGill 44-37. In the finals next day, Toronto simply walked away from Western, 52-19, and proved in convincing fashion that they are the best team in the League. The previous high score in the tournaments was a 35 for Toronto against Queen's in 1926, so that the scoring ability of the team may be judged. The regulars were: Wilma Hazlitt, U.C. '32, Captain; Eleanor Sedgewick, Vic. '31; Louise Crouch, U.C. '32; Betty Thomas, U.C. '32; Dorothy Ker, Vic. '29; Honor Tett, U.C. '30; the substitutes, Beatrice Symons, Trin. '32; Alice Muckle, Vic. '29; and Edith Peake, U.C. '30; and the most efficient manager, Phyllis Howard, U.C. '29. It will thus be seen that four out of nine are freshmen and only one player had previous senior experience, so that the prospects for the next few years are very bright.

The City League Schedule has not yet been completed, but Varsity lost the first game to Margaret Eaton by only one point. The Second Team, under the coaching of Miss Griffiths, is coming along well in the City League and promises to make any team step to defeat it.

Hockey was another sport which showed a revival of interest and the benefit of new blood. The Intercollegiate team lost its defence and all three subs. by graduation, but was fortunate to retain its goalie and captain, Pat Tilston, Trin. '30, and the entire forward line of Norma Bateman, Vic. '30, Helen Hilliard, Vic. '30, and Dot Langley, Trin. '30. The interfaculty series did its bit by producing three strong players in Adele Statten, U.C. '31, Gladys Martin, Trin. '30 and Dot James, Med. '33, and the freshman year offered a brilliant defence star, Frances Crooks, Trin. '32. Under the coaching of Bill Dewar, Dents '30, and the management of Mary Gardner, St. M.'s '31, Varsity once more won the coveted Beattie Ramsay trophy. The first of the home-and-home games with Queen's resulted in a 1-1 tie, but the return game in Kingston a week later proved the real ability of the team with a 3-0 score for Varsity.

The interfaculty series was again a hard-fought affair which made up in enthusiasm for what was lacking in skill. At the time of writing U.C. has won its group, while St. Hilda's, Vic. I., and Meds. are tied in the other group. Lack of ice has delayed the play-offs.

Indoor baseball is the only sport which has not had a banner year—largely due to the lack of gymnasium facilities. Vic. won out again with a strong team, but there were fewer teams in the series than usual, and the baseball played was not quite up to standard.

The annual interfaculty swimming meet takes place on March 20 in the Hart House pool. This is always the best attended and perhaps the most successful of all the women's events. University College has dominated swimming as long as there has been competition, but the other colleges are awake at last, and Vic., St. Hilda's and Meds., as well as U.C., have each held a special meet for their own girls. An innovation this year was the setting aside of Monday nights for the separate teams to practice and great things are expected at the Hart House meet. Margot Macdonald, the 1928 champion, is back and in great form, as is Sophie Goode, the Canadian long plunge record holder.

More and more the needs of an athletic building for women is apparent and every sport, except hockey, and the physical training work as well must suffer until adequate accommodation is available. Thanks to the generosity of the men's Directorate, the hockey team is well provided for at the Arena, and the basketball finals and swimming meet are held at Hart House, and the Women's Directorate and the athletes are correspondingly grateful.

St. Hilda's Athletic Association

THE St. Hilda's Athletic Association includes all students in the college, and keen interest is shown in sports by both the resident and non-resident members. The executive is elected in March for the following year, the president for this year being Phyllis Tilston. At the first meeting in the beginning of October, there was no desire shown for re-entering a baseball team in the interfaculty series, the practice of which had been discontinued the year before.

The Tennis Team gained unprecedeted success in that four Saints were the contestants in the semi-finals of the University tournament, again bringing the interfaculty championship to their college. The captain, Margaret Grout, repeated her success of last year in again securing the individual championship.

The Basketball Team, whose captain this year is Ruth Harrison, has greatly improved and is playing hard to win the series. So far it has lost one game and won one, with two more to play. The year games have not yet been played, but will be very keenly contested, especially since '29 has held the inter-year cup for the last three years.

The Hockey Team has not yet been formed but the prospects are for a successful season under the captaincy of Joyce Muirhead.

Margaret Goode, who set a new record for the plunge at the interfaculty swimming meet last year, is captain of the Swimming Team and hopes to enter a fairly strong team at the meet in March, for interest in this sport is gradually growing in the college.

The Victoria College Women's Athletic Club

HIS year Vic. athletics have suffered from the graduation of 2T8. However, while we have not as many championships as last year, the same spirit of keen participation and readiness to co-operate has made every game worth-while.

Baseball was most sucessful. The interfaculty cup won last year was retained, the team winning five out of the six scheduled games.

Our Tennis Tournament held in the Fall met with great enthusiasm. In the battle for interfaculty supremacy Victoria lost to St. Hilda's, but we were encouraged at holding second place.

The Senior Basketball Team won their group, but unfortunately lost in the semi-finals. The Juniors lost out in their group by one point.

Swimming is promising. Practices are being held every second Monday evening at the Lillian Massey tank under the auspices of the University Swimming Club, in preparation for the meet which is to take place toward the end of February.

Very little can be said about hockey. Having lost most of last year's championship team, the prospects are not so bright. However, practices are being well attended, which is encouraging.

Inter-year games are yet to come. This is the opportunity for any girl interested in sport, as interfaculty players are excluded from these games. Under the able direction of our president, Dorothy Ker, we are trying to make every girl feel that the Club is essentially hers; that it exists because of her, and for her. The compulsory fee, new this year, automatically makes her a member of the Club; her part is but to accept its advantages. We would like to have every girl enjoying some game, both for her own sake and for the sake of the game. After all, it is not whether we win that counts, but how we play; and if it can be said that we have done our best, the highest praise is ours.

Joint Executive of Students' Administrative Council

THE Joint Executive Students' Administrative Councils" is the lengthy title of the body which administers all affairs affecting the student body as a whole. During the war the women had had to carry on the various University activities, and it was felt that they should continue to take their part with the men in the responsibilities of undergraduate life. Thus in 1919 the executives of the Men's and Women's Councils became the Joint Executive S.A.C. and have carried on ever since, with the addition last year of two staff members appointed by the President.

In the beginning this body sponsored the publishing of "The Varsity," TORONTONENSIS and a "Students' Directory" (now "The Handbook"), and showed little interest in other matters. Gradually, however, the field has widened to include all manner of activities. The formation of the N.F.C.U.S. has increased the work of the Joint Executive. Debates, tours and conferences of various kinds have been organized and have required the expenditure of much time and energy on the part of the entertaining universities. The Executive has also for some years handled the sale and manufacture of the University Crest rings and pins, and this year is adding the University blazer and crest to its responsibilities.

Due to various causes, a very large debt accumulated during the years 1920-26, and for the past three years the Joint Executive has curtailed expenditures and made readjustments of different kinds in order to clear off this debt as soon as possible. With the co-operation of the Board of Governors this was accomplished by Christmas 1928, and any surplus now accumulated will be devoted to the establishment of a fund to care for the contingent liability on TORONTONENSIS.

This has been a most stormy year for the Joint Executive, owing largely to "The Varsity" and all its works. The troubles have fortunately all come from the outside, and the utmost harmony has prevailed in the ranks of the Executive during this very difficult period. "More and later meetings" has been the slogan, but the members have given faithful service even into the small hours of the night, when "Special Bulletins" and under-staffed issues of "The Varsity" were to be published. When it is considered that these students are also the chief executive officers in their own faculties and colleges, their sacrifice of time and energy cannot be too much appreciated.

Men's Students' Administrative Council

THE Men Students' Administrative Council, as it now exists, was reorganized in 1914 and has since continued to serve as the representative of the male undergraduate body. Its duties are to act on behalf of the latter on public occasions, to supervise the general business of, and the order among the male students of the University.

The Council, in conjunction with various other bodies, sponsors an active programme of debating, athletics and interfaculty and inter-University activities. This year the National Federation of Canadian University Students and two American universities have sent debating teams to meet the University of Toronto.

The Council is composed of some thirty-four representatives of the various colleges and faculties, the heads of the governing bodies in those faculties, and of the Student Christian Movement, the Editor-in-Chief of "The Varsity," a representative from the Athletic Association, the President and the Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer is a graduate of the University, as is the President also, the former being nominated by the Men Students' Administrative Council or the Joint Executive, the latter chosen directly by the Men's Council. The Secretary-Treasurer is the only paid official on the Council and he, by virtue of his office, is also Business Manager of "The Varsity," TORONTONENSIS and the Students' Handbook.

The officers of the Council consist of the President, the Secretary-Treasurer, a Vice-President, who is also the representative of the University of Toronto on the Council of the National Federation of Canadian University Students, the Chairmen of the Students' Court, of the Debates Committee, of the Advisory Board of Student Publications and of representatives to the Finance Committee, the Athletic Association and the Board of Stewards of Hart House. The officers of the Men's Council, with the officers of the Women's Council form the Joint Executive.

This year has also been marked, as far as the activities of the Council are concerned, by the Varsity controversy and the perennial blazer question. With regard to each of these the Council took action, and by its work as a body or through its Executive made possible the solution of these problems.

Women Students' Administrative Council

THE Women Students' Administrative Council was brought into being in the spring of 1916 after a year of organization and constitution making. The formation of a Council to centralize the activities of the women of the University as a whole was found to be a necessity during the war years, when the various patriotic endeavours began to overlap and each college was hampered by the lack of co-operation. Until that time the women of the University had always carried on all activities except interfaculty athletics entirely in the individual colleges and faculties, and the linking of all interests in one body immediately made the women a force in undergraduate activities as they had never been before.

The Council is composed of representatives from the women undergraduates' societies of all colleges and faculties. There are seventeen seats on the Council, each college or faculty having representation more or less according to size. The presidents of the undergraduate societies in University College, Victoria College, Trinity College, St. Michael's College and a Senior representative from the Faculty of Medicine, with the General Secretary-Treasurer, who is a graduate nominated by the Council and appointed by the Board of Governors, make up the Executive and are the women members of the Joint Executive of the two Councils. The other faculties and departments represented are: O.C.E., Social Service, Dentistry and Public Health Nursing.

The offices rotate among the colleges each year, commencing with the presidency in University College in 1916. Miss Marion Johnston, St. Hilda's, is this year's President, and Miss Muriel Smith, St. Michael's, Vice-President.

The Council is responsible for any all-university undertakings which may develop during the year, such as this year's tag day for the University Settlement, etc., and in addition a free book exchange for women students is maintained, and tickets for the women's section at games, debates, concerts, etc., are handled by the Council office. Since 1918 the women have taken joint responsibility with the men in the publication of "The Varsity," TORONTONENSIS and "The Handbook," and in all other matters in which the interests of both men and women are involved.

University College Literary and Athletic Society

HERE is little doubt in the minds of the men of University College that the past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Society. Everything in which the "Lit." had a hand was carried off with aplomb, showing plenty of forethought in the planning of the various activities.

The year was marked by six splendid open meetings, special interest being taken owing to the several important matters which were brought up. Chief amongst these was the discussion on a form of procedure which would suit the present-day conditions in the college. The last three meetings were held in parliamentary form, which seemed to meet with general approval. Under the parliamentary form of procedure members speak from their seats, and this has led to an added interest in the various debates which have featured most of the meetings.

In the realm of athletics University College has held up its end wonderfully well. Besides having a worthy representation on the various intercollegiate teams, the college has fielded eleven teams in the interfaculty series. The rugby teams made a very creditable showing as did all the others. Junior U.C. was successful in winning the water polo championship, and the Juniors also went through to the finals in hockey. We may all feel justly proud of the showing of these teams.

The social side of the college activities, starting with the Soph-Frosh banquet in the fall and ending with the Arts Ball, the premier dance in the University, was brilliant throughout and unequalled by any of the other faculties.

University College has always held first place for she is the nucleus from which the University has sprung. The past year has led us on to new heights and may our college become still mightier as she begins the second century of her existence.

U.C. Women's Undergraduate Association

EVERY woman of University College is a member of the Women Undergraduates' Association, and as their representative and administrative organ it seeks to unify their various interests. To guide the freshies at the beginning of term the W.U.A. gave out handbooks and information. The initiation party this year took the form of stunts presented by the freshies, followed by an impressive formal initiation of first year women by the senior year. The official welcome to first year by faculty wives, alumnae and undergraduates, namely, the Annual Autumn Tea, was held early in November in East and West Halls. A gown week, now traditional, was observed in October.

This year the W.U.A. sponsored several Sunday afternoon musicales for the women of the college, which proved to be very popular. We hope that there will be many more to come.

At Mrs. Kirkwood's Christmas Party the W.U.A. put on a Nativity Play preceded by carols, with the kind and untiring assistance of Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Dow.

The St. Margaret's College Alumnae Annual Oratorical Contest took place as usual early in February.

This year our efforts to raise money for the building fund took the novel form of a "mile of nickels" day in the autumn, and in February we held a Theatre Night, which proved to be very successful.

Victoria College Student Parliament

LAST fall marked another milestone in the "constitutional" history of student government in Victoria College. A revision was made with the idea of securing a more representative and responsible form of student administration. Perhaps it is too soon to judge the success or failure of the attempt, but it might be sufficient to say that this year, by a generous distribution of buns, milk, apples and smokes, a quorum of twenty-five was maintained.

As an administrative executive, representing and acting for all the male undergraduate societies, it has functioned efficiently and well.

An event long to be remembered by present undergraduates was the holding of the students' court in the fall in connection with the tie-wearing tradition.

On the whole the executive at present is in a position to handle the general activities of the student body in an efficient manner, and possesses sufficient power to deal with any matter of vital interest that shall arise.

Victoria Women Undergraduates' Association

THE Women's Undergraduate Association includes every woman student of Victoria College in its membership and the heads of all undergraduate societies sit on its executive. Every Fall the freshies are welcomed to the week-end house party, given in conjunction with the senior year in the Annesley residences. Here the newest arrivals have a chance to become acquainted with each other, and under the tender care of a senior the terrors of registration fade. At the "Freshman Prom." the W.U.A. joins forces with the Students' Parliament in welcoming the first year. It is among the Association's chief concerns to provide points of contact between residence and out-of-residence girls. Several lectures on topics of general interest and two tea-dances have been held this year. The W.U.A. musicales held in Wymilwood every Sunday evening have become an established part of college life. Here any undergraduate may come and find friends old and new, good music, and good "eats". The Association is quite aware of the need for new residences, and campaigns for funds are carried on under the supervision of its executive. A sum of money is also set aside each year to purchase paintings hung in Annesley Hall and Wymilwood.

The Women's Undergraduate Association takes up with enthusiasm and efficiency, matters which would otherwise be regarded as "everybody's business and nobody's business" and holds a unique position of growing importance among the college societies.

History of Class 3T0 Victoria

 SUPERIOR brand of Whoopee was made at the Vic. 3T0 Fall Hike when this famous class demonstrated its ability to rise above environment by turning to its own advantage threatening elements and rigid picnic-ground restrictions—all of which means that despite the presence of rain and the absence of a campfire, at the psychological moment there appeared from somewhere (was it the resourceful Burwash) an abundance of red hot weiners and gallons of steaming coffee. More Whoopee was made when "the little merrymakers, tired but happy," returned home via T.T.C.

For once in its history Annesley Hall was really "in Dutch" which occurred on a certain night in December when windmills creaked, wooden shoes clacked, tulips sprouted, and Old Dutch Cleanser women were seen "chasing dirt"; all to lend atmosphere to the first Dutch Date Party of the College. After sundry Haarlem Hwirls, Gretchen Grabs, Butter Bounces, Amsterdam Ambles and Wilhelmina Waltzes, Romeo and Juliet appeared à la Hollandaise. The Delicattessen number was greatly appreciated, but "Daht's All" came much too soon for the Dutch Daters.

Such were our fall activities—but the end is not yet. Rumour says that the New Year's Resolution of the recently-elected spring term executive is "Even Bigger and Better Whoopee for Vic. 3T0."

Trinity College Literary Institute

In a resumé of the Lit. the first thought that comes to mind is that this society is very old as University institutions go. For, although it was founded under its present title in 1853, it was descended from the days of the Diocesan Theological Institute in Cobourg. In the activities of its new surroundings it still remains established and vigorous.

Debating has been emphasized for some years now in the interpretation of our motto, "Feros Cultus Voce Formare". At the regular meetings on Friday evenings the Common Room is the scene of Party debates under the Parliamentary system, with due attention to ceremony and traditional usage. Upon defeat in two successive party debates the Council of nine members goes out of office. It is succeeded by the official Opposition of five members, with the necessary additions, who then form the "Government". The Council has full executive authority and arranges the Oratorical Contest each year and other entertainments. Lately the combined debates with the St. Hilda's Literary Society have met with encouraging approval and not being partisan the debates allow all members free discussion upon which ever side they choose. The Conversazione is held annually under the supervision of a special committee, which each year has earned the commendation of the members.

P. McAndrew, L. Leavey, T. Calnan, R. Morin (President), V. Egan.

St. Michael's College Students' Council

PROMINENT among the many university organizations devoted to student self-government stands the Students' Administrative Council of St. Michael's College. This body has charge of the majority of undergraduate activities about the College, and all other executive bodies are directly responsible to it. It is composed of the presidents of the four years plus the vice-president of the senior year. The senior president is ex-officio President of the Council, the senior vice-president is likewise Vice-President of the Council, and the third year councillor is secretary.

One of the first duties which the S.A.C. find themselves called upon to perform is that of welcoming (?) the frosh. This year they were presented with colourful neckgear at the outset, and later officially welcomed at the annual reception.

In December the rugby players of the school were fêted at a special dinner in the Carls-Rite, and shortly after the Christmas vacation the annual Arts Banquet was held in the College Dining Hall.

Towards the close of the year the annual competition for the Harris Gold Medal for oratory was conducted, and one of the final acts of this year's Students' Council was to hold the annual elections of class executives from whom their successors of next year will be chosen.

Besides their activities as a unit each member of the Student Council is an active worker in the affairs of his own class. Annual class parties are an institution around St. Michael's and they are generally the work of an enterprising year president.

Student self-government is an interesting experiment. Unquestionably it should prove a valuable training ground for future leaders of political and executive bodies. Already it is not too much to say that many a prominent executive leader has gleaned his first lessons in efficient and tactful management in St. Michael's Students' Council.

The Engineering Society

THE Engineering Society is one of the few student organizations entirely in the hands of the undergraduate body. It came into being on February 16th, 1885. During the first years of its existence its President was the Dean of the Faculty. In 1888, however, the Constitution was so modified that the Executive was chosen entirely from the student body. This system has been continued to the present time.

By virtue of a fee collected at time of registration every undergraduate of the school automatically becomes a member of the Engineering Society. The affairs of the Society are administered by its Executive, which, according to constitution, consists of President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer, who are the officers of the Society, together with the four Year Presidents and the Chairmen of eight federated and affiliated clubs, the President of the Athletic Association and the Director of Publications and Publicity.

The President presides at open Engineering Society meetings, in addition to which he is the mouthpiece of the Society. The First Vice-President is directly responsible for the social activities of the Society. On him devolves the chairmanship and the selection of the committees which organize the Annual School Dinner and the Annual School At-Home. The Second Vice-President is the manager of the Supply Store, which is operated in conjunction with the Society. This store handles all necessary commodities for academic life, with the possible exception of text-books.

The Society sponsors two publications, the annual "Transactions and Year Book," which is published in the spring, and that wonderful moulder of thought, "Toike Oike," a small paper issued from time to time as the occasion demands.

The function of the Year Executives, under the guidance of their respective Presidents, is largely social.

The individual clubs, and the Society as a whole, each contribute to the technical side of the year's activities. The Society, through its bi-monthly meetings at which the undergraduates are addressed by leading men in engineering matters, endeavours to further stimulate interest in recent technical developments. Each club holds meetings, dinners, and smokers, at which addresses are given in connection with that branch of engineering in which they are most interested.

The Society, through the President of the Athletic Association, takes care of all the athletic pursuits of the school, and sponsors representative teams in every branch of interfaculty sport. The Society, in addition, co-operates with the Students' Christian Association of the University, which is considered to be one of the most powerful organizations of its kind in any university.

Briefly, the Engineering Society is interested, and makes its influence felt in every branch of student endeavour, and where it is possible, co-operates with similar organizations in other faculties to further the best interests of the University as a whole.

The Medical Society

LL undergraduates in Medicine are members of the Medical Society, the executive of which is elected each February. Although the Society had a humble origin back in 1895, it has grown tremendously and greatly altered its scope in the intervening years. At the present time it is an organization over seven hundred strong, whose business is carried on by a strong executive. Those elected to the executive are: president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and assistant. The president of the Medical Athletic Society, and the presidents of the various years, are also members, while the musical director, the chairman of the Daffy-dil Committee, the editor of the Medical Journal and the Varsity Reporter are appointees.

Primarily it is incumbent upon the executive to promote close co-operation between staff and students and to provide educational meetings that may serve to draw the different classes together in common extra-mural interests. Not the least of the responsibilities of the executive is the publication of the Undergraduate Medical Journal, which serves as a medium of student expression on medical topics and reflects modern medical beliefs at this University.

Secondarily come certain traditional social affairs, for which the Medical Society Executive arranges. These include Medical At-Home, Daffy-dil and various Dollar Dances. It is of interest to note that the Medical Society operates a student insurance fund, for the benefit of members taken sick and requiring hospital care during the academic year.

The Foresters' Club

FHE Foresters' Club, the official organ of the Faculty, was founded in 1909. Its aims and purposes are to govern the non-athletic student activities, to promote co-operation between staff and student, graduate and undergraduate, and to supplement the technical education of its members. To these ends men prominent in the Forestry profession or its allied sciences are procured for the semi-monthly meetings. In this manner subjects which could not be included in the curriculum are brought before the members for consideration and discussion.

The first social event of the year, Stunt Night, with its unique and rigidly enforced tradition which compels all the men to wear "bush clothes" was a highly successful affair. The more formal At-Home held in Hart House during the winter term left no cause for complaints, while at the Annual Banquet graduates and undergraduates met in goodly numbers to hear Canon Cody speak on "Canada", and listen to short addresses by Hon. Mr. Finlayson Minister of Lands and Forests, and the Warden, Mr. Bickersteth.

Forestry athletics are capably controlled by its Athletic Association. Teams are entered in the interfaculty rugby, hockey, and basketball leagues, and although championships seem always to elude their grasp, Forestry believes that they have no reason to be ashamed of their showing.

And the graduating year, going forth to their several ways, entertain, among their most pleasant memories, recollections of the Club and its associations and hearty and sincere are their wishes for its future success.

Students' Parliament of the Faculty of Dentistry

THE Students' Parliament is the medium through which the undergraduates of the Faculty of Dentistry are represented in social, athletic and other activities of the University and Dental profession. Every undergraduate is a member and pays an annual fee.

The Cabinet, the executive body of the Students' Parliament, is chosen by ballot at the end of each university year, all the officers being undergraduates who are elected with regard to their respective ability to cater to the demands of their fellow-students, their Faculty and their University. The executive is composed of a president and thirteen officers.

The President is directly responsible for the Parliament's activities and is the Faculty's senior representative on the Students' Administrative Council of the University.

Knox College Undergraduate Association

PROGRESS has been the keynote of the policy of the present executive of the K.C.U.A. At all times their greatest desire has been to keep the name of Knox in the forefront in lines of intellectual, social and physical endeavour. The fortnightly meetings of the Association have been most interesting, and the increase in attendance over last year has been most gratifying. An open debate, based upon the form of the Hart House debates has been introduced once a month into the meetings.

A departure from the ordinary programme of Knox social events was attempted and most successfully carried out by the Programme and Worship Committee early in November, when a reception to the Presbyterian students of University College was held.

In athletic circles, Knox reports an outstanding year. The Hockey Team were the winners of Group "C" in the interfaculty series. The Rugby Team acquitted themselves well, and put up a brand of football much above their usual standard. Knox's perennially powerful Soccer Team came through their group with colours flying, defeated the strong O.A.C. Team in the semi-finals by a safe margin, and crowned a glorious season by overcoming S.P.S. in the finals for the Interfaculty Championship, and the possession of the Arts Faculty Cup. Their well-merited victory has been hailed with joy by all Knox supporters.

Residence life has been far from uninteresting, and the neighbourhood of Knox frequently resounds to the din of nocturnal strife.

Emmanuel College Students' Society

WITH the necessary legislation passed by the Provincial Parliament in the spring, Emmanuel College came into being as the Theological College of Victoria University. Emmanuel continues the work that was formerly done by Knox on the Presbyterian side and Victoria Faculty of Theology on the Methodist side before the United Church of Canada became an accomplished fact. Although legally united in 1928, the union took place in reality at the commencement of the academic year 1927-28, when the two student bodies were brought together under the temporary name of Union Theological College and Victoria University Faculty of Theology.

The students of Emmanuel College for the commencement of the present session organized the Emmanuel College Students' Society and the Residence Committee for administrative purposes. Membership is open to all church students whether in Arts or Theology. An Executive Committee, consisting of the officers of the Society and the Chairmen of two Student Committees—Missionary and Worship and Athletics—meets regularly to direct and co-ordinate the spiritual, social and athletic life of the College. The Residence Committee, with the Dean of Residences as Chairman, directs all residence activities and is directly responsible to the College Council.

Without a building the new Emmanuel College has been handicapped in many directions. But great and promising progress is being made in a number of ways. Above all, the necessary spirit of unity has been fully realized. We are now in every respect one college and rejoicing in the larger fellowship.

Our athletics have taken their place in interfaculty sport; social evenings have been featured and banquets enjoyed. But primarily we have been emphasizing spiritual fellowship. Communion services, missionary undertakings, group discussions, and helpful residence evening worship, stand out in the student life of the youngest of the federated colleges on our Campus.

Wycliffe College Literary Society

THIS year marked the revival of party spirit in college. The elections were the most keenly contested in many years. No undergraduate student will ever forget that hectic battle of words, coupled with silent whispers, about the college corridors. The result was a victory for the Students' Party, led by Mr. A. J. Jackson, M.A., over the Anti Indigestion League, led by Mr. H. R. Hunt.

The victorious Party entered office cumbered with a load of cares. However the Society this year has fulfilled many of its promises and has made several worthwhile changes in the social life of the College. One evening each month is being devoted to current theological problems. These discussions have proven to be decidedly educational and interesting. Sunday evening musicales are a great success. Principal Emeritus Hutton and Professor Fay of the University of Toronto, as special speakers at open meetings, were greatly appreciated. Periodic visits have been made to different industrial plants throughout the city. The debates of the Society this year have had an added vim, and much interest has been shown in the business of the House. Indeed the Society this year has maintained the interest and gained the hearty support of the whole student body.

O.V.C. Students' Administrative Council

THE Students' Administrative Council of the Ontario Veterinary College is the executive head of the student body. It is composed of eleven members, three of which are representatives from the Senior Year, three from the Junior, three from the Sophomore, and two from the Freshman. Its officers constitute a president, who is a Senior Year representative, a vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

Meetings of the Council are held every two weeks, at which time all matters appertaining to student activities are discussed and decided upon. The Council is able to veto or sanction any movement brought before it by members of the student body, as it has full power to act on all such matters.

Any dissension existing within the student organizations is brought before the Students' Council, the decision of which is final. Student activities are governed by the Council, none taking place without its ratification.

All athletics are controlled by this board of student officials, which furnishes full equipment for every branch of sport. Athletic fees are paid to the Council annually, which are to be used, at its discretion, in a manner most advantageous to the student body.

Such a governing body is absolutely essential to student life, as it stands for co-operation and rigid discipline among the students. Without the existence of this organization it would be difficult to handle matters of paramount consequence relative to the academic life of every student.

Fabius Club

OFFICERS, 1928-29

Honorary President—Prof. C. R. Fay, M.A., D.Sc.

President—J. R. M. Wilson

Vice-President—Miss S. A. M. Brett

Secretary—Miss M. T. Jackson

Treasurer—W. H. Bilbrough

Despite rumours and press reports to the contrary, the Fabius Club is not a communistic body. We have received no money from Moscow to further our programme. Nor has our treasurer spent any of the Club's funds for red flags to grace our platforms. In fact, some of us are not even socialists.

Having told the bitter truth as to what we are not, might we enlighten you as to what we are? In the words of the constitution—reproduced here because the executive fears that this document will probably suffer the fate of its species and be lost to future years. "The aim of this Club shall be to provide avenues for student discussion of current, economic and social problems." Vague, we grant you, but this we believe to be its chief merit. To put it in more precise words, we are a group of students, not content with the workings of the present industrial system and anxious to discover how it can be improved. If this be Bolshevism, then we hope all thinking Canadians are Bolsheviks.

The membership is closed; prospective vacancies being filled each spring by election. At present some forty-five men and women (nearly all in the upper years) comprise the membership, but this number will be gradually reduced to about one-half by graduations.

This, its first short year of existence, has proven fruitful. As to what lies before us—who can say? We believe that the Fabius Club is filling a definite want, in a manner in which no other organization is. Hence we look to the future with every hope and confidence.

The University of Toronto German Club

ONE of the unique organizations of the University is the German Club, which was founded some years ago, as a separate unit. Up to that time it had no independent existence, but was none the less an important element in the more comprehensive Modern Languages Society. The war-time antagonism for most things designated as German was not sufficient to exterminate the Club, which since those distant days has had an ever-increasing sphere of influence.

The aim of the German Study Club is almost sufficiently indicated in the name. Its constant wish is to become better acquainted with the character and achievements of the German nation, in art, letters, music, science and politics. Incidentally its meetings are intended to be quite sociable, and are really devoted as much to pleasure as to the pursuit of knowledge. The opportunity of speaking to those conversant in German is of equal importance with that of hearing it in lectures and plays.

The Club is in the habit of giving several plays in the course of the ordinary year, some of which are acted in costume and the others read at the regular meetings. This interest in theatricals is an excellent stimulant to those who are willing to participate, and serves a useful purpose in familiarizing students with the German drama, even though the actors' ambitions are of necessity limited to light comedy in most cases. But the possibility of branching out is always there; with more time and interest devoted to this department by students of the University the results will be more and more considerable.

The Club has been fortunate in securing an occasional German to address the members on some interesting aspect of the Vaterland or even of another European country. These speakers have been much appreciated in the past, and will, we hope, continue to grant us their assistance.

As one of the links with the civilization of old Europe we consider the German Club a significant organization. It has passed the necessity of justifying its existence, and has become a real institution in University life.

The Honour Science Club

 O that the Honour Science Club may go down in history in their true colours and show themselves to the world as they really are, the executive have elected to appear in lab. coats. Inasmuch as the flowing gown transforms the ordinary mortal into an exalted student, so does a lab. coat—acid stained and dirty as it may be—mark the true seeker after scientific knowledge. Is there a science graduate with soul so dead who has not murmured sadly over his old lab. coat:

You may shred, you may tatter the gown if you choose to,
The old lab. aroma still clings where it used to!

Yet occasionally even the most ardent scientists lay aside their working clothes and don the shimmering sheen of evening dress or the glossy black of tux and step forth to trip the light fantastic. This indeed is the aim of the Honour Science Club, to bring its members out from behind their horned-rimmed specs. and show them the great white lights, so that they may go back to their work fortified by the vision of the humanity they are endeavouring to benefit. So to start the ball rolling there was a dance in U.T.S. Hall.

Then later, after repeated petitions to the fickle gods of the weather, there was a hike.

Then came the Hallowe'en dance. There our spirits flagging after the afternoon's disastrous game were soon jazzed back into happiness and our protesting ribs jammed back into us by the vociferous crowd. But we have also a more serious side, and for those whose fancy leans that way we had several very interesting talks by our professors over a cup of tea and the odd sandwich. Then finally, with one big bang-up party to round out the season, we called it a year!

Mary Darby, Mary Trainer, Marguerite Clarke, Hilda Dunn, Audrey Carvath, Helen Merritt, Ebba Riepert
(President), Miss Laird (Honorary President), Marjorie McKechnie, Sada Fisher.

Household Science Club

THE Household Science Club entered its fifth year with the opening of the Fall Term. The aim of the Club is to promote unity and fellowship among the students and to bring before its members, through various speakers, the fields of work open to them after graduation.

The Club Executive is composed of the Honorary President, Miss A. L. Laird, with eleven members of the student body who are elected for office at the close of the preceding year.

Five meetings are held during the academic year, which include the "Freshie" party and the annual At-Home.

The introduction of monthly teas this year has added to the social interest of the Club.

The Italian-Spanish Club

OME years ago, when the Modern Languages Club deemed it expedient to disband, various societies were formed by those interested in some particular branch of Moderns. Consequently the Italian-Spanish Club came into existence, sponsored by the Department of Italian and Spanish, meeting with immediate success.

The fundamental purpose of the Club is to further the study of Italian and Spanish in the University. The avoidance of a strictly academic tone has resulted in the happy creation of an informal and friendly atmosphere from which students, professors, distinguished guests and friends may benefit. All interested in either language are afforded opportunities to converse with those to whom the language is a native tongue. The advantage of this is easily seen. Lectures are given dealing with the culture of Italy and the Spanish-speaking countries. On many subjects the Club members are enabled to obtain a wider outlook, which is greatly facilitated by an exchange of ideas with those who are from a far-off land. Some of the most talented musicians in the city have given their services, and it seems beyond dispute that no similar organization in the University has excelled the Club in this respect.

As one of its necessary functions the Club provides for dramatics, and this year again produced two Spanish plays.

The Club wishes to express its gratitude to the Department of Italian and Spanish, Señor Fernández, Señor Barranco, Maestro Carboni, Dr. and Mrs. Craigie, Miss Davidson, Miss McLaughlin and Miss Balthazard.

E. W. M. Paisley (Comm.), C. D. Blyth (Secretary-Treasurer), F. H. C. Reinke (President), F. D. Chapple (Vice-President), W. H. Martin (Comm.).

University of Toronto Liberal Club

THE University of Toronto Liberal Club as at present constituted was organized in the spring of 1924, the result of spontaneous student interest. The need was felt of an organization which would "discuss freely and openly the policies at present enacted by our governments"; which would "study the principles of true Liberalism and their application to contemporary politics"; and which would "constructively criticize present day Liberalism." In accordance with this purpose the Club's affiliation with organized party politics has been slight. Its activities rather have been in the line of informative addresses, discussions and debates.

Any male undergraduate of Liberal principles in the University is eligible for membership.

The Past Presidents of the Club are: E. S. Livermore, F. E. Neylan, B. J. Thomson.

R. W. Finlayson, H. B. Bell, W. T. Aitken (President), D. D. Gunn, B. D. Beamish.
Absent: W. A. Gilbert, H. Perkins, V. Bourke, W. D. Mathews, G. S. Cartwright.

The Macdonald-Cartier Club

THE MacDonald-Cartier Club, the Liberal-Conservative Club of the University of Toronto, was founded a number of years ago by the late Maurice Cody. It stands for principles which, as its name would indicate, have united the whole Canadian people in the constructive work of progress, and will again do so.

The MacDonald-Cartier Club has taken a large part in the university life of many recent graduates and undergraduates, for the reason that it gives scope to creative ability, besides being a meeting ground for those drawn from every faculty. One of the objects of the Founder was that this Club should be the parent club of numerous similar organizations throughout Canada. In time missions were sent spying out the land. Then the task of establishment and consolidation began. But the work of the Club would not have met with complete success unless the Conservative Party, both in the Province and in the Dominion, had given its wholehearted support. The close contact between many of the statesmen of the country and the undergraduate club makes a valuable tie. From the classical and studious retreat a glimpse is given of actual, practical life beyond.

At one of the meetings this year the Honourable Visitors were: the Prime Minister of Ontario; Rev. Canon H. J. Cody; Mr. Eric Willis, of the MacDonald-Cartier Club in Winnipeg; and William Croft, Esq. Discussion took place on many vital topics—Public Ownership, the Canadian West and its problems, the work of government. Another was a joint meeting held with the Conservative at Osgoode Hall. The Hon. R. B. Bennett has signified his intention of being the guest of the Club at a luncheon in the near future.

As a basis of criticism, nothing is taken for granted. Idea-mongering is valuable. The result may be fantastic, but it is vital. It would always seem that the Club was fashioned on the Disraelian model of development, "not for enjoyment, but for action."

The Mathematical and Physical Society

THE Mathematical and Physical Society was founded early in the history of the University of Toronto. That it has been successful in its function of bringing into contact student and professor and of providing certain social activities is evinced in its ever-growing membership.

Meetings are held on alternate Thursdays in the Physics Building. It has been the custom, after refreshments have been served, to have an outstanding man address the meeting on some subject that would prove of interest to those enrolled in the courses which form an integral part of the society. This year the executive has been fortunate in securing members of the faculty, not only from our own but from allied departments. Indeed, as the president remarked in introducing our distinguished guest, we were "distinctly happy and pardonably proud" to welcome a graduate in Mathematics from this University who had become the First Man of the Nation.

We have always had the reputation of being exceedingly well organized, and this year proved no exception. Early in the Fall term the members of the higher years, assisted by many graduates, welcomed the incoming freshman year at the Fall Hike. The annual dance held at the Women's Union was voted by all "the best ever". Once again the Skating Party was over all too soon. Interest was maintained throughout the year, with the annual meeting drawing the curtain for the year's activities before the "elimination and endurance" contests of May.

University of Toronto Menorah Society

THE University of Toronto Menorah Society was founded in the year 1916, practically absorbing the Toronto Hebrew Students' Association, which had been organized some years previous. It is the local chapter of the Intercollegiate Menorah Association, founded, as the Menorah crest indicates, "For the study and advancement of Jewish culture and ideals," and except for a few social functions all efforts of Menorah are bent in this direction.

The Menorah Society furthers its purpose through study circles which meet under capable leaders, through lectures on relevant subjects by authoritative lecturers, through debates, both local and intercollegiate, and through "The Menorah Mentor," a magazine published locally by the members of the Society. It endeavours to promote open-minded discussion of Jewish life and thought, past, present and future, that its members may arrive at intelligent opinions and convictions, and may be prepared for intelligent participation in the solution of Jewish problems, although no particular point of view, whatever, is imposed. It maintains a splendid section at the University Library and makes available to its members the "Menorah Journal," a cultural magazine of the highest type. And through its efforts, the Menorah Prize, the gift of B. M. Greene, Esq., is offered for competition to all undergraduates.

The literary programme, this session, following the form adopted last year, has consisted of alternating "open" and "closed" meetings, at fortnightly intervals. The open meetings, open to all undergraduates, graduates, and the public in general, have been occupied with lecturers of sufficient merit. The closed meetings, available to undergraduates and graduates only, have taken the form of debates, Hart House style, upon subjects of Jewish interest. In addition the members are staging a play, which will be accompanied by a lecture on Jewish drama. Then there is the annual debate with McGill, the victors, being awarded the "Bennett Cup," won last year by Toronto. Of course, there is sufficient social activity, the smoker, teas, soirée and dance, being annual events.

Newman Club

NEWMAN CLUB, a club for Catholic students in attendance at the University and the other institutions of higher learning in the city, was founded by His Grace Archbishop McNeill, D.D., in 1913. The idea back of the Newman Club, to provide for the spiritual, intellectual and social needs of Catholic students, both men and women, had proved its value in several American Universities some years before its inception in Toronto.

Beginning with a small membership and a modest club house, the idea immediately showed its value by filling a great need. No better demonstration of its worth could be found than the rapid expansion which necessitated a move into a larger house. Here in Toronto we have a building of which we are justifiably proud. It is probably unexcelled by any institution of its kind. The Gothic chapel, recently completed, is one of the architectural beauties of the locality. The chapel represents the culmination of years of work by successive executives, the unflagging enthusiasm of the Paulist chaplains, and the generous interest of many prominent Catholics in the city.

The spiritual life of the student is well directed by the resident chaplain through the frequent religious exercises which are conducted during the academic year. The intellectual interests are fostered by debates, public speaking contests, dramatics, and addresses from members of the University staff. The social life of the Club is one of its most pleasing features. Dances, teas, smokers and other soirées take place with agreeable frequency, giving the members an opportunity for congenial associations which they would not otherwise obtain.

This year the Club has enjoyed one of its best years. An energetic and capable executive has worked with an enthusiastic membership to ensure the success of every undertaking.

Berenice Venini (Loretto), Nora Doran (U.C., Secretary), Mary Coleman (Vic., President), Margaret Rae (St. Hilda's).
Absent: Miss A. H. G. Macdonald, M.A. (Honorary President).

The Polity Club

THE Polity Club is one of the few women's organizations which includes members from the different Arts Colleges within the University. Sponsored by Miss Margery Reid of the History Department, it came into being in the winter of 1923-1924, to give to women the opportunity of discussing current economical and political issues. Originally it was an invitation group, restricted to members of the third and fourth years, but it has since been opened to all years, still with a definite membership limit.

The meetings, held every other Wednesday evening, in one of the colleges, usually are in the nature of a discussion, initiated by two formal papers. Once a year an outside speaker, frequently an authority on a current question, addresses an open meeting. This year the topics discussed have included: The British General Election, Social Insurance, the St. Lawrence Waterways, Self-government in India; and Professor W. P. M. Kennedy spoke to the Club on the national status of married women.

The executive is composed of one member from each college or faculty represented in the Club. This year Miss A. H. G. Macdonald, M.A., of the Department of Law, has accepted the honorary-presidency, and this interest on the part of a member of the staff has given new vigour to the Club.

The Student Christian Association

THE Student Christian Association of the University of Toronto is a fellowship of students of all colleges and faculties in the University who are drawn together by a common desire not only to maintain and develop their religious life during their undergraduate career, but also to investigate and discuss the intellectual and practical problems of Christianity. It is, accordingly, open to any undergraduate who is at all interested in religion or in questions related to it. No confession of faith is asked for; not the least part of the value of the Association being the opportunity it affords to individuals of searching for Truth in company with others engaged in the same task. To this end, one of the main activities of the Association is the arrangement of Study and Discussion Groups in all faculties under competent leadership, and covering a wide range of subjects.

Another important element in the programme of the S.C.A. is the series of addresses by prominent speakers that is arranged for each term, and the occasional noon-hour talks by outstanding visitors to the city. In addition, services are held in Hart House Chapel, and from time to time in one or other of the College chapels, for both men and women.

Each College and Faculty in the University has its own local association, and the men's and women's Cabinets respectively are comprised of the Presidents of the local units together with an executive committee.

The Headquarters of the Men are in Hart House (Rev. F. J. Moore), and of the women in the Household Science Building (Miss Mary Rowell).

The Student Christian Association of the University of Toronto is itself a unit in the Student Christian Movement of Canada.

Women's Council of the S.C.A.

THE Student Christian Movement is a fellowship of students based on the conviction that in Jesus Christ are found the supreme revelation of God and the means to the full realization of life. The Movement seeks through study, prayer, service and other means to understand and follow Jesus Christ and to unite in its fellowship all students in the colleges of Canada who share the above conviction, together with all students who are willing to test the truth of the conviction upon which the Movement is founded.

The Women's Council links together the five local units of the S.C.A. in the University, namely, in Victoria, University and St. Hilda's Colleges and the Medical and Social Service Faculties. It also has a representative from the Ontario College of Education, the undergraduate nurses of Western Hospital, and the Student Volunteer Union.

Its object is to serve as an Advisory Board to the various units and to co-ordinate their work. It tries to foster interest and to initiate activities wherever the need arises. It serves as the link co-operating with the men's S.C.A. Cabinet, the Canadian Student Christian Movement and the World's Student Christian Federation.

The Council sponsors University activities in which all the units join—chief among which have been this year: a week-end conference at the beginning of the fall term, a reunion supper party for all former Y.W.C.A. High School girls, and another for all C.G.I.T. girls, a Christmas party given in honour of the women students from other countries, and a reception for University students and senior friends of the S.C.A.

This year the Council is especially emphasizing a study of the aim and basis of the Association with a view to helping students more fully to realize the significance and purpose of the organization.

U.C. Women's S.C.A.

THE Women Student's Christian Association of University College is an integral part of the Canadian Student Christian Movement and as such of the World Student Christian Federation. Through the national office in Toronto, and through many private contacts, it maintains a connection with other units, especially in the neighbouring universities, but its work is naturally centred in University College.

This year has been a very busy one. To deal first with mundane matters a personal canvass was made of the women in the college with the result that the budget of two hundred dollars was raised. The Executive is very grateful to the group of girls who assisted in the canvass and thereby helped to make the financial campaign a success.

Study groups were conducted on a variety of subjects, and this year an attempt was made to co-ordinate these subjects with each other and with the work of the Movement as a whole. To this end the second series of noon-hour addresses was given by the group leaders, who, as well as tracing the relationship between their subjects and the Movement, gave an opportunity for students who were not members of groups to learn what was being discussed. We were fortunate in having such leaders as Dr. Taylor, Dr. Pidgeon, Professor MacKenzie, Dr. Ford, Mr. Lismer and Mr. Atkinson, and members of all groups were enthusiastic about their leaders and the work they were doing.

An innovation was made this year when the Annual Meeting was held. It took the form of a supper meeting and reports were given on the year's activities. Mrs. Adelaide Plumptre was the special speaker.

As the spring draws near the Executive is busy making plans to have University College well represented at the Elgin House Conference. It is hoped that every member of the new Executive will be there so that the work in October may be begun with enthusiasm.

Standing: Miss C. M. Gray (Secretary), F. W. Burton (Treasurer), Miss C. T. Shiell (Vice-President).

U.C. Classical Association

HE University College Classical Association belies the highly intellectual sound of its name and refuses to accept Horace's dictum—"Odi profanum vulgus et arceo." Anyone, provided he is interested in the more human side of the Greeks and Romans, is welcomed within its ranks, no matter what his course.

This society enjoys the enviable distinction of being the guests of the staff in Classics, one by one, at their homes. In addition to fostering a friendly spirit between professors and students, this fortunate circumstance relieves the executive of any pecuniary worries—a unique situation in the career of executives.

Of the six meetings held during the college term, each year is responsible for one, and the staff for the remaining two. This Fall the fourth year introduced an innovation when they presented a one-act play. Otherwise the entertainment provided has been the reading of illuminating and yet interesting papers.

It can be truthfully said, and, since truthfully, with modesty, that no organization affords its members more profitable enjoyment. The Association, with professors mellowed by delicious refreshments, the companionship of classmates freed from the inhibitions of the lecture room, and a paper on some classical subject, are conducive both to intellectual stimulus and that indefinable something—"college spirit".

The French Society of University College

THE French Society under the able presidency of Miss Madeline Lake has enjoyed a very flourishing season. The active interest of the members has been evident in the very good attendance at the meetings and in the warm applause of the interesting talks given by Mademoiselle Juge and Mr. Finch and of the numerous musical selections which formed part of the programme.

As their annual production the Society presented two plays entitled "La Joie fait peur" by Mme. de Girardin and "Le Serment d'Horace" by Murger. The auditorium of the Women's Union was filled and both plays were very amusing. They were very effectively directed by M. de Champ and Mr. Finch.

As usual, the folk songs, the games and the refreshments were very much appreciated. By means of them the members were able to mingle in a friendly way and exercise their French.

U.C. Women's Literary Society

HE Women's Literary Society was at one time a very comprehensive organization. It included the business of student government and the debating society as well as its purely literary activity. To-day its only work is to create interest in past and contemporary writing.

Last year the Society discussed the modern novel with examples representative of the various nations. This year papers were given which made a survey of the minor poets from Blake and Rossetti to Whitman and Yeats.

After the paper has been read in a meeting, there is an interval of open discussion. Refreshments then are served and coffee, "which makes the politician wise," never fails to have a stimulating effect.

Victoria College Student Christian Movement

THE S.C.M. of Victoria College is an integral part of the Student Christian Association of Toronto, and through it a part of the Student Christian Movement of Canada, a unit of the World Student Christian Federation.

It exists that students may find fellowship and assistance in their pursuit of life, truth, beauty—call it what you will.

Study, worship and service are included in its programme.

Much interest has been shown in the Open Forums which have been added this year as a supplement to the discussion groups. Those who heard Rabbi Isserman on "Judaism and Christianity," Dr. Taylor on "Modernism" and Mr. J. S. Woodsworth on "Labour and Capital" refer to these as a very important phase of the S.C.M. activities. In addition to these Dr. Sedgwick gave a series of four noon hour talks on "Beliefs that Matter." In January Dr. Ernest Thomas also conducted a mixed group, discussing "Jesus and Life."

The regular study groups for both men and women were carried on throughout the year.

In co-operation with the central cabinet, a service of worship led by Dr. Davidson was held in the Chapel Sunday, November 18th.

This varied programme has been an attempt to meet the needs of the students in their search for truth.

The Victoria College French Club

THE inauguration of the Victoria College French Club in October, 1928, evidently supplied a long-felt want among the students of that faculty since it met with a most enthusiastic response, numbering already about sixty members. Mr. Donald Cormack, to whose initiative is due the organization of the society, was elected as its first president, and the Club was most fortunate in securing Professor Ford as its honorary president.

The aim of the Club is, according to its constitution, "to promote and facilitate the study of French history, language and literature among the student body, and to encourage particularly the speaking of French, in order to assist in making possible a better mutual understanding between the French-speaking and English-speaking parts of the Dominion." Seven regular meetings are to be held during each session, of which not more than two may be conducted in English.

Three well-attended meetings have already been held during the Fall term. At the first, Professor Ford delivered a most interesting address on the characteristic traits of French-Canadian literature. Professor Lasserre, the speaker of the second meeting, gave us a delightful talk on "Crainqueville, a typical conte of Anatole France", while at the third meeting we were privileged to hear a most interesting and instructive lecture by Professor de Champ on "La Provence". Interesting features of all the meetings have been the French songs and games under the leadership of Miss Cook. The serving of refreshments has been also, no doubt, a decided attraction.

The Victoria College Music Club

AND now comes Iolanthe! who, from her daily exile, has come to our call. Last year "Twas in the merry month of January, when bees don't buzz in great quandary," that "Merrie England" held her sway. Their conductor, Mr. Thos. J. Crawford, and the executive, deserve great credit for the way in which things were handled; and the crown of glory has been worn very comely again, by Mr. Packham, to carry us successfully through another year.

Every year the Music Club has produced some opera, and this year Iolanthe. The very word spells beauty and mystery! One of the most screamingly funny and exquisitely beautiful of the Gilbert and Sullivan Operas ever written. With Mr. Crawford's direction, and the careful guidance of the executive, we are promised great success.

Nor is the life of the Club all work! Everyone looks forward to the production with as much anticipation as he did to the Annual Christmas Concert. And what fun behind scenes! We all have enough of our savage ancestral instinct remaining in us to enjoy making up. Besides all this, we do enjoy performing at an occasional chapel service or party.

There is no doubt that this year's Music Club will always be remembered by the twinkling fairies, the gorgeous stately peers, the humorous Fairy Queen, the fussy old Chancellor, the beautiful romance between Phyllis and Stephen, to say nothing of the beautiful Iolanthe, and will be a "thing of beauty and a joy forever," in the minds of all its hearers.

The Trinity College Science Club

THE Trinity College Science Club was founded by Mr. David A. Keys, Mr. F. M. Turner and Professor Simpson, who realized the deep interest taken in Science by the students of the College, an interest which is reflected in the fact that many of these students have made a name for themselves in the scientific world—both academic and industrial. Among these may be mentioned the names of L. V. Redman, discoverer of redmanol; G. H. Tomlinson, who developed a process for carbide manufacture; and Dr. B. Collip of McGill University, who was associated with Professor Macleod, Dr. Banting and Dr. Best in the development and assaying of insulin.

The Great War interrupted the continuity of the Club, but in 1919 it was re-established and since that time has flourished, a fact, in no small measure, due to the interest of Canon Rollo.

The Club meets once a fortnight during the College term in a student's room. The membership is limited. Each member acts as host to the Club once a year. Papers from all branches of Science are read and the ensuing discussions always prove very interesting. Refreshments are served during the discussion to complete the evening's programme.

Once a year an Open Meeting is held, to which, as the name implies, every one is welcome. Some prominent person in one of the various branches of Science is chosen each year to address this meeting.

St. Michael's College Oratorical Club

THE changing fortunes of life are admirably illustrated in the history of most college organizations. For one year a club may bask in the sunshine of popular esteem, exciting the enthusiastic interests of its members; and in the next it may die a natural death, with only a memory remaining. But through all the vicissitudes of its now lengthy history, the Oratorical Club of St. Michael's College has survived the changing whimsy of student favour, and still retains its original hold on the loyalties of its members. Every year our ranks are depleted by graduation, yet every year an enthusiastic body of recruits are moulded by the survivors in the noble traditions of an historic club.

The sole aim of the Oratorical Club is to cultivate in its members their latent oratorical talent. They are, therefore, accorded complete freedom in the choice of subjects for their speeches. All discussion of a purely controversial nature is suppressed as inimical to the interests and ideals of the organization; and criticism from the floor is confined for the most part to the style and form of the speech delivered.

For the past year the Club decided to restore its membership, temporarily increased to twenty, to the original number of fifteen; and this has been found to foster a more intimate acquaintance amongst the members, and to permit of greater opportunities for individual self-expression.

Some idea of the effectiveness of the work done by this Club may be gathered from the fact that for several years past members of the Oratorical Club have won the Harris Gold Medal, a prize donated for excellence in oratory and awarded upon the result of an open competition among all students of St. Michael's. Maurice King was the winner in 1928.

The Executive for the past year was as follows:: President, Joseph Ord; Vice-President, E. C. Sammons; Secretary, T. V. Kennedy.

St. Michael's College Quindecim

THE Quindecim of St. Michael's College is an undergraduate organization dedicated to the proposition that university students should take an intelligent interest in questions of public concern. It was founded in the spring of 1923 to afford its members an opportunity to discuss such questions in a calm and dispassionate manner, generally impossible in the heated atmosphere of a student's parliament or debating society. Since then it has grown in influence and prestige by pursuing the aims and ideals of its founders.

Although the procedure of the club has been left purposely informal, the policy of inviting prominent authorities in various fields to attend our meetings and lead the discussion has been consistently pursued.

During the past year we have been fortunate in securing as our guests a number of distinguished men. Dean DeLury, who is known throughout the University as a man of deep and original thought, led a most thought-provoking discussion on the development of national self-consciousness in Canada. At a later meeting Professor Fay of the Department of Political Science read a scholarly paper entitled "Empires Ancient and Modern" in which he compared and contrasted various features of the development of the Roman and British Empires.

The activities of the current year were opened in November at a dinner held in Hart House attended by members past and present. Professor Gilbert Jackson of Baldwin House led in an entertaining and thoughtful discussion of Canada's immigration problems. Plans are already under way for a further series of meetings as the year progresses.

One evidence of the prestige which the Quindecim enjoys is afforded by the readiness with which public men accept invitations to attend our meetings. It is also to be noted that former members of the Club are always glad of an opportunity to return to our midst on the occasion of an important session.

Loretto College Literary Society

EACH year the Literary Society continues to build up its reputation for cultural and interesting entertainments. This year, we feel that it has achieved its aims to the fullest extent, and has created a worthy precedent.

College oratory has always been developed through the debates organized by the "Lit." This year the open-house system has been adopted in the debates for the inter-year debating shield.

The second term is devoted to dramatics. Each class is required to present a short play before the Society.

At the beginning of the term Father McCorkell delighted the Society with a very interesting address on Chesterton's "Ballad of the White Horse."

Thus the Literary Society has been carrying out its threefold aim of encouraging good literature, debating, and dramatics among the students of the College.

A. Quinlan, G. O'Malley, J. Gauthier, L. Driscoll (President).

St. Joseph's College Literary Society

THE aims of a literary society are high—it seeks to confer on its members benefits of no finite quality, the benefit of instruction in one of the greatest of the fine arts, the benefit of furnishing examples which inspire and incite to imitation, and the benefit of offering encouragement and scope for practice to all aspirants who would fain wear the laurel-crown, envied gift of the Muses. With such benefits within our reach, it has rested with us alone to make each year of membership outstanding in our education.

During the session of 1928-29 a glance of retrospect reveals, along with an "ensemble" of general enjoyment, a few outstanding beacon-lights of inspiration. In the Michaelmas Term an address by Reverend Monsignor Morton, graduate of London (England) University and a noted lecturer and master of literary expression, discussed a subject of universal interest—that intangible something, called "Personality". How convincingly did he prove to us that this quality is best defined as "the art of being one's self, subject to one's will, when that will is master in his own house".

During the Easter Term our addresses combined beauty of language and expression with instruction, and especially after our talk from Miss Stuart on "Electricity Modernized" did we find ourselves "wiser but no sadder." A talk from Rev. Dr. O'Reilly on his favourite subject "Lourdes", and one from Rev. Father Carroll on "Palestine—Jaffa to Jerusalem", informed as they were with the enthusiasm and vision of their narrators, revealed to us a world of picture and interest, alluring and devotional. We have yet to look forward to an address from our esteemed Dr. Gertrude Lawler, M.A., LL.D., before we write "Finis" to our sessions—a fitting close to a most successful year.

Medical Women's Undergraduate Association

WENTY-TWO years ago the Society, which is now known as the Medical Women's Undergraduate Association, was organized. In the constitution its object was stated as the unification and control of the interests of women undergraduates in Medicine, and since its inception the Society has extended its influence in many fields both academic and extra-mural.

Among the Society's various activities are the informal monthly meetings made interesting and entertaining by addresses from distinguished graduates; the Faculty Tea, which is the Association's official At-Home; the annual Hike; the Girls' Skit in Daffydil and the Daffydil Banquet.

Members of the Association form the S.C.A.; and the Athletic Society with its basketball, tennis, swimming and hockey teams.

Medical At-Home

UNDER the direction of an able committee, headed by S. V. Railton, '29, the Senior Medical At-Home, held on Friday, February 1st, was a brilliant party possessed of formal dignity.

For the first time in several years the affair was held in Hart House. Although many, before the party, expressed a preference for a more stately ball-room than the honoured gymnasium, yet, when the dance was ended not one felt that a better time could have been held elsewhere.

Appropriate decorations in the faculty colours transformed the big gymnasium into a pretty bower, while brilliant lights from above gave the impression that the revellers danced in a rainbow. The orchestra, one of Toronto's best, rendered its syncopations from a stately stage draped in grey and black velvet.

Supper, served in the Great Hall, was a tasty repast, the best that Hart House could provide. In the following dances the battle of puff balls and novelty streamers, and the throwing of serpentine created a scene of hilarity and abandon long to be remembered.

Representatives from sister universities were present and the patronesses were: Lady Falconer, Mrs. E. S. Ryerson, Mrs. W. Scott and Mrs. W. E. Gallie.

The Civil Club

WITH the close of this academic year a baker's dozen of aspirants to the Civil Profession will pass from this abode of learning with the graduating class.

It is with genuine regret that we leave the institution where for the last four years we have been tutored in the fundamentals of the Engineering profession.

The advantages gained have been by no means purely educational. The friendships and connections formed here will go with us even after we have left the "Old School". In this regard the Civils and Miners are more favoured than their fellow departments. The summer spent at Gull Lake, between second and third years, fosters closer friendship and more intimate companionship than is to be found during the regular school term.

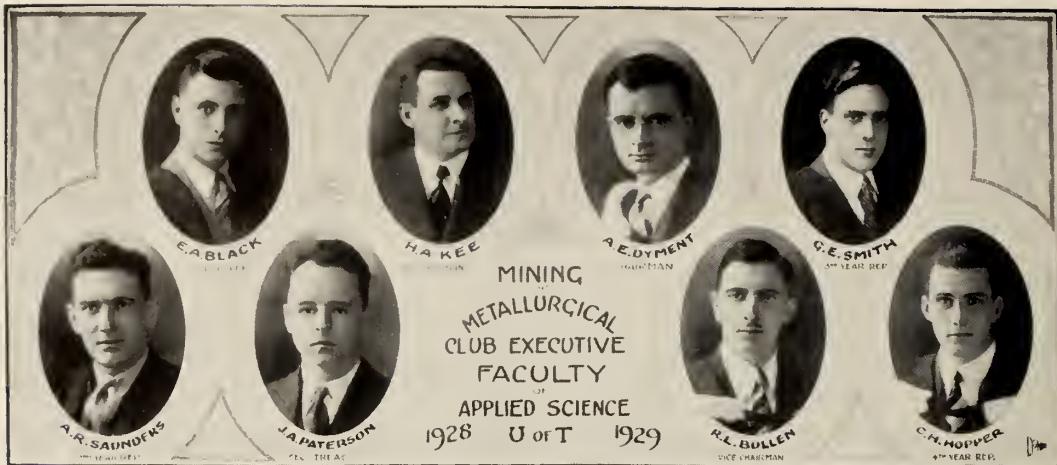

During the last few years the registration in our department has fallen off considerably. At present we form, roughly, about twelve per cent. of the total roll of the Faculty, whose total enrolment was, in the early days, entirely of Miners and Civils.

This small number is not alarming. We are confident that it is fully balanced by the quality of the men.

Prospects for the Civil Engineer are at present very promising. This augurs well for the success of this and succeeding graduating classes.

To our Dean and Professors we owe a word of thanks. They have laboured faithfully and unstintingly to obtain results which, we concede, were at times anything but promising.

May prosperity attend our affiliated clubs and the Engineering Society, of which we form a part.

The Mining and Metallurgical Club

THE increasing registration in the departments of mining and metallurgy of this faculty is ample evidence of the attention which these great national industries are attracting. The registration of our first year is about four times that of our fourth year, showing that young men in greatly increased numbers recognize the great potential wealth of our north country, and realize the possibilities which the future holds for those engaged in these professions.

It is one of the objects of the M. & M. Club to give its members the opportunity of meeting and becoming acquainted with some of the men who have taken a leading part in the development of Canada's great mineral resources. This was brought about by means of the various dinners held throughout the year at which the Club was addressed by some of the industries' most prominent men.

The Club was most fortunate in having as its Honorary Chairman for this year Mr. H. A. Kee, a man who has accomplished a great deal in the field of mining engineering.

The executive wishes to take this opportunity of extending its warmest appreciation and heartiest thanks to the various speakers who have addressed the Club this year with some most interesting and instructive talks. The same tokens of esteem are due to Mr. Kee, who was of great assistance to the executive in securing as speakers for the Club some of the professions' most prominent and outstanding men.

The Mechanical and Electrical Club

ANY years ago, when School was younger than she is to-day, some energetic Schoolmen founded the Mechanical and Electrical Club. That was in 1907, when mechanical and electrical engineering were but one course. For years this Club flourished and prospered. It fulfilled its twofold purpose—to promote good fellowship amongst its members and to assist the spread of engineering knowledge by holding lecture meetings and discussions.

"The old order changeth, yielding place to new"—to-day sees the passing of the M. and E. Club. It passes but it does not die, it divides. It has grown too big, too difficult to manage, and has at last split into two parts. No longer need the members playfully quarrel as to whether it is the "M. and E. Club" or the "E. and M. Club" for in its place there shall be an "E." Club and an "M" Club.

The activities of its last year were important. There was the annual Fourth Year trip to Queenston, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, even those who left their hats and pipes behind in the lake. Shortly afterwards came the trip to Hamilton by all four years to visit the two large plants of the Westinghouse and the Steel Company. We were honoured on that occasion with the presence of Dean Mitchell, who was kept busy guiding the frosh. The Fourth Year Mechanicals had an instructive visit to the Goodyear plant to see why tires are made, and how. After Christmas a smoker was held at Hart House and we learned of industrial control from one of our grads, Mr. Gordon Turnbull. Last but not least of the year's activities was the division into two separate clubs.

We hope that our twin offspring will carry on the good work of the old club, that they will independently flourish and that they will fill full their pages in the history of our beloved School.

Architectural Club

ANOTHER School year has come and gone, leaving behind it for some, fond memories of a University life now completed, while for others it means but a further stride towards their chosen objective. It is just such a mixture of varied feelings that is to be found among the members of our Club, of whom and for whom we speak.

The first activities of particular interest were the customary sketching trips. The weatherman has much to do with the success or failure of these trips, and to overcome this to a degree another plan is under consideration for next year. These trips are held under the direction and guidance of Mr. C. W. Jefferies, well-known Canadian artist, and much credit is due him for the success of this training.

The opening meeting of the year was held at a downtown hotel and proved to be a marked success. Our new Honorary Chairman, Mr. Allan George, spoke a few words, in which he professed a sincere interest in the welfare of the Club. After his address the usual initiation stunts and skits were administered to the Freshmen, to the amusement and entertainment of all present, with the possible exception of the Frosh.

Other meetings were held in the studio of the department, the subjects being those closely related to our profession. At the conclusion of such meetings it is our custom to serve tea.

Incidents which amuse and entertain never fail to crop up in the drafting room, and this year they were frequent. The boys' style, however, was cramped by the ever-present danger of a feminine face appearing, perhaps framed in Titian locks. The year's work, on the whole, was enjoyable if such may be said of any school work.

The Industrial Chemical Club

HE Industrial Chemical Club, as one of the federated clubs embodied in the Engineering Society, is the official organization representing the undergraduates of the Department of Chemical Engineering.

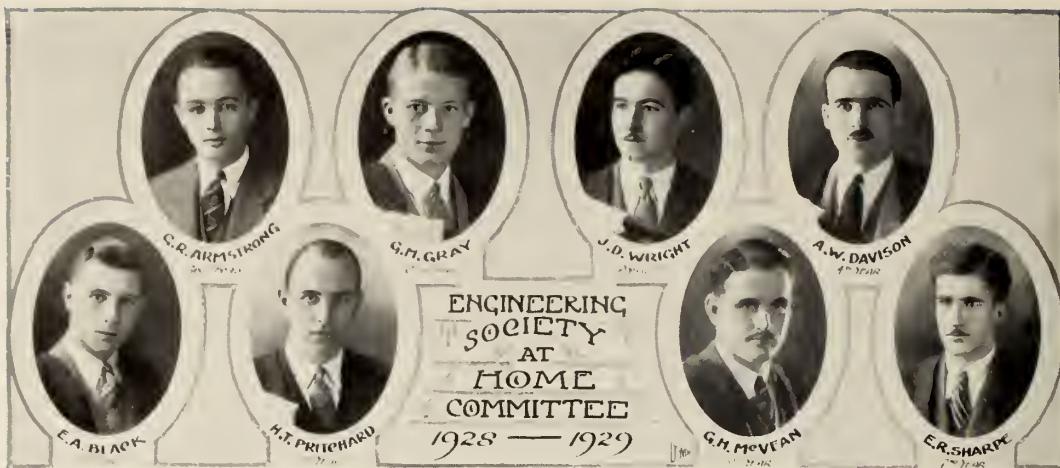

Organized in 1908-1909 the Club endeavours to advance the interests and to foster the personal contact and social activities of the students.

Under its guiding hand trips to industrial plants, both within and without the city, are arranged each year. These trips give a practical conception of the application of chemistry to industry and provide an opportunity of obtaining first hand knowledge of the machinery used and methods of handling production which is otherwise difficult to acquire.

Such trips also contain a social aspect which must not be overlooked. Who will forget the delightful harmonies provided by the fourth year whose musical ability was an unknown quantity until the Club made its annual trip to Longford.

At the meetings of the Club, which occur at least once a month, and which take the form of smokers, papers are read by graduates, men prominent in various industries or by the students themselves. In this manner, the student members learn much from the experience of the graduates who address them, gain a greater conception of the scope of the field which they are entering and some idea of the opportunities which it affords.

Now another year has become history and a new class of embryo Chemical Engineers are thrust into the world to uphold the honour and traditions of our University and our "School." May every success be theirs; may they enjoy a life of happiness and prosperity, and may they ever be an honour and a credit to the profession they have chosen.

The School At-Home

BEST party in years," "the snappiest At-Home I ever attended," "the acme of perfection," and so on ad infinitum were a few of the flattering comments made about the premier function of the year, by those fortunate enough to be present to take part in the revels. The unanimous consensus of opinion seemed to be that our At-Home, this year, was one long to be remembered in the annals of time.

Lectures and labs. were forgotten; cares were cast aside; even the horror of approaching exams was given but slight accommodation in the minds of the undergrads as three hundred couples tripped the light fantastic to the braying trumpets, the sobbing of saxophones, the tinkling of pianos and the sighing of violins. The ballroom was magically transformed into a veritable crater of human activity. Its beauty was enhanced by an artistic scheme of decorations dedicated to the glory of "School."

Supper in the Main and Pickwick dining rooms was attended by much frivolity and a delightful repast. The participants gave vent to their enthusiasm by accompanying the orchestra to the melodious strains of the "Psalm of Life," a resounding "Toike Oike" echoed through the halls and corridors of the main floor and then—back to the ballroom and more festivities.

At supper the party was just getting warmed up and, to silence the zealous acclamations of the gay revellers, the party was continued at once. Next morning the School At-Home was but a pleasant memory. School men are sustaining themselves in their labours with the consolation that next year's At-Home is but a twelve month away.

The School Dinner

FOR the 39th time Schoolmen and their professors met on common ground or, more correctly, in a common hall, and here again we correct ourselves for the Great Hall at Hart House is no "common" hall. However, needless to say they did meet. The occasion was the Annual School Dinner—the traditional annual affair and, like every preceding dinner, it had traditions of excellence to live up to. It had to aim at a high mark of achievement. To attest that that tradition was not broken, and that it was an achievement, there are the one hundred and fifty that were there.

To further the claim that Schoolmen are not only big silent do-ers but that eloquence does burst forth on occasion, several undergraduates composed part of the toast list.

Jack Wright, the Society's President, acted as Master of Ceremonies, and very ably did he do so. Following the toast to the King, Doug McRae did, in literary parlance, very ably propose the toast to the University, which was replied to by Sir Robert Falconer. We always maintain that Sir Robert's rhetoric and personality add charm to any dinner and this was no exception. Nate Adams had some kind words for the faculty, and our genial Dean replied "fittingly"—as they say in the press—and those who were there will remember his illustrative experiment worked perfectly. That grand old profession was then flouted by Harry Pritchard and the reply came from one who should know, one who is prominent in the engineering world and a past president of the Society, Mr. W. A. Osborne. "Gummy," surnamed Rochester, had some flattering remarks for our sister societies, and the representatives from McGill, Queen's, R.M.C. and O.A.C. came right back and said their respective "pieces" most interestingly.

The inimitable Prof. Loudon, after he had unburdened his chest of a couple of good stories, made presentations to each member of the successful School Rowing Crew, which demonstrated its ability earlier in the season.

Then came the grand climax. We were fortunate indeed in being able to get the Hon. Mr. Justice W. R. Riddell, K.C., B.Sc., LL.D., D.C.L., to speak to us. After hearing it all, I think speech is not descriptive enough. His was an address of the first water. One could expound at length the merits of that address, but why should we? Those that were there heard it and those that weren't—well they missed something. And incidentally His Lordship is the oldest living engineering graduate in Canada.

It was a fine dinner. Again I say, ask any man who was there. No small atom of credit is due to those men behind the guns.

The W.H.E.E. Society

*Hydro-Electric, culture and technique,
Two-Tee-Nine Whee Boys, Whoopie! how hectic.*

MONG the students of Electrical Engineering who desired to specialize in Hydraulics there has been an insistent demand for some form of Hydro-Electric Society. It was felt that while efficiency, knowledge and technique might be acquired from academic work, the development of character, judgment and understanding of men could come only from fellowship and interchange of ideas. Accordingly, in November, 1928, the W.H.E.E. Society was formed and since its inception the membership has grown to such an extent that its influence is felt wherever good Schoolmen get together.

The Constitution of the Society has never been divulged, and it has been considered necessary to keep most of its activities and pursuits secret from the other Engineering options. "Sparks", the Radio Boys tried to tune in on the secrets without success; the Thermodynamics "Plumbers" never could plumb its depths; "Blinx" the Illuminating option were kept in darkness and "Stinx" the Electrochemicals were so busy with the twonk-hook that they never scented a single secret.

The members of the Society are conspicuous around School because of a marked propensity for giving voice to the "whee!" of the Mulberry-bush song which is the official song of the Society and forms the basis of the secret salute. To make provision for the carrying-out of a very extensive programme a large and energetic executive was appointed in a novel manner. Under their able leadership the Society has amply justified the faith and foresight of the originators and will inevitably continue to wield a powerful influence in the field of Hydro-Electrical Engineering.

Royal Dental Society

HIS is an undergraduate society of the Faculty of Dentistry, the chief aim of which is to further the interests of the students in university and public affairs.

There is annual inter-year debating for the honour of holding the Willmott Shield. This will be decided at the February meeting.

This year the Faculty has presented a new cup, the Cummer Cup, for inter-year musical competition, and this was won by the Fourth Year. This cup will also be competed for yearly. The interest in the R.D.S. was in evidence at the meeting in December, when seating accommodation in Lecture Room "B" was taxed to the limit. Several good speakers were on hand and a snappy dance followed. Everyone had a good time.

Dental At-Home

THE Dental Hallowe'en Hop was held at Columbus Hall, where the boys from the "Tooth Factory" joined in a night of revelry amid gay decorations, peppy music and the usual conglomeration of novelties. At intermissions a youthful smartly clad Venus nimbly capered to and fro receiving the attention of all.

The Annual "At-Home" was a synchronized mass of music, syncopating feet, laughter, favours, novelties and eats. The King Edward was the scene of this party.

Each year representative has staged at least one class dance, all of which have been real successes.

Just now all the Fifth Year is looking forward to our graduation dance, which will be the farewell social gathering of the year, and should be the "best ever" as the Treasurer reports that the coffers are overflowing.

Wycliffe College Students' Mission Society

WYCLIFFE COLLEGE is the one Theological College on the Campus with a Mission Society which is under student direction. The Society embraces in its membership all the students of the College. Its purpose is to deal with the requests which come in from Anglican clergymen either for regular assistance or for the occasional pulpit supply. Furthermore, during the winter months the Society has borne the responsibility of four country parishes, while during the summer vacation approximately forty per cent. of its members have been engaged in mission work.

On the occasion of the Annual Meeting this year, the Society was fortunate in having Rev. Professor T. W. Isherwood, M.A., as special speaker. His address was an illustrated travelogue of a trip made during the summer of 1928 visiting Wycliffe graduates settled in parishes west of Toronto as far as Vancouver and the Yukon.

This College session will be remembered in the history of the Society by the endeavour which has been made to extend the work to one or two churches which are not open during the winter months. With this in view, special effort has been made to raise funds, and consultations have been held with the Church authorities. However, though the financial campaign was successful, decisive arrangements have not yet been made for the commencement of the work.

Literary and Debates Committee

DURING the academic year 1927-28 the Literary and Debates Committee of the University, on account of the poor attendance at University debates, decided not to arrange for any debates with other universities. The Literary and Debates Committee this year determined to resume the practice, however, and invitations were accepted from Pittsburgh and Marquette Universities to entertain and debate with a team from each of these places. Provision was also made for a third team of debaters representing the Western Division of the National Federation of Canadian University Students. This team arrived on schedule time, and met with a team of three debaters representing the University of Toronto. The debate on the subject, "Resolved that this house is opposed to all forms of censorship," was of a very high standard, and although our team was defeated, it was by no means disgraced, the vote of the House being 70 to 68.

At the time of going to press we are making final arrangements for the visit of the Pittsburg team, which is reputed to be a particularly strong one. Those selected to do battle in the name of our University are Messrs. A. H. Arrell, L. M. Gelber, and M. T. dePencier. The subject for debate is, "Resolved that modern advertising is socially and economically harmful to society."

The Committee responsible for debating this year would go on record as favouring the practice within the University. Inter-university and inter-collegiate debates should be continued; and interest in them can, and will be, aroused if the Parliamentary system is adhered to and speeches from the floor of the House are encouraged.

The Women's Intercollegiate Debating Union

ON November 26th representatives of McGill, Queen's and Toronto met in the Women's Intercollegiate Debate. The subject of the debate was, "That this House is of the opinion that the open door policy of immigration is conducive to the most desirable development of a new country." Miss Louise McMillan and Miss Clara Gray upheld the motion against McGill in Toronto, while Miss Eleanor Clarke and Miss Mary Winspear spoke in opposition to the motion at Queen's. The trophy was again captured by McGill.

A series of Interfaculty Debates has been arranged for the Easter term. The first of these is on February 4th, and the motion before the House is that "Man has a one-track mind." Miss Margaret Spurr of Trinity College, Miss Mae Rousselle of St. Michael's College, Miss Helen Price of Victoria College and Miss Rhoda Howe of University College will speak on the paper. An innovation is the extending of invitations to thirty men to be guests of the House at this debate. A later debate will be on the motion that, "The wearing of gowns is conducive to the most desirable academic atmosphere." Miss Marjorie Winspear of Trinity and Miss Helen Radigan of St. Michael's will speak in favour of the motion. Miss Joyce Plumtree of University College and Miss Anna Bicknell of Victoria will speak against the motion.

Within the University there is an increasing interest taken in Women's Debating, as evidenced by the number turning out for the Intercollegiate Try-out and the enthusiasm shown in Interfaculty Debates. Next year we hope to have the good fortune to bring back the trophy to Toronto.

S.P.S. Debating Club

TO benefit the new readers, and those School men who protest that they have never heard of the Debating Club, we might say that the Club was established to encourage those School men who happened to realize the importance of being able to express themselves on their feet before a group of people in the most clear and concise manner possible. The chairman and officers of the Club organize discussion groups, debates and lectures to afford the members opportunities of expressing their thoughts.

It is very regrettable that the same lack of enthusiasm in debating, that has been so apparent among the majority of undergrads, should be equally noticeable this year among the students at S.P.S. Unfortunately there has been a steady decrease in the number of those attending not only the University and Faculty, but even the famous Hart House debates. This may be due to several equally possible reasons. The most obvious one to me seems to be the natural reaction that inevitably follows any unusually popular form of amusement or extra mural activity. Debating has always been popular at Toronto University. It has been unusually so, however, during the past five or six years. This is due largely to the tremendous amount of favourable publicity accorded the Hart House debates. Among other things, not the least of which is to provide opportunities for the beginners, it is the purpose of the various Faculty clubs to supply new material for the more important debates held by the University and Hart House. In fact they are the supply bases. It is then quite natural that the smaller clubs should share the popularity or the reverse, enjoyed by the mother club.

The inter-year debates were run off with the usual super-abundance of heat and energy. The First Year, represented by Mr. Bryce and Mr. Smith, again triumphed, the spoils being honour and the Sedgewick Shield. Although vanquished by younger and less experienced opponents we wish to congratulate Messrs. Parker, Argo, Watson and Clifton on their splendid efforts. The active year was terminated by the annual Oratorial Contest. After lengthy arguments by the judges Messrs. Gillam, Argo and McKillop were declared the winners.

The chairman wishes to express his sincere thanks and appreciation for the interest and active part taken in the Club by Prof. Allcut, Professor Zimmer, Prof Arthur, and the various members of the Club executive.

The "Varsity"

IT has been a most successful year for the undergraduate newspaper. Nicolas Chamfort once said: "Celebrity is the advantage of being known to people who don't know you." According to Chamfort, "The Varsity" is now celebrated. As to the first Editor-in-Chief for this session, future generations at Varsity may yet be quoting him even as he has quoted a long past predecessor.

Mr. Ryan did good work on "The Varsity" for four years, not the least being his work for most of this session as Editor-in-Chief. His editorial policies were not satisfactory to a number of persons; but he had the courage of his convictions. A clash was inevitable; it came, the Editor-in-Chief stuck to his guns, they were spiked, he retired and carried his army with him. Another general took the field, "The Varsity" colours being lowered but for a day.

R. C. H. Mitchell, a veteran helmsman, took the wheel at a moment's notice. We can never fully express our indebtedness to him. It was a pretty black night to manoeuvre through, a thankless job; but thanks to the self-sacrificing service of the acting Editor-in-Chief, "The Varsity" still breezes the waves, the news is still printed on the campus.

Sanders assumed control from Mr. Mitchell and carried the paper through from February 16th to a happy final issue.

The owners of "The Varsity" desire to acknowledge the good work done by the Varsity staff from October to February 8th. They fully appreciate the many improvements, literary and otherwise, which were achieved under Mr. Ryan's guidance. They also would record their thanks to Mr. Mitchell and his helpers who carried on for a week, and to Mr. Sanders who, with his staff, concluded the term.

And as the Scotch would say: "'Tis an ill wind that blows naebody guid". And so we are to have an investigation into Student Government, for which "The Varsity" be thanked.

Torontonensis

THE history of TORONTONENSIS carries us back to the year 1898, when the first volume appeared—sponsored by a group of University College men who felt the need for some record of the activities and accomplishments of the members of the graduating year. The book contained a short sketch of the history of each man, pictures of familiar spots around the College, and resumés of the activities of the various clubs and societies.

TORONTONENSIS '29 is the thirty-first volume of the University annual thus established.

At first the annual was devoted mainly to the graduating year. Gradually the demand for a book which would be more comprehensive in scope, and which would record, year by year, all phases of undergraduate activity and interest in the University, made itself felt.

In the fall of 1924 this feeling took definite form in the columns of The Varsity, with the result that TORONTONENSIS 1925 marked the beginning of a new era. Under the guidance of Mr. W. A. Higgins, Editor-in-Chief, the Board undertook and carried out an extensive revision of the entire book—adding many new features and scrapping those which had become obsolete. The inclusion of two-colour art-work in the first sixteen pages was a noteworthy advance. The book was a decided improvement over the older form. The work of subsequent editors has been chiefly to round out and extend the basic ideas upon which this volume depended.

The following year two-colour art-work was used throughout the book and its use has been standard in the subsequent volumes. Further improvement in layout has permitted the use of more and better art-work—whereas a radical change in the nature of the biographies has enabled the book to continue to improve under the very real handicap of a reduction of the appropriation from the Students' Councils.

Acta Victoriana

"ACTA VICTORIANA" ranks among the oldest student publications in the country. Its first number was issued in Cobourg fifty-three years ago, and since that time it has appeared continuously every month throughout the college term.

Like all enterprises of the sort, it has had its ups and downs. Its editorial boards have not always been successful in producing a popular magazine, and financial worries have disturbed the sleep of many business managers.

Under the leadership of a very able staff "Acta" emerged from the doldrums last year, and whatever favour it enjoys at the present moment is to a considerable degree the result of past excellence. Still another factor has contributed to its progress. Under a new constitution the women of the college are better represented on the board of editors, and they appoint a Women's Editor who is a member of the executive of the Women's Undergraduate Association. The success of this scheme has been evident in many ways. The magazine has reached a more perfect balance, and so has a greater general appeal. During the illness of the Editor-in-Chief last fall two very popular numbers were "taken out" under the direction of the Women's Editor, thus disproving certain ancient theories too familiar to bear repetition. And, finally, there has been much support given the editors by the students as a whole, and especially by the present Junior class. Their enthusiasm has made possible a more vigorous policy, and the talent they have shown in the columns of "Acta" augurs well for future volumes.

University of Toronto Medical Journal

THE Journal, the official publication of the University of Toronto Medical under-graduate body, is now in its sixth year, which is proving the most prosperous year since the inception of the publication. The circulation now includes practically one hundred per cent. of the student body, and the number of graduate subscribers, scattered all over the world, is gradually increasing.

This year it is the particular policy of the Editorial Board to encourage the writing of articles by students and the results are more than encouraging. The articles are leavened by those written by members of the staff and they form a valuable reference medium for the student in his reading.

To our brothers at Yale, followers in our footsteps and founders of the second undergraduate medical publication on the continent, we wish early and continued success.

The Trinity University Review

IN 1880 three undergraduates, Mr. Travers Lewis, Mr. W. M. Cruttenden, and Mr. F. E. Howitt, started a paper known as Rouge et Noir. After its first issue, the College Meeting enthusiastically adopted it, and for nine years it reflected the opinions and activities of the student body. Among its first contributors at that time were Archibald Lampman and Sir Gilbert Parker.

In 1888 the name was changed to the Trinity University Review, because it was thought that the name Rouge et Noir had undesirable associations, that being the name of the then most popular game of chance, and because it was felt that a name which explained itself would attract advertisements.

In 1889 Convocation came to its financial aid, and in return for a stated number of copies and space rights agreed to make a small yearly contribution. From that time the Convocation Editor has sat as Chairman of the Review Board. The Review appears eight times a year, with the threefold object of stimulating journalistic and literary activity, of mirroring student activities, and of providing a medium by which graduates may keep in touch with their Alma Mater. The present Convocation Editor is Prof. A. H. Young.

St. Hilda's Chronicle

THE Chronicle is the official publication of St. Hilda's College, which was founded in 1888 and is the oldest women's college in Canada. While presumably but the residence for the women undergraduates of Trinity College, in reality it holds its own charter and is a college in its own right. This fact may in part explain the Chronicle's existence quite independent of the Trinity University Review. The Chronicle made its first appearance before 1900, and despite repeated attempts to amalgamate the two magazines, has kept its own identity for over a quarter of a century. As well as being the first magazine of its kind in Canada, it is the only women's magazine in the University of Toronto.

At first the editor was sometimes an undergraduate, and sometimes a graduate, but for the last fifteen years the staff has been entirely undergraduate, including the Editor and the Business and Advertising Managers. The Chronicle is primarily a literary magazine containing principally undergraduate work with occasional contributions from graduates. Besides stories and poems there are articles, cartoons, pictures, graduate notes and notes of college sports and other activities. A few years ago a section of Literary Reviews was added, and last year Dramatic Criticism was made a regular feature of the magazine.

Since the circulation was small, for a number of years the financial question was a difficult one. This is easily understood when we realize that there were only eight students in the college when the first issue of the Chronicle was published. Recently, however, it has been entirely self-supporting, producing two issues a year from thirty to fifty pages.

Transactions and Year Book

SCHOOL men have the faculty of believing that what they do is worthy of print, and for this reason the "Transactions and Year Book", the annual publication of the Engineering Society, has grown from the original record book of the speeches delivered before the Society to its present importance.

The first section of the book still holds its technical position with a thesis by a fourth year man on a subject which at the present time is receiving much attention, "The Light Weight High Speed Diesel Engine". One article is the record of a very interesting address on Engineering in Europe presented before the Society by the Dean of the Faculty. There are also shorter articles written by well-known and experienced graduates whose message should be very instructive to the undergraduate as well as interesting to both graduate and undergraduate.

The second section contains the history of the year's social and athletic life. Here are found accounts of all the School organizations and clubs and their activities. The athletic records will show the graduates that the Old Red Schoolhouse is still very much on the Campus.

One of the aims of the publication is to keep as close a connection as possible between the graduates and the undergraduates, and the editors hope that the success of the past will be even greater for the future.

FACULTY OF APPLIED SCIENCE
1928 — 1929

The Toike Oike

THE TOIKE OIKE, as regards size, is a modest enough little sheet, and its appearance is somewhat spasmodical, but it serves such varied purposes as freshman's guide, election pamphlet, and dance programme. Whenever such an excuse arises an issue is brought out, accompanied by all the trials that visit amateur publishers. This year the editions were Freshmen's, Christmas, School Night, Elections and Graduation, each intended to serve the particular need of the moment.

Women's Press Club

TO provide a medium of expression for those interested in any phase of journalism the Women's Press Club was organized in 1919. At first the membership was confined to undergraduates on the staffs of college publications but this excluded women who were unable to devote any time to these activities although interested in the work. The constitution was amended and all those with an enthusiastic desire to write are now admitted. As a result the membership has been more than doubled this year.

Few University organizations can boast of greater faithfulness or more genuine interest on the part of their members.

Contributions of original work have always been among the requisites for admission to the Press Club. Half the number of meetings are devoted to the reading and criticizing of these contributions. Miss G. Wookey, the Honorary President of the Club for this year, has proved a competent critic.

At the other meetings Mrs. Lowry Ross, Morley Callaghan, H. McDougald, N. A. Benson, and others, have discussed their own particular fields of journalism with the members of the Club.

One of the obvious advantages of this Society is that women from all colleges are eligible for membership.

The Players' Guild of University College

It is now more than six years since the Players' Guild of University College held its first meeting on November 29th, 1922. These years have been filled with an activity rendered all the more intense because of its interest. Yet the members feel that the Guild affords them not only a delightful pastime but also an avenue of contact with thought, ancient and modern, upon many forms of life and art.

As one looks back over the yearly programmes of the Society, it becomes evident that the original policy has been maintained. All those desiring either to take part in or direct a production have received encouragement. The productions themselves, though not lacking in variety, have been of a consistently worthwhile order, and the interest has lain chiefly in the play itself. The discussions following the presentations have, perhaps, varied in degree of animation, but at least they have offered sincere and often constructive criticism.

The programme for the autumn term has been interesting and diverse. The afternoon productions have included plays by Paul Hervieu, Lady Gregory, St. John Ervine, H. H. Kemp, Shakespeare, and an original play by R. Howard Lindsay, a member of the Guild. Two addresses have been given; one on "Make-up," by Mr. Edgar Stone, another on "Stagecraft," by Mr. Colin Tait. The evening play chosen for the term was "The Faithful," by Masefield. The Japanese setting and unusual plot made it a most interesting experiment.

Dramatic art is a symphony in which all other arts may find expression, and so may justly claim the interest of all.

Victoria College "Bob"

THE fifty-sixth annual "Bob" of Victoria College welcomed the class of 3T2 to the Old Ontario Strand on the evening of October 12, 1928. Two hundred sophomores on platforms at the rear of Burwash Hall awaited the coming of the First Year Battalion from their meeting-place at Annesley Hall. As the freshmen and freshettes entered they were forced to "run the fearful gauntlet" hallowed in song and story. Winning their way through to No Man's Land, where a great crowd of friends and upper-classmen sat in breathless wonder and expectation, they proceeded to the front, where benches had been reserved for them. There they swung into the long-practised refrains of their "Bob Songs", vainly attempting to drown out the more experienced singing of the Second Year. *

The curtain rose to give the audience an exhibition of how freshmen behave when they arrive at the Union Station; again to satirize certain well-known professors; and finally to show the closing scenes of the day at a First Year Residence, where "Alas, regardless of their doom, the little victims play", and —having played—make ready for the weekly ablutions and the Don's bed-time story which follows.

In the Intermission the rendering of the "Bob Song" as of yore, further impressed the First Year with a sense of the gravity of the occasion.

A second part of the programme entertained the audience with a minstrel show of the best type. The musical and scenic effects alone were enough to show the newcomer that the standards of the time-honoured Bob are as high as when grandfather came to Victoria. Its form may have changed with the years, but in spirit this ancient tradition is and ever shall be even as it was in the days of Robert Beare.

Daffydil 1929

HIRTY years ago this spring the undergraduates of the Medical School of Toronto of that remote day conceived the happy idea of combining an occasion wherein faculty members—staff and students—could gather together in friendly mood to regale each other with jolly amusement and laughter, with some attempt at a theatrical presentation in which the lighter side of a serious science and apt art could be shown.

This year the performance was presented for the first time in "The Hart House Theatre" and was under the able direction of Mr. Edgar Stone.

The show opened on a blacked house. A skull grinned sardonically as a "spot" dimly revealed it in the centre of the stage, and a good old "Epistaxis" was heard from every side. Then, 'ere the echoes had died away the orchestra struck up the loyal lay of the Royal Blue and White. The choir and audience took up the refrain and the theatre resounded with lusty notes attesting fidelity to our Alma Mater.

Then came a series of skits representing the dramatic efforts of many potential Bernard Shaws. We were transported from the cabin of ship's doctor on board the Medicania cruising the "Mid-Trimester" to the bakeshop of the most modern cuisine, where Medettes of rare delicacy were much "kneaded" and dough was not promiscuously thrown about.

And of things too humorous to mention by the spoken word, possibly even too risqué, and of anecdotes concerning profs. and prophets, lay—and lowity, too numerous to include on stage—ample care and provision was made in the ever-popular annual "Epistaxis".

The Daffydil banquet, given by the committee in honour of the winning skit, and graced by the judges, staff men, and many other "Daffydilites", was an occasion of delightful fellowship, presided over by the Great God Pan and the infant Bacchus.

Dental Dramatic Club

THE Dental Dramatic Club, under the leadership of C. M. Finlay, has completed a very successful year in dramatic art.

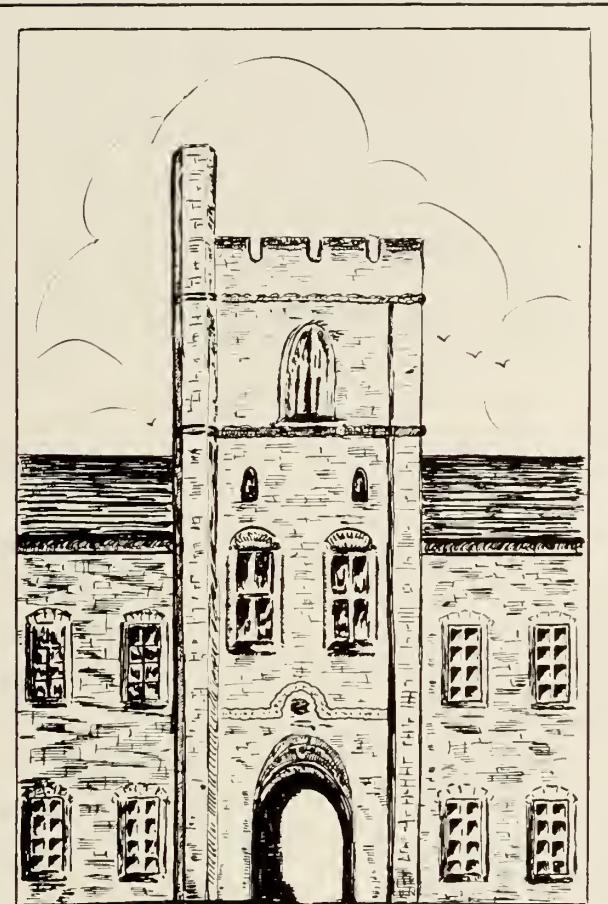

Two evenings of fun and frolic evolved from their efforts. "Noctem Cuckoo" this year proved that the function continues to be bigger and better than ever. Each year there is noticed an increased interest in this dental night of nights, and on a certain clear, crisp November night, when the great doors of Hart House opened, it revealed a show worthy of the name "Noctem Cuckoo". This faculty night was originated in 1923 by Gaston Brule for the purpose of stimulating good fellowship amongst the members of the various years by friendly competition in dramatic lines.

The spirit of interyear competition on this night has spread until it now involves the play-off of the interyear basketball and swimming. On the seventh annual Noctem Cuckoo night the basketball cup was won by fifth year, while the Freshmen and Sophomores showed themselves superior along aquatic lines. Even more keen competition was witnessed in the stunts and skits put on by the various years, and 2T9 again proved that they are in a class by themselves when they won the Gaston Brule Cup. Following the stunts, a pep dance programme lasted well into the early morning hours, and finally with the fading strains of "God Save the King" the Dents wrote finis on the evening's programme, contented that the Dramatic Club had accomplished what Gaston Brule had in mind when he originated Noctem Cuckoo.

"Dentantics" is the amateur theatrical night in the Faculty of Dentistry, being originated in 1920 by Dr. Agnew. The five years, the co-eds and the nurses vie for the shield. Striking evidence of originality, coupled with an ease of presentation, was noted on this evening.

Much credit for the success of these two functions is due to Mr. Finlay and his committee along with Dr. Kennedy and Mr. Hosking. Each year sees an advance in the work of the Dramatic Club.

North House

It is with a feeling of deepest regret that we see approaching the day when we must leave North House for the last time. The four years spent here have served only to strengthen the attraction which North House exerts on us. The social, athletic and academic activities, the keen but friendly rivalry with the other houses, and the many friendships formed here are knitted together to form a recollection which we shall cherish in the years to come.

Regarding our social activities, it is safe to say that they have been bigger and better than ever. The tea dance, which was held in the fall term, was a success in every way, and we are looking forward eagerly to another. The Annual Residence Dance, which is given by the three Houses, was well attended, and was pronounced by all the "best ever".

The athletic competition is only started, but we are expecting a series of closely contested events.

Perhaps we will be able to uphold the precedent established this year by some of our graduates, who returned to us and entertained the House for an evening. We hope to be able to do the same, some day, when we have joined their ranks.

East House

Birdseye Centre, Ont.,

November 29, 1963.

MY DEAR SON, MARMADUKE PERCIVAL:

Enclosed find cheque; but egad, my boy, you chatter naught but piffle when you dilate upon such puerile inanities as your cake-eating contests, motor polo tournaments, and pinochle competitions—not to speak of butterfly amusements like aeroplane parties. Lend ear one moment, lad, and hear how in the good old days of '28 we upheld the honour of East House so doughtily that strong men wept, frail women swooned, and babies cried for help. Sweeping aside the juggernauts of North and South Houses, Meiklejohn and his reckless crew had steam-rolled their way to victory, grasped the skirts of circumstance, breasted the tide of ill-fortune, undermined the well-nigh impregnable strongholds of opposition, and galloped at full rein past the winning post with the Inter-Residence Athletic Shield nailed to the mast and grasped firmly to their bosoms. Gor blimy and odds fish, young buck, what boot your puny feats? Let me but hear one deed to match those of days gone by, and you would be your father's son indeed.

YOUR AFFECTIONATE DAD.

South House

FOUR years have passed since those first days at the University, when we found ourselves in South House and a freshman. How very fresh we were, and how we went in for everything with such boyish vigour! That was when all our illusions were still with us, and college life seemed the corridor down which we must pass to find at the other end the open door of life, with opportunity and success only waiting our coming.

There have been many hours filled with the merry doings of residence life. We remember the midnight suppers, the practical jokes, the theatrical episodes, the sunrise games of football, and the penalties we, as freshmen, received for our forgetfulness.

The affairs of the House have been so ably conducted by the President, Al. Mueller, in this, our final year, that it seems inevitable to announce it as being our most successful. But, above all, we will always keep in our hearts a feeling of gratitude towards our House Master, Dr. Hoskin, for his efforts in making the years we have spent under his influence the happiest in our lives.

U.C. Men's Residence

O NCE again the members of the University College men's residence register their presence on the Campus. As the years roll by the numbers of the old guard steadily diminish, but recruits are always found to take their place; and, for each generation, the happiest recollections of the University are those of the hours spent in the house. The huge open fire place is a refuge from the chill of the Examination Hall; and the sessions of the house a relief from the gloom of the lecture. Their pictures may fade from the printed page, but the memories of doings and sufferings in their common life will never be dimmed by the lapse of time.

Hutton House

UTTON HOUSE has well deserved the title of melting-pot for the studious, enthusiastic, nonchalant, and "just girls". This year, as ever, its towers and hallways have been the scene of pranks, performances, banging doors, tramping feet and—shushing. In the silence of quiet hour high heels are heard clattering down to the little phone booth in noisy expectancy.

Sundays are the most enjoyable of days, especially if spent lounging before the fire with lively discussions about the latest realistic drama or Canadian novel.

Widely varying is the effect produced by a notice on the bulletin board with modest but significant words as "Tea at Ten, Bring Your Own Cups" and "House Meeting, Attendance Compulsory."

The house dances are prefaced by toilsome shifting of furniture and tedious preparation. However, secret misgivings are lost in the midst of the cheerful gaiety which ensues.

Connections of friendship made while living together are usually life-lasting. That is why everyone who has been at Hutton House says: "Residence-life is an integral part of a college education."

Queen's Hall

*Strong towers decay,
But a great name will never pass away.*

UEEN'S HALL! old but revered she stands, a grey pile against the encroaching tide of new buildings. Even now, though we feel it to be her last years, she is strong in the loyalty and love of her residents.

Truly, this year has been a happy one. This is owing in no small part to the gracious presence of Doctor Gertrude Wright as Dean. Then, the strengthening of old friendships, the making of new, and the carrying out of old Hall traditions have all played their part. Such things will be remembered when the thought of lectures has long since become a thing of the past.

Initiation came off rather tamely due to the no-hazing injunction, but the freshies resumed their normal audacious attitude when to the fagging duties of shoe-shining, phone answering and so on, they added the accomplishment of apple-pie bed making. Queen's Hall combined originality and business acumen in their methods of raising talent money for the Women's Building Fund. A tuck-shop, dress-making, hosiery mending, white elephant sales, tea-cup reading were only a few of the clever ideas.

Though, at present, the Juniors are assuming worried expressions and holding important hush meetings behind closed doors, it only indicates that the event of the year—the Seniors' Dinner—is in the process of preparation.

Then all too soon we are faced with the necessity of burning midnight oil and in due time leave these familiar haunts to a succeeding generation.

Argyll House

ARGYLL HOUSE, with its cool, inviting lawn in summer and its crackling grate-fires in winter, houses about thirty girls whose various ambitions lead them towards all the walks of life open to the woman of to-day. A large number hope to be medical doctors, some study the complications of foreign languages, others spend hours at Baldwin House discussing the why and wherefore of past political problems. Sometimes a would-be architect, a student of commerce or of dentistry is found among our numbers. Then, too, there are the Household Science girls, we know not to what ambitions they secretly aspire—they say a dietitian's position, or a tea-room.

When once the green leaves of the ivy have turned red and dropped from its walls, the House wears a sober and severe appearance. It feels the dignity that its name implies, and being associated with the world of higher education feels it necessary to preserve a hoary dignity. Even within the front doors the feeling of dignity is still present in the spaciousness of the hall and reception room. But when the care-free co-eds assemble for an evening's party, guests to those who last received a box from home, a spirit of gaiety and friendship pervades, while teacup fortunes are told and events past, present and future discussed. This spirit which rises to its height on such occasions never dies out, and will always be associated with memories of college days.

Annesley Student Government Association

ANNESLEY HALL was the first Women's Residence in Canada to adopt this system of government and to continue it without a break. In the autumn of 1906, upon the petition of the students to the Senate, it was formed, somewhat upon the lines laid down in the Wellesley College constitution. It was founded on an agreement between the authorities of Victoria College and the students in Residence, whereby the powers and scope of student government are clearly defined. Many other institutions have used its organization and rules as a basis for their own.

After twenty-two years of experience it is the firm belief of all concerned that student government makes for honour in the student body, develops just judgment and dealing, independence of thought and action, corporate spirit and loyalty to College and University. It has been recognized that true government consists in co-operation among those who are governed, and that one of the essentials of education is to learn to live in harmony with one's neighbours. A.S.G.A. unites these two functions in itself even while it serves as a natural training for women, for in it they face problems of government similar to those they will later meet in the outside world.

The success which it has attained, and the record it holds, Student Government feels is largely due to the enthusiasm and high calibre of its presidents, and to the understanding and co-operation of the Dean, Miss M. E. T. Addison, B.A.

F. Axworthy, C. McTier, M. Tamblyn, A. Brett, M. Johnston, M. Dickinson, M. Winspear.

House Committee of St. Hilda's College

UNIQUE other colleges on the Campus, St. Hilda's College has no regular student government. Instead of this we have what is known as "House Committee", the President, of which is Dr. M. Cartwright, Dean of Women and Principal of the College.

The Committee comprises the Head Student in each year, who is chosen in the First Year as the student coming up to the University with the highest academic standing; and in addition one or two other representatives from each year is as deemed expedient.

This body has supreme jurisdiction in all affairs concerning the students, and is the final court of appeal in disciplinary matters. Meetings of the full committee are held once a month; each week the Dean holds a meeting with the four "Heads".

In St. Hilda's is worked out the system of year precedence. The Head of Fourth Year is therefore "Head of College". The Fourth Year are finally responsible for the management of the College. The Third Year have no specific duties other than those which fall to them in the apportioning of the offices. The Second Year have direct control of the First Year. To the latter fall the house duties, such as telephone and tea duty, etc.

Two of the major societies in St. Hilda's are the Literary Society and the Women's Auxiliary of the Church Missionary Society, which is also the college unit of the S.C.M. The chief activity of the former, every year, is the presentation of four plays, each presented by the members of a year. Debates are also held; for the year 1928-29 it is rather interesting to note that three out of the four intercollegiate debaters are members of St. Hilda's. The W.A. holds a Bazaar and Tea annually, the proceeds of which go to missionary work.

Instead of Class Parties the Social life of the College is provided by the receptions which are held every two weeks, and to which the whole student body of Trinity College is invited.

HART HOUSE

The Founders' Prayer

THE prayer of the Founders is that Hart House, under the guidance of its Warden, may serve in the generations to come the highest interests of this University by drawing into a common fellowship the members of the several Colleges and Faculties, and by gathering into a true society the teacher and the student, the graduate and the undergraduate; further that the members of Hart House may discover within its walls the true education that is to be found in good fellowship, in friendly disputation and debate, in the conversation of wise and earnest men, in music, pictures and the play, in the casual book, in sports and games and the mastery of the body; and lastly, that just as in the days of war this House was devoted to the training in arms of the young soldier, so in time of peace its walls may be dedicated to the task of arming youth with strength and suppleness of limb, with clarity of mind and depth of understanding, and with a spirit of true religion and high endeavour."

HART HOUSE FROM THE PARK

Hart House

HART HOUSE is so called in memory of the late Hart Massey. Begun in 1911, it was completed in 1919 and presented, fully equipped, to the University of Toronto by the trustees of the Massey Foundation. To Vincent Massey, Vice-Chairman of the Massey Foundation, is due the idea of Hart House as well as the form it assumed under his personal supervision.

From the autumn of 1914 until November, 1918, it was used for military purposes, and within its walls thousands of men were trained for service overseas. On the first anniversary of the Armistice—November 11th, 1919—Hart House was formally opened by His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, who was at that time the Governor-General of Canada. Mr. Henry Sproatt and Mr. Ernest Rolph were the architects of the building, which comes as near to meeting the requirements of the ideal House for student activities as any on this continent or perhaps in the world.

In its widest interpretation, Hart House, which is for the use of men only and is non-residential, seeks to provide for all the activities of the undergraduate's life which lie outside the actual lecture rooms. Architecturally of great beauty and built round a quadrangle, Hart House is unique in that it houses under one roof a finely proportioned hall, called "The Great Hall," common rooms of every description, a library, a lecture room, a small chapel together with rooms for the use of the Student Christian Association, a studio for painting and sketching, photographic dark rooms, a billiard room, senior common rooms and dining rooms for both faculty and graduate members, an upper and lower gymnasium, both admirably equipped, separate rooms for boxing, wrestling and fencing, an indoor running track, a large swimming pool, racquet courts, an indoor rifle range, extensive locker rooms, offices for the Students' Administrative Council, also for the athletic and medical staff, a few bedrooms for guests, and the office and private rooms for the Warden. Below the quadrangle is a fully equipped theatre with foyer, green room, dressing rooms, wardrobe and the office of the director of the theatre. Every male undergraduate of the University is required to be a member of Hart House, towards the upkeep of which he pays an annual fee of ten dollars. The House has no endowment and these fees are its chief source of revenue.

The care of Hart House and its welfare has to a large extent been entrusted to the undergraduates themselves. There are six Standing Committees—House, Hall, Library, Music, Billiard and Sketch. Each of these Committees consists of two Faculty members, one of whom is the Chairman, one graduate member, ten undergraduates and the Warden. Eight of the ten undergraduate members are elected annually by the whole undergraduate membership of Hart House, the other two being elected by their own number to serve on the same committee the following year. The personnel and duties of the Standing and Special Committees subject to the authority of the Board of Stewards are as follows:

House Committee

The House Committee is the senior of the Standing Committees and has charge of the general management and social activities of Hart House. Under its supervision come all regulations governing the use of the House and all plans for the comfort and convenience of its members. The Barber Shop and Guest Rooms are under its care. The Committee is also responsible to the Board of Stewards for seeing that the House is kept in good repair both as regards its structure and equipment. The annual elections of the Committees of Hart House are also under the management of this Committee. The Masquerade was again successfully held last November.

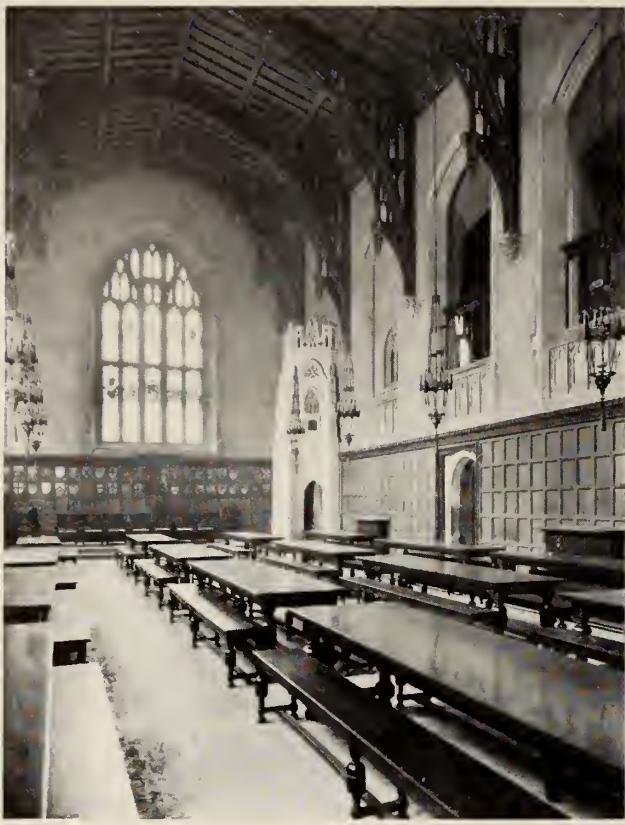

The members of the House Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor G. H. Duff (Chairman), the Warden, Professor R. Taylor, J. R. Gilley (Comptroller), A. G. Lang (Graduate), J. M. Goss (Rep. Ath. Assoc.), W. A. Gilbert, J. R. Johnston, J. B. Matthews, J. F. McCullough, W. R. McIntosh, T. R. Sarjeant, P. D. Scollard, A. J. Stringer, G. M. Wilton, T. E. Hayhurst (Secretary).

Hall Committee

As in former years the duties of the Hall Committee have been to exercise a general supervision over the Great Hall, the Graduate Dining Room, the Kitchen Department of Hart House and the Tuck Shop. During the present year the number of students using the Great Hall has again increased. About fourteen hundred meals a day are served there and, if the Faculty and Graduate meals are taken into consideration as well as special functions and banquets, the number of meals served on some days in full term time does not fall far short of two thousand. This number in itself is proof of the quality of meals served by the Superintendent of the Great Hall and the moderate prices charged. The Comptroller and the Assistant Comptroller have

THE GREAT HALL—LOOKING SOUTH

Somerville, R. A. Young, W. A. Rooke (Secretary).

Library Committee

The Library in Hart House is recognized as one of the most beautiful rooms in the whole building.

In accordance with the idea of the Founders, the Library Committee has for the past ten years been engaged in the building up of a collection of books such as might be found in a good private library and as a result of their work the room has now become a popular resort of all those who like to spend their leisure hours reading the casual book.

At present there are 3,000 volumes on the shelves about half of which are fiction, while the rest are composed chiefly of biography, history, languages and general literature. Additions to the Library are made at regular intervals, and the activities of the Committee are chiefly centered around the selection of new books for purchase. Gifts are also received from time to time, and in the last year Hart House has been particularly fortunate in this respect.

The Library Committee is further responsible for the selection of periodicals for use in the Reading Room, and in this department of the House a wide range of weekly and monthly journals may be found.

given much time and thought to the operation of this department of Hart House and of the Tuck Shop, which continues to do a large business.

The Committee has given particular attention to the financial statements presented to it each month, and the many problems inseparable from a large and complex organization such as the Great Hall, have received careful consideration.

The members of the Hall Committee for 1928-1929 are: Dr. H. A. Hoskni (Chairman), the Warden, Dr. G. C. Cameron, J. R. Gilley (Comptroller), Leo Smith, Wills MacLachlan (Graduate), A. E. Allin, S. S. T. de Beauregard, D. R. Gunn, F. J. MacNamara, A. B. Meiklejohn, W. E. Shute, L. E. Simpson, A. A.

The Curator, Mr. B. D. Beamish, U.C. '30, is responsible for the care and checking of books, but no other supervision over the Library is exercised. From the first the policy of the Library Committee has been to keep the shelves open at all times and to encourage the feeling that the contents of the Library are the common property of members of Hart House. It is by this means that the unique character of the Library has been preserved.

The members of the Library Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor L. Allen (Chairman), the Warden, Professor J. F. Macdonald, H. O. E. Asnan (Graduate), B. D. Beamish (Curator of Library), G. S. Andrews, J. Brebner, W. D. Cormack, D. G. Guest, J. R. Hilborn, W. C. Lockhart, F. H. C. Reinke, E. W. Sniffen, H. G. Walton-Ball, J. L. Davenport (Secretary).

Music Committee

The Music Committee directs and generally supervises the various musical activities of the House. The major function of the Music Committee is to arrange a number of concerts, recitals and songsters and thus to encourage and stimulate an appreciation for good music among the undergraduate members of the House. Pursuing the policy of former years the Committee has, during the present academic year, arranged eight Sunday Evening Concerts, and a series of Friday Afternoon Recitals. The Sunday Evening Concerts, the most popular musical institution of the University, are held in the Great Hall of Hart House at 9 p.m. on Sunday evenings at intervals of three weeks during the term. Owing to the generosity of the leading musicians of the city, undergraduates are afforded the opportunity of hearing music of the highest order, and it is evident from the very large audiences which regularly attend them how much these concerts are appreciated. From the beginning of October, and continuing until the middle of March, Friday Afternoon Recitals are held each Friday at 5 p.m. in the Music Room. These Recitals have drawn a large number of undergraduates week by week.

A series of eight Songsters are held in the Music Room on Sunday evenings when there is no concert in the Great Hall and are conducted by Mr. J. Campbell McInnes. From the first they have drawn a large and enthusiastic number of students. This year the last Songster was taken by Dr. E. H. Fellowes of St. George's Chapel, Windsor, who spoke on Tudor music and sang several lute songs.

The members of the Music Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor H. J. Davis (Chairman), the Warden, Professor H. R.

THE GREAT HALL—NORTH END

Femp, Dr. E. C. MacMillan, F. R. MacKelcan (Graduate), W. E. Algie, J. M. Harvey, W. S. Kennedy, A. J. Mueller, J. Ord, S. L. Osborne, F. M. Plahte, A. H. Sellers, F. Van V. Snell, E. J. Bramah (Secretary).

Billiard Committee

The Billiard Room of Hart House is a recreation centre for a large number of undergraduate members. It is under the control of the Billiard Committee. The general idea of the Billiard Committee of past years has been to promote the English game of billiards in preference to other games. With this object in view a handicap tournament was held after Christmas, the winner having his name inscribed on the Hart House cup. A snooker tournament was also held, the winner receiving a miniature silver cup. The policy of the Billiard Committee has been to see that good English billiard tables are provided, and never before has the room been in better condition. In March Mr. T. Tothill gave a series of lecture demonstrations which aroused much interest among members.

The Billiard Room is a source of revenue to Hart House, and financial statements are placed before the Committee, which is directly responsible, as are all other standing committees, to the Board of Stewards.

The members of the Billiard Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor R. K. Young (Chairman), the Warden, C. R. Myers, Dr. H. S. Dawson (Graduate), H. M. Barrett, C. A. Birge, F. R. Brebner, E. H. Dewart, C. H. Ireland, W. H. Johnston, J. R. Mooney, A. R. Nobbs, W. P. Symons, D. G. Hilliard (Secretary).

Sketch Committee

The Sketch Committee is responsible to the Board of Stewards for the Art activities of Hart House. They include control of the Sketch Room and the Little Sketch Room and the holding of exhibitions therein, the Winter Loan Exhibition, which is hung in the principal rooms of the House, the management of sketching classes under an artist and the occasional purchase of pictures.

The Exhibitions during 1928-1929 have included various "one-man" shows by well-known Toronto artists, wood-cuts from the U.S.A., the annual Exhibition of Photography by members of Hart House, the annual Exhibition of paintings and drawings also by members of Hart House, Exhibition by the students of the Ontario College of Art and by the Art Students' League, and an exhibition of posters.

The Art classes, held in the Sketch Room during the winter under the direction of Mr. F. S. Haines, have again proved very popular.

THE CHAPEL

Pictures by Arthur Lismer, T. G. Greene and G. N. Norwell have been added to the permanent collection owned by Hart House. A large picture by the famous Canadian artist, Tom Thomson, entitled "The Pointers," is also to be purchased, and two sketches by the same artist have been bought from the Harold Verschoyle Wrong Memorial Fund.

The members of the Sketch Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor W. S. Funnell (Chairman), the Warden, Professor E. R. Arthur, Dr. H. Borsook (Graduate), F. D. Shannon (Keeper of the Prints), J. T. Bryden, G. L. Cassidy, A. W. Davison, M. G. Gould, L. D. Irwin, J. D. Keith, R. M. Mitchell, W. R. Ramsay, L. Sherwood, S. V. Railton (Secretary).

Camera Committee

The Camera Committee, which is a special Committee of Hart House, is responsible for the management of the dark rooms in Hart House, the care of photographic equipment and the general encouragement of photography among the members of Hart House. On the occasion of the Masquerade, a member of the Camera Committee took photographs of the prize winners as records and for the newspapers.

In January the Committee arranged an exhibition of photography by members of Hart House in the main Sketch Room. Prints, to the number of 139, were shown and the exhibition attracted a very large attendance.

The members of the Camera Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor A. F. Coventry (Chairman), the Warden, J. F. Phillips (Graduate), W. T. Grant, W. F. Haehnel, W. E. Lehman, K. F. Tupper (Secretary).

Squash Racquets Committee

The Squash Racquets Committee, which is a Special Committee of Hart House, is responsible to the Board of Stewards for the general control of the Squash Courts. The game continues to grow in popularity and several hundred members of Hart House are regular players.

The Interfaculty and Individual Tournaments were again held and boards on which the names of the winners of these tournaments are inscribed were put up in the Gallery.

Two members represented Hart House in the Canadian Squash Racquets Championship held at Montreal.

The members of the Squash Racquets Committee for 1928-1929 are: A. B. Fennell (Chairman), the Warden, J. F. Woods (Graduate), M. Pasternak, R. B. Robinson, A. H. Boultbee (Secretary).

MEMORIAL TOWER

Debates Committee

On 31st January, 1924, the first debate ever held in Hart House took place under the management of an informal Committee appointed for that purpose. This debate was held on the open parliamentary system and special Rules of Procedure were drawn up by the Committee. The Lecture Room in Hart House was arranged as far as possible like the Provincial or Federal House; the Speaker's chair was placed in a central position, members for the motion being on his right, those against the motion on his left. After the four speakers "on the paper" had finished their speeches, the debate was open to any member, who, having caught the Speaker's eye, might then rise and address the House. At 10.30 p.m. the House divided on the motion. There were no judges, and the whole procedure was a definite attempt to get away from the competitive type of debate, which is really an oratorical contest, by which a team of three men from one University or Faculty tries to win a victory over a team of three men from another University or Faculty.

The aim of debates held under the Hart House system is to encourage real debating in contrast to the delivery of speeches carefully prepared for weeks beforehand and also to give undergraduates an introduction into public life by discussing questions of general interest across the floor of the House with the country's ablest men. Among visitors who have spoken "on the paper" from the floor of the House are the Hon. W. E. Raney, K.C.; the Hon. J. W. Nickle, K.C.; Mr. Andrew McMaster, K.C.; the Hon. E. C. Drury; the Hon. Manning Doherty; the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King (Prime Minister of Canada); the Hon. Hugh Guthrie; and the Hon. G. Howard Ferguson (Prime Minister of Ontario).

This year the Attorney-General of Ontario, Miss Agnes Macphail and Dr. J. R. P. Slater have been among the honourable visitors.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cody have presented a Speaker's Chair to Hart House in memory of Maurice Cody for use at these debates, and this was unveiled on 28th November by Dr. Cody.

The members of the Debates Committee for 1928-1929 are: Professor N. A. MacKenzie (Chairman), the Warden, Professor G. W. Brown, C. H. A. Armstrong and E. H. Blake (Graduates), G. L. Dunn, R. W. Finlayson, L. M. Gelber, J. H. Gringorton, T. V. Kennedy, W. M. Martin, G. O. Murrell-Wright, D. D. Gunn (Secretary).

Board of Stewards

The Board of Stewards is the governing body of Hart House and is so constituted as to include among its members the secretaries of the six Standing Committees and representatives of the chief organizations in Hart House. Subject to the superior authority of the Board of Governors of the University the direction, management and administration of Hart House, including matters of discipline, are entrusted to the Board of Stewards. The Board is assisted by a Finance Committee which makes recommendations with regard to financial matters. The general supervision of the whole House is entrusted to the Warden, who is appointed by the Board of Governors of the University and is ex-officio chairman of the Board of Stewards. He is assisted by the Comptroller of Hart House, Mr. J. R. Gilley (S.P.S. '21), the Assistant Comptroller, Mr. W. R. Cowan S.P.S. '24), and the Secretary of Hart House, Mr. F. A. Wansbrough (Victoria '28).

The members of the Board of Stewards for 1928-1929 are: The Warden (Chairman ex-officio), Sir Robert Falconer, K.C.M.G., the Hon. Vincent Massey (appointed by the Board of Governors), Professor H. Wasteneys and Professor J. H. Parkin (appointed by the President), T. A. Reed (Financial Secretary, Athletic Association), G. N. Kennedy (Graduate), J. W. Walkinshaw (S.C.A.), J. M. Goss (Athletic Directorate), R. L. Fredenberg (S.A.C.), Professor G. A. Cornish (Faculty Union), T. E. Hayhurst (House Committee), W. A. Rooke (Hall Committee), J. L. Davenport (Library Committee), E. J. Bramah (Music Committee), D. G. Hilliard (Billiard Committee), S. V. Railton (Sketch Committee), J. R. Gilley (Secretary).

FRATERNITIES

The Interfraternity Council of the University of Toronto

ERTAIN fraternities, sharing a common purpose in the academic and social welfare of the University, and desiring co-operation between themselves for their mutual benefit, organized an interfraternity council and established a constitution to govern its proceedings.

Article No. 2 of this Constitution reads:

Purposes:

- “To insure co-operation among the fraternities.
- To discuss questions of mutual interest.
- To promote interfraternity sport and social intercourse.
- To establish a permanent executive representing the fraternity body of the University.
- To further the interests of the University.”

The Interfraternity Council of the University came into being in 1922, established by the fourteen charter members. Its activities since that time have fully justified its existence. Many of these are carried on from year to year, others are undertaken where it is believed beneficial to all concerned.

In sports the Council has filled an important rôle, organizing hockey, baseball, squash racquets and basketball competitions, and awarding trophies. But not only here; the Council emphasizes scholarship and an award will be made next November to the fraternity having the highest academic standing as a result of the preceding year's work.

It is altogether desirable that the men in the different fraternities should get to know one another. With this object in view the Council arranges the time and place for an exchange at lunch or dinner. On such occasions the members of a fraternity are at the same time guests and hosts.

There are many concerns upon which the fraternities can combine for their mutual benefit, for instance, in dealing with merchants for supplies and in the matter of securing reliable help.

of the T. EATON CO., Limited.

An Ideal

Behind and throughout the phenomenal growth of the T. Eaton, Co., Limited, lies a striking maxim of honest business dealing; "We propose to sell our goods for cash only; in selling goods to have only one price. Goods satisfactory or money refunded. No one is to be importuned to buy." At first deemed revolutionary, these principles have made such a deep impress on the business of merchandising that to this generation they have become part and parcel of our daily trade and traffic.

The spirit of the Store's practice is buying and selling for cash. Every piece of merchandise in the Store is priced on the cash basis, with a Deferred Payment plan for House Furnishings and other goods involving a heavy outlay of money offered as a service, for which you are required to pay an equitable carrying charge.

The founder early emphasized that no customer was to be importuned to buy and so strongly has this been stressed throughout the Eaton organization that one immediately senses, upon shopping at any Eaton store, the absence of all importunate selling.

In the air . . . the first breath of spring . . . the first hint of sunshine . . . the first suggestion of open roads . . . Result? . . . The top down . . . the windshield flattened out . . . a foot that's firm on the gas . . . a rush of wind in your face . . . a motor that sings of power and conquest . . . and the land below the horizon is yours to discover . . .

The ambition you'll never outgrow . . . the dream of a roadster whose very appearance says "Swank? . . . rather!" reaches its fulfillment in the new Whippet Six De-Luxe Sport Roadster. Its very appearance tells the whole story. Every line bespeaks untiring speed, flawless performance, endless pleasure.

A Noted Jurist Tells You About BILLIARDS AND BOWLING

In acknowledgement of the interesting Demonstration and lecture on Billiards by your Mr. Tothill, I am pleased to say our opinion here at the Club is that Billiards is a most interesting and wholesome game, and has scientific features possessed, one might say, by no other game.

In my mind, Town and Church Leaders in every community in Canada would do well to bear in mind that our young people must have their opportunity of enjoying active and interesting games such as Billiards or Bowling, to get rid of their surplus vitality.

I believe the answer to one of our most pressing social problems to-day lies in the Parents and Social Leaders not only appreciating the need of Recreation, but in them getting out and actually participating in these games with the young people.

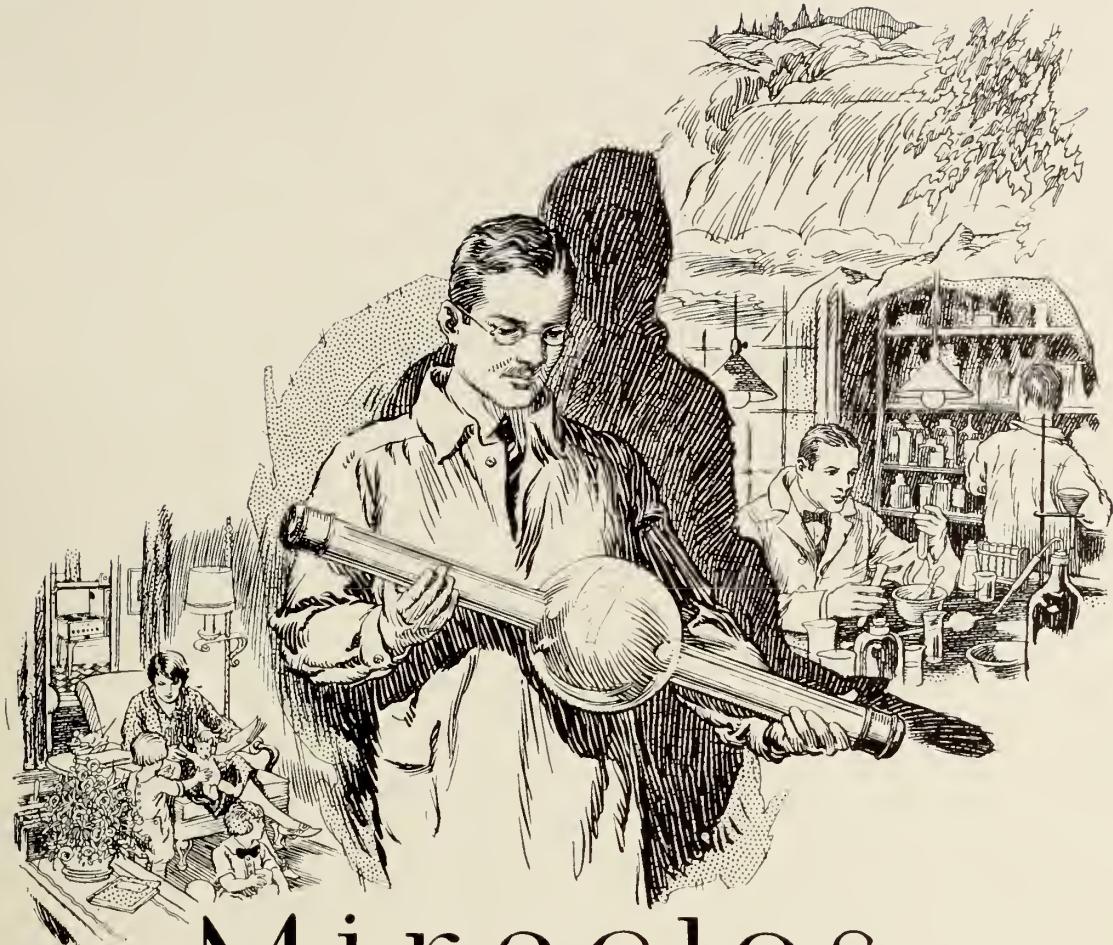

There is no question of the value of Recreation in the Church or community Club and the value to the Community of Public Recreation establishments, is in direct ratio to the character of the man that the town entrusts with the Franchise to operate such places.

Miracles in the Making

FROM time to time the world is startled into attention by some spectacular revelation of science . . . radio, television, photophone. These . . . and other "modern miracles" . . . are not sudden flashes of genius, but the outcome of years of patient application and scientific study. From the vast laboratories of General Electric Company have come many of the most valuable discoveries in the electrical world

. . . a new and better type of electric lamp; a new method of welding; new automatic controls for industry; more efficient transforming and transmission equipment; new and powerful tubes for radio transmission; new materials and processes for improving quality and reducing costs. And always, in the General Electric Research Laboratories, there are miracles still in the making!

There are gigantic mountains to climb, wonderful vistas of glacier and canyon to remember—and everywhere a pleasant sociability to guarantee a perfect vacation.

Include the "Triangle Tour" in your trip—a thrilling mountain journey to Vancouver—an awe-inspiring boat trip through scenic seas to Prince Rupert—and, if time permits, a trip to Alaska. Then on to Jasper National Park again.

You will be surprised at the low cost of the different tours. Be sure to get full information, booklets, etc., from any Canadian National Agent.

AGRICULTURE

in Canada . . .

CANADA'S greatest industry undoubtedly is farming. Man still finds one of his greatest rewards in planting seed and reaping grain. The farmer is now recognized by all classes of Canadians as the most important producer Canada possesses.

But, this recognition has come only after years of the most heart-breaking toil, and a personal and individual struggle with nature in her varying moods that has made the farmer the truly noble figure he is today.

Life on the farm has been rendered more agreeable since the introduction of electricity. This great force lights the house, the barn and the stables; runs the churning, thrashes the wheat, milks the cows and makes possible the telephone.

Electricity is the servant that never loses its temper, never resigns and never has to be discharged.

The Northern Electric Company manufactures and sells many of the adjuncts that lighten the work of farm life—cables, wires, telephones, electric ranges, electric washers, electric irons and many other units that make possible the application of electricity.

The University of Toronto

Founded by Royal Charter in 1836 "for the general education of youth in the various branches of Literature and Science on Christian Principles."

In Victoria University are the two United Church Colleges:

VICTORIA COLLEGE

As one of the Federated Colleges in the Faculty of Arts of the University of Toronto, Victoria College enrols students in all courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Commerce and Household Science. The course in Arts prepares for admission to the schools of Graduate Studies, Divinity, Education, Law and Medicine.

EMMANUEL COLLEGE

The Theological Faculty of Victoria University and Union Theological College (continuing Knox College in the United Church) have been united under a new charter as Emmanuel College, which is now the one Theological College in Toronto of The United Church of Canada. The regular three years' course leads to the Diploma of the College and the B.D. degree. The large staff of this United College makes it possible to give attention to special courses for missionaries on furlough, and to provide post-graduate courses leading to the Degrees of Th.D. and D.D. Religious Knowledge options for Arts students are provided, and these lectures are open to all university undergraduates.
